Re: The Coca-Cola Company
Incoming letter dated December 17, 2012

Dear Mr. Brandman:

This is in response to your letters dated December 17, 2012 and December 19, 2012 concerning the shareholder proposal submitted to Coca-Cola by James McRitchie. We also have received a letter on the proponent's behalf dated December 18, 2012. Copies of all of the correspondence on which this response is based will be made available on our website at <http://www.sec.gov/divisions/corpfin/cf-noaction/14a-8.shtml>. For your reference, a brief discussion of the Division's informal procedures regarding shareholder proposals is also available at the same website address.

Sincerely,

Ted Yu

Re: The Coca-Cola Company
Incoming letter dated December 17, 2012

The proposal asks the board to take the steps necessary unilaterally (to the fullest extent permitted by law) to amend the bylaws and each appropriate governing document to give holders of 10% of the company's outstanding common stock (or the lowest percentage permitted by law above 10%) the power to call a special shareowner meeting.

There appears to be some basis for your view that Coca-Cola may exclude the proposal under rule 14a-8(i)(9). You represent that matters to be voted on at the upcoming shareholders' meeting include a proposal sponsored by Coca-Cola to amend Coca-Cola's bylaws to permit a shareowner (or a group of shareowners) who beneficially own a net long position of at least 25% of Coca-Cola's outstanding common stock to call a special meeting of shareholders. You indicate that the proposal and the proposal sponsored by Coca-Cola directly conflict. You also indicate that inclusion of both proposals would present alternative and conflicting decisions for the shareholders and would create the potential for inconsistent and ambiguous results. Accordingly, we will not recommend enforcement action to the Commission if Coca-Cola omits the proposal from its proxy materials in reliance on rule 14a-8(i)(9).

Sincerely,

Joseph G. McCann
Attorney-Adviser

DIVISION OF CORPORATION FINANCE
INFORMAL PROCEDURES REGARDING SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

The Division of Corporation Finance believes that its responsibility with respect to matters arising under Rule 14a-8 [17 CFR 240.14a-8], as with other matters under the proxy rules, is to aid those who must comply with the rule by offering informal advice and suggestions and to determine, initially, whether or not it may be appropriate in a particular matter to recommend enforcement action to the Commission. In connection with a shareholder proposal under Rule 14a-8, the Division's staff considers the information furnished to it by the Company in support of its intention to exclude the proposals from the Company's proxy materials, as well as any information furnished by the proponent or the proponent's representative.

Although Rule 14a-8(k) does not require any communications from shareholders to the Commission's staff, the staff will always consider information concerning alleged violations of the statutes administered by the Commission, including argument as to whether or not activities proposed to be taken would be violative of the statute or rule involved. The receipt by the staff of such information, however, should not be construed as changing the staff's informal procedures and proxy review into a formal or adversary procedure.

It is important to note that the staff's and Commission's no-action responses to Rule 14a-8(j) submissions reflect only informal views. The determinations reached in these no-action letters do not and cannot adjudicate the merits of a company's position with respect to the proposal. Only a court such as a U.S. District Court can decide whether a company is obligated to include shareholder proposals in its proxy materials. Accordingly a discretionary determination not to recommend or take Commission enforcement action, does not preclude a proponent, or any shareholder of a company, from pursuing any rights he or she may have against the company in court, should the management omit the proposal from the company's proxy material.

1 Rule 14a-8 Proposal
The Coca-Cola Company (KO)
Special Meeting
James McRitchie

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This is in regard to the December 17, 2012 company request concerning this rule 14a-8 proposal. The company provided absolutely no information on any steps whatsoever that the company might purportedly take in regard to its purported watered-down version of this proposal. The company does not promise to update the Staff on progress in meeting its so-called plan. The company provided no assurance that it will alert the Staff and proponent immediately if its so-called plans change in regard to this proposal topic.

This is to request that the Securities and Exchange Commission allow this resolution to stand and be voted upon in the 2013 proxy.

Sincerely,

John Chevedden

Re: The Coca-Cola Company – Notice of Intent to Omit from Proxy Materials
Shareholder Proposal Submitted by James McRitchie

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Coca-Cola Company, a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), submits this letter pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), to notify the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) of the Company’s intention to exclude a shareholder proposal and related supporting statement (the “Proposal”) received from James McRitchie (the “Proponent”) from its proxy materials for its 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareowners (the “2013 Proxy Materials”). The Proposal was received by the Company on October 25, 2012. Mr. McRitchie’s correspondence indicates that he has given John Chevedden and/or his designee a proxy to act on Mr. McRitchie’s behalf with respect to the Proposal. The Company requests confirmation that the Division of Corporation Finance (the “Staff”) will not recommend to the Commission that enforcement action be taken if the Company excludes the Proposal from its 2013 Proxy Materials in reliance on Rule 14a-8(i)(9) under the Exchange Act.

