

February 9, 2011

I am against this rule!

Volunteer board directors volunteer their time, skills, expertise and money in providing needed service to municipalities at no cost to the local entities and should NOT be penalized for doing such noble sacrifices to their communities.

Such rule will only work to deter willing and able volunteers from serving their local communities.

George O. Nwanguma