Re: The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc.
Request to Omit Shareholder Proposal of The AFL-CIO Reserve Fund

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), hereby gives notice of its intention to omit from the proxy statement and form of proxy for the Company's 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (together, the "2017 Proxy Materials") a shareholder proposal (including its supporting statement, the "Proposal") received from the AFL-CIO Reserve Fund (the "Proponent"). The full text of the Proposal and all other relevant correspondence with the Proponent are attached as Exhibit A.

The Company believes it may properly omit the Proposal from the 2017 Proxy Materials for the reason discussed below. The Company respectfully requests confirmation that the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance (the "Staff") of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") will not recommend enforcement action to the Commission if the Company excludes the Proposal from the 2017 Proxy Materials.

This letter, including the exhibits hereto, is being submitted electronically to the Staff at shareholderproposals@sec.gov. Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j), we have filed this letter with the Commission no later than 80 calendar days before the Company intends to file its definitive 2017 Proxy Materials with the Commission. A copy of this letter is being sent simultaneously to the Proponent as notification of the Company's intention to omit the Proposal from the 2017 Proxy Materials.

I. The Proposal

The resolution included in the Proposal reads as follows:

“RESOLVED: Shareholders of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. (the “Company”) request that the Board of Directors adopt a policy prohibiting the vesting of equity-based awards for senior executives due to a voluntary resignation to enter government service (a “Government Service Golden Parachute”).

For purposes of this resolution, “equity-based awards” include stock options, restricted stock and other stock awards granted under an equity incentive plan. “Government service” includes employment with any U.S. federal, state or local government, any supranational or international organization, any self-regulatory organization, or any agency or instrumentality of any such government or organization, or any electoral campaign for public office.

This policy shall be implemented so as not to violate existing contractual obligations or the terms of any compensation or benefit plan currently in existence on the date this proposal is adopted, and it shall apply only to equity awards or plan amendments that shareholders approve after the date of the 2017 annual meeting.”

The full text of the Proposal, supporting statement and all other correspondence with the Proponent are attached as Exhibit A.

II. Reason for Omission

The Company believes that the Proposal properly may be excluded from the 2017 Proxy Materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(ii) because the Proposal deals with substantially the same subject matter as two prior proposals, and the most recently submitted proposal did not receive the necessary support for resubmission.

Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(ii) permits the exclusion of a shareholder proposal that deals with “substantially the same subject matter” as other proposals that have been previously included in a company's proxy materials at least two times within the preceding five calendar years and received less than 6% of votes cast on its last submission to shareholders. The Commission has indicated that the requirement in Rule 14a-8(i)(12) that the proposals must deal with “substantially the same subject matter” does not mean that the previous proposals and the current proposal must be identical. Rather, the Commission has indicated that decisions to exclude a shareholder proposal on the basis of Rule 14a-8(i)(12) will be driven by “a consideration of the substantive concerns raised by a proposal rather than the specific language or actions proposed to deal with those concerns.” Release No. 34-20091, Amendments to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Relating to Proposals by Security Holders, [1983-1984 Transfer Binder] Fed. Sec. L. Rep. (CCH) ¶ 83,417, at 86,206 (Aug. 16, 1983).

In applying this standard, the Staff has focused on the substantive concerns raised by the proposal as the essential consideration. Under this standard, the Staff has concurred with the exclusion of proposals under Rule 14a-8(i)(12) when the proposal shares similar social and policy issues with a prior proposal, even if it recommends that the company take different actions and uses different language. See, e.g., Google Inc. (Mar. 6, 2015) (proposal requesting semiannual disclosure of political contributions on the company's website was excludable because it dealt with substantially the same subject matter as a prior proposal requesting annual proxy statement disclosure of political contributions and expenditures, an analysis of the congruency of those expenditures and company values, and an advisory shareholder vote on those policies and future plans); The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. (Feb. 17, 2015) (proposal requesting a report on lobbying contributions and expenditures was excludable because it dealt with substantially the same subject matter as a prior proposal requesting a report on policies and procedures for political expenditures); Exxon Mobil Corp. (Mar. 7, 2013) (proposal requesting the company to review the exposure of its facilities to climate risk and issue a report to shareholders was excludable because it dealt with substantially the same subject matter as prior proposals requesting that the company either establish a committee or a task force to address issues relating to environmental sustainability).

