Re: Investment Company Names (File No. S7-16-22);
Enhanced Disclosures by Certain Investment Advisers and Investment Companies about Environmental, Social, and Governance Investment Practices (File No: S7-17-22)

Dear Secretary Countryman,

Enclosed are 19,390 petition signatures in support of the Securities and Exchange Commission's ("the Commission's") proposed rules that would prevent misleading use of labels on funds that weigh Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) factors and require critical disclosures about funds' ESG strategies.

Given the Commission's mandate to promote a market environment that is transparent, fair, and worthy of the public's trust, Americans for Financial Reform and Public Citizen reached out to retail investors, as well as other market participants who may invest in the future, through an online petition to give them the opportunity to comment on the proposed rule.

The petition garnered 19,390 signatures from individuals in support of the rule, 31% of whom self-identified as investors with one or more of the following: a 401(k), IRA, pension, or stocks or bonds.

The signatories support the proposals, as well as strengthened final rules, as they would provide much-needed naming standards and disclosures to the vast market of ESG-designated investment products and services.

Empty rows in the petition signatures reflect individuals who signed the petition but only provided their first or last name and email. Data is available upon request.

The full petition text reads as follows:

To the Securities and Exchange Commission and SEC Chair Gensler:

The current practice of permitting funds to use misleading names like "Green" or "Socially Responsible"—with no required standards or disclosures attached—makes it difficult for investors to determine whether a fund actually meets their needs and matches their investment goals related to ESG issues like climate change, fair treatment of workers, and racial and economic justice.

That's why we strongly support the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)'s recent proposals [Environmental, Social, and Governance Disclosures for Investment Advisers and

Investment Companies (87 FR 36654; File No: S7-17-22) and Investment Company Names (87 FR 36594; File No: S7-16-22)] and encourage you to maintain the following provisions:

- Funds that are not focused on sustainability factors should not be allowed to use sustainability-themed names;
- Funds should not be allowed to use a name like “ESG,” “Sustainable,” or “Green” unless the label genuinely reflects a major focus of their investment strategy;
- Funds with names like “ESG,” “Sustainable,” or “Green” should describe how they define those terms and their strategies, including how they engage with companies to improve their sustainability performance and what impact they are seeking to achieve; and
- Environmentally-focused funds should disclose the full set of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions from the companies they invest in, including Scopes 1, 2, and 3 emissions, without taking into account carbon offsets or credits.

We also encourage the SEC to include the following recommendation in the final rule:

- Funds should list their top 3 investments in a prominent location in their description to investors; and
- ESG funds that do not have a strategy around GHG emissions should state so affirmatively in their prospectus.

The SEC’s proposed mandatory, standardized disclosures are a vital step towards protecting and providing investors the information they need to make well-informed investment decisions. We appreciate the opportunity to comment on and strengthen these SEC rules.

The petition shows strong support for the Commission updating its rules to provide investors the information they need to make more informed investment decisions that align with their values and needs.

We thank the Commission for issuing these proposals and urge you to strengthen and finalize the proposals on an expeditious timeline.

Sincerely,

Americans for Financial Reform
Public Citizen

The Honorable Allison Herren Lee, Commissioner
The Honorable Hester M. Peirce, Commissioner
The Honorable Caroline A. Crenshaw, Commissioner
