

Please reconsider this change in the 12b-2 rule. Being in this business for 23 years I can see this new rule hindering and possibly eliminating the current service of registered representatives to smaller account holders. This is another over reaction by big government because of abuse by a few bad representatives. We know how it works out here. The lawmakers don't.

Sincerely, Edward Meinen