A copy of the Proposal and all related correspondence with the Proponent and Mr. Chevedden is attached as Exhibit A.

In accordance with Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14D (November 7, 2008), this letter and its attachments are being e-mailed to the Staff at shareholderproposals@sec.gov. A copy of this letter and its attachments are simultaneously being sent to Mr. Chevedden and the Proponent as notice of the Company’s intent to omit the Proposal from the 2013 Proxy Materials as required by Rule 14a-8(j). Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(k) and Section E of SLB No. 14D, the Company requests that Mr. Chevedden and the Proponent concurrently provide to the undersigned a copy of any correspondence that is submitted to the Commission or the staff in response to this letter.

In accordance with Rule 14a-8(j) under the Exchange Act, the Company hereby confirms that this letter is being submitted to the Commission no later than eighty (80) calendar days before the Company intends to file its definitive 2013 Proxy Materials with the Commission.

The Proposal¹

The Proposal states:

“Resolved, Shareowners ask our board to take the steps necessary unilaterally (to the fullest extent permitted by law) to amend our bylaws and each appropriate governing document to give holders of 10% of our outstanding common stock (or the lowest percentage permitted by law above 10%) the power to call a special shareowner meeting.

This includes that such bylaw and/or charter text will not have any exclusionary or prohibitive language in regard to calling a special meeting that apply only to shareowners but not to management and/or the board (to the fullest extent permitted by law).”

Basis for Exclusion

The Company believes that the Proposal may be excluded from the 2013 Proxy Materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(9) because the Proposal directly conflicts with a proposal to be submitted by the Company in its 2013 Proxy Materials.

Analysis

The Proposal may be excluded pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(9) because it directly conflicts with a proposal to be submitted by the Company at its 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareowners.

Currently, the Company does not have a provision in its Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws that permits shareowners to call a special meeting. The Company's By-laws currently provide that a special meeting of shareowners may be called “by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer”. The Company intends to submit a management proposal at its 2013 Annual Meeting that will ask the Company’s shareowners to approve an amendment to the Company’s By-laws to permit a shareowner (or group of shareowners) who beneficially own at least a twenty-five percent (25%) “net long position” in the outstanding common stock of the Company to call a special meeting of shareowners (the “Company Proposal”).

¹ The entire Proposal, including the introductory and supporting statements to the Proposal, is set forth in Exhibit A to this letter.

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(9) under the Exchange Act, a company may properly exclude a shareowner proposal from its proxy materials “if the proposal directly conflicts with one of the company’s own proposals to be submitted to shareholders at the same meeting”. The Commission has indicated that the company’s proposal need not be “identical in scope or focus for the exclusion to be available”. See Exchange Act Release No. 40018, at n. 27 (May 21, 1998).

The Staff has consistently granted no-action relief under Rule 14a-8(i)(9) where a shareowner-sponsored special meeting proposal contains an ownership threshold that differs from a company-sponsored special meeting proposal, because submitting both proposals to a shareowner vote would present alternative and conflicting decisions for shareowners. For example, the Staff recently granted a no-action letter to Harris Corporation (“Harris Corp”) dated July 20, 2012, on very similar grounds. Harris Corp received a shareholder proposal asking the board to implement a 10% ownership threshold for the power of shareholders to call a special meeting. Harris Corp advised the Staff that it intended to submit to shareholders a proposal with a 25% ownership threshold. Harris Corp asserted that its proposal and the shareholder’s proposal directly conflicted, and as a result, the Staff agreed that it was appropriate to exclude the shareholder’s proposal pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(i)(9).

Similarly, in Biogen Idec Inc. (“Biogen”) (March 13, 2012), the Staff concurred with the exclusion of a shareholder proposal that would have enabled shareholders holding at least 10% of Biogen’s common stock to call a special meeting. Biogen represented that its proposal to amend the company’s bylaws would permit shareholders holding, in the aggregate, at least 25% of Biogen’s common stock held in a “net long position” for at least one year to call a special meeting. The Staff noted that Biogen represented that the shareholder proposal and the Biogen proposal directly conflicted, that the proposals included different thresholds for the percentage of shares required to call a special shareholder meeting and, accordingly, presented alternative and conflicting decisions for shareholders.

