To: Comment File (S7-10-22) – The Enhancement and Standardization of Climate-Related Disclosures for Investors

From: The Office of the Chair, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission

Date: October 17, 2023

Re: Meeting with Americans for Financial Reform

On October 2, staff from the Office of the Chair met with Americans for Financial Reform about the SEC's proposal for the enhancement and standardization of climate-related disclosures for investors. During the meeting, the participants discussed the California climate disclosure bills, which had recently passed the California legislature, and AFR's view on the areas of similarities and differences with the SEC's proposal.

Attendees:

- Mika Morse, Chair's Office
- Alex Martin, Americans for Financial Reform
