

August 6, 2008

I can not believe you are considering classifying fixed index annuities as securities.

How can it be a security when none of the funds are invested in securities????

I totally opposed such an action.

All you are doing is making more difficult for families to understand annuities.

You are only adding more government control!!!!!!

STOP!!!

DENNIS S. DAHL