There are numerous other no-action letters involving substantially similar situations where the Staff has concurred in the exclusion of a proposal pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(9): Equinix, Inc. (March 27, 2012); Cognizant Technology Solutions Corp. (March 15, 2012); Omnicom Group Inc. (February 27, 2012); Devon Energy Corporation (February 21, 2012); McDonald’s Corporation (February 1, 2012); The Dun & Bradstreet Corp. (January 31, 2012); Flowserve Corp. (January 31, 2012); The Wendy’s Company (January 31, 2012); Cummins Inc. (January 24, 2012); Hospira, Inc. (January 20, 2012); eBay, Inc. (January 13, 2012); Fluor Corp. (January 11, 2012); Praxair, Inc. (January 11, 2012); ITT Corp. (February 28, 2011); Southwestern Energy Co. (February 28, 2011); Express Scripts, Inc. (January 31, 2011); Altera Corporation (January 14, 2011); Mattel, Inc. (January 13, 2011); Textron Inc. (January 5, 2011); and Gilead Sciences, Inc. (January 4, 2011).

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission
Division of Corporation Finance
Office of the Chief Counsel
December 17, 2012
Page 4

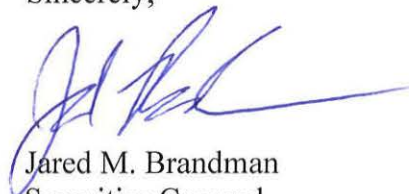

The Company's circumstance is substantially the same as those presented in the above-cited no-action letters. The Company Proposal and the Proposal directly conflict, and inclusion of both proposals in the 2013 Proxy Materials would present alternative and conflicting decisions for the Company's shareowners. Specifically, the Company Proposal would call for a 25% ownership threshold to call a special meeting, and on the other hand, the Proposal would call for a 10% ownership threshold to call such a meeting. Failing to exclude the Proposal from the 2013 Proxy Materials would create the potential for inconsistent and ambiguous results, particularly if both proposals were approved. Therefore, based on the foregoing, the Company believes that the Proposal may properly be excluded from its 2013 Proxy Materials under Rule 14a-8(i)(9) of the Exchange Act.

Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Company hereby respectfully requests confirmation that the Staff will not recommend any enforcement action to the Commission if the Proposal is excluded from the 2013 Proxy Materials. Should the Staff disagree with the conclusions set forth in this letter, the Company would appreciate the opportunity to confer with the Staff prior to the issuance of the Staff's response.

Should the Staff have any questions regarding this matter, please feel free to call me at (404) 676-2749.

Sincerely,

Jared M. Brandman

4* – Special Shareowner Meeting Right

Resolved, Shareowners ask our board to take the steps necessary unilaterally (to the fullest extent permitted by law) to amend our bylaws and each appropriate governing document to give holders of 10% of our outstanding common stock (or the lowest percentage permitted by law above 10%) the power to call a special shareowner meeting.

This includes that such bylaw and/or charter text will not have any exclusionary or prohibitive language in regard to calling a special meeting that apply only to shareowners but not to management and/or the board (to the fullest extent permitted by law).

Special meetings allow shareowners to vote on important matters, such as electing new directors that can arise between annual meetings. Shareowner input on the timing of shareowner meetings is especially important when events unfold quickly and issues may become moot by the next annual meeting. This proposal does not impact our board's current power to call a special meeting. This proposal topic won more than 60% support at CVS, Sprint and Safeway.

This proposal should also be evaluated in the context of our Company's overall corporate governance as reported in 2012:

GMI/The Corporate Library, an independent investment research firm, has rated our company "F" since 2009 with "Very High Governance Risk," "Very High Concern" in director qualifications and "Very High Concern" in Executive Pay – $29 million for our CEO Muhtar Kent. Mr. Kent's pension increased by $8 million ($5.5 million increase in 2010) and his "all other compensation" was $756,000 in 2011 (after $737,000 in 2010). Because these two items were not directly tied to performance, they are difficult to justify in terms of shareholder value.

The large size of our board posed a risk of domination by our Chairman. Eight of our directors were age 70 to 85 – succession planning concern. Eight directors had 10 to 33 years long-tenure. Three of the four directors on our audit committee had 21 to 33 years long-tenure. Director independence erodes after 10-years. Five directors each had seats on 4 to 6 boards of major companies – over-extension concern. Barry Diller, Jacob Wallenberg and Ronald Allen (on our audit committee) received our highest negative votes of 15% to 30%. As a benchmark some of our directors received less than 1% in negative votes.