The Proposal, similar to those in the letters cited above, deals with substantially the same subject matter as two prior proposals that were included in the Company's proxy statements for the 2015 and 2016 Annual Meetings of Shareholders (the "2015 Proposal" and the "2016 Proposal," respectively, and collectively, the "Prior Proposals"). The vote for the 2016 Proposal was lower than the 6% support required for the resubmission of a substantially similar proposal under Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(ii).

The Proposal requests that the board "adopt a policy prohibiting the vesting of equity-based awards for senior executives due to a voluntary resignation to enter government service." The 2016 Proposal (attached hereto as Exhibit B) made the exact same request. The 2015 Proposal (attached hereto as Exhibit C) requested that the board "prepare a report to shareholders regarding the vesting of equity-based awards for senior executives due to a voluntary resignation to enter government service."

Applying the standard for exclusion utilized by the Staff, the Proposal and the Prior Proposals deal with substantially the same issue. The Proposal and the 2016 Proposal are substantively identical. Both request that the board "adopt a policy prohibiting the vesting of equity-based awards for senior executives due to a voluntary resignation to enter government service." The definitions of "equity-based awards" and "government service" are both also identical.

The 2015 Proposal deals with substantially the same subject matter as the Proposal and the 2016 Proposal, and differs only in that it requests issuance of a report rather than adoption of a policy. The subject matter is described using the exact same words: "the vesting of equity-based awards for senior executives due to a voluntary resignation to enter government service." In addition, "equity-based awards" and "government service" are defined identically as in the Proposal and the 2016 Proposal.

The Staff has found proposals requesting a certain action with respect to a subject matter and proposals requesting a disclosure with respect to the same subject matter to deal with “substantially the same subject matter.” See, e.g., Abbot Laboratories (Jan. 27, 2010) (proposal requesting that the company include information on its use of animals in research and product testing in its annual Global Citizenship Report was excludable because it dealt with substantially the same subject matter as a prior proposal requesting that the company commit specifically to using only non-animal methods for assessing skin conditions); Medtronic Inc. (Jun. 2, 2005) (proposal requesting that the company list all of its political and charitable contributions on its website was excludable because it dealt with substantially the same subject matter as a prior proposal requesting that the company cease making charitable contributions); Saks Inc. (Mar. 1, 2004) (proposal requesting that the company implement a code of conduct based on International Labor Organization standards, establish an independent monitoring process and annually report on adherence to such code was excludable because it dealt with substantially the same subject matter as a prior proposal requesting a report on the company’s vendor labor standards and compliance mechanisms). Based on these letters, it is clear that the Proposal deals with “substantially the same subject matter” as the Prior Proposals.

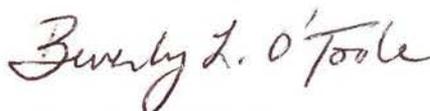

As reported in the Company’s Form 8-K dated May 20, 2016 (a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit D), the 2016 Proposal received less than 5% of the votes cast at the 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (specifically, 15,631,672 shares were voted “for” the proposal and 305,747,980 shares were voted “against,” which means the 2016 Proposal received the support of 4.86% of votes cast).

Because the Proposal concerns substantially the same subject matter as two prior proposals included in the Company’s proxy materials in the last five years, and because the last such proposal to be submitted to shareholders received less than 6% of the votes cast for and against the proposal, we respectfully request that the Staff concur in our view that the Company may omit the Proposal from the 2017 Proxy Materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(ii).

Dear Mr. Rogers:

On behalf of the AFL-CIO Reserve Fund (the "Fund"), I write to give notice that pursuant to the 2016 proxy statement of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. (the "Company"), the Fund intends to present the attached proposal (the "Proposal") at the 2017 annual meeting of shareholders (the "Annual Meeting"). The Fund requests that the Company include the Proposal in the Company's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting.

The Fund is the beneficial owner of 223 shares of voting common stock (the "Shares") of the Company. The Fund has held at least $2,000 in market value of the Shares for over one year, and the Fund intends to hold at least $2,000 in market value of the Shares through the date of the Annual Meeting. A letter from the Fund's custodian bank documenting the Fund's ownership of the Shares is enclosed.

The Proposal is attached. I represent that the Fund or its agent intends to