SUBJECT: SR-NYSE-2005-68

This letter fully supports R-NYSE-2005-68-AMENDMENT 1.

For decades, publicly traded companies have endured extensive and onerous costs and untold days of administrative time and expense to distribute annual reports to shareholders. In this day and age of instantaneous electronic communication, where virtually all information is delivered electronically by website or email, it only makes sense to deliver important and desired corporate information in the most efficient and expeditious manner. How easy now for anyone desiring information about a company to get it within seconds, instead of having to wait for it to arrive by regular mail.

The NYSE deserves much credit for understanding and acting upon this issue which adversely affects public companies. The management of Sonic Automotive Inc., (NYSE-SAH) fully supports and hopes for full passage of this proposal. It really is an extension of REG. FD when you think about it...more information simultaneously to everyone.

Thank you for considering this most important proposal and we are very hopeful that the SEC will approve it quickly.

Sincerely,

David P. Cospers
Chief Financial Officer, Executive Vice President
Sonic Automotive Inc.