Mr. Keough was on the board of IAC/InterActiveCorp with Barry Diller. Herbert Allen was on the board of Aircastle Limited with our Audit Committee chair Peter Ueberroth. Such intra-board relationships can compromise director independence.

Please encourage our board to respond positively to this proposal to strengthen our corporate governance:

James McRitchie,  FISMA & OMB Memorandum M-07-16  sponsored this proposal.

Please note that the title of the proposal is part of the proposal.

*Number to be assigned by the company.

This proposal is believed to conform with Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14B (CF), September 15, 2004 including (emphasis added):

Accordingly, going forward, we believe that it would not be appropriate for companies to exclude supporting statement language and/or an entire proposal in reliance on rule 14a-8(l)(3) in the following circumstances:

- the company objects to factual assertions because they are not supported;
- the company objects to factual assertions that, while not materially false or misleading, may be disputed or countered;
- the company objects to factual assertions because those assertions may be interpreted by shareholders in a manner that is unfavorable to the company, its directors, or its officers; and/or
- the company objects to statements because they represent the opinion of the shareholder proponent or a referenced source, but the statements are not identified specifically as such.

We believe that it is appropriate under rule 14a-8 for companies to address these objections in their statements of opposition.

4* – Special Shareowner Meeting Right

Resolved, Shareowners ask our board to take the steps necessary unilaterally (to the fullest extent permitted by law) to amend our bylaws and each appropriate governing document to give holders of 10% of our outstanding common stock (or the lowest percentage permitted by law above 10%) the power to call a special shareowner meeting.

This includes that such bylaw and/or charter text will not have any exclusionary or prohibitive language in regard to calling a special meeting that apply only to shareowners but not to management and/or the board (to the fullest extent permitted by law).

Special meetings allow shareowners to vote on important matters, such as electing new directors that can arise between annual meetings. Shareowner input on the timing of shareowner meetings is especially important when events unfold quickly and issues may become moot by the next annual meeting. This proposal does not impact our board's current power to call a special meeting. This proposal topic won more than 60% support at CVS, Sprint and Safeway.

This proposal should also be evaluated in the context of our Company's overall corporate governance as reported in 2012:

GMI/The Corporate Library, an independent investment research firm, has rated our company "F" since 2009 with "Very High Governance Risk," "Very High Concern" in director qualifications and "Very High Concern" in Executive Pay – $29 million for our CEO Muhtar Kent. Mr. Kent's pension increased by $8 million ($5.5 million increase in 2010) and his "all other compensation" was $756,000 in 2011 (after $737,000 in 2010). Because these two items were not directly tied to performance, they are difficult to justify in terms of shareholder value.

The large size of our board posed a risk of domination by our Chairman. Eight of our directors were age 70 to 85 – succession planning concern. Eight directors had 10 to 33 years long-tenure. Three of the four directors on our audit committee had 21 to 33 years long-tenure. Director independence erodes after 10-years. Five directors each had seats on 4 to 6 boards of major companies – over-extension concern. Barry Diller, Jacob Wallenberg and Ronald Allen (on our audit committee) received our highest negative votes of 15% to 30%. As a benchmark some of our directors received less than 1% in negative votes.

Mr. Keough was on the board of IAC/InterActiveCorp with Barry Diller. Herbert Allen was on the board of Aircastle Limited with our Audit Committee chair Peter Ueberroth. Such intra-board relationships can compromise director independence.

Please encourage our board to respond positively to this proposal to strengthen our corporate governance:

This proposal is believed to conform with Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14B (CF), September 15, 2004 including (emphasis added):

Accordingly, going forward, we believe that it would not be appropriate for companies to exclude supporting statement language and/or an entire proposal in reliance on rule 14a-8(i)(3) in the following circumstances:

- the company objects to factual assertions because they are not supported;
- the company objects to factual assertions that, while not materially false or misleading, may be disputed or countered;
- the company objects to factual assertions because those assertions may be interpreted by shareholders in a manner that is unfavorable to the company, its directors, or its officers; and/or
- the company objects to statements because they represent the opinion of the shareholder proponent or a referenced source, but the statements are not identified specifically as such.

We believe that it is appropriate under rule 14a-8 for companies to address these objections in their statements of opposition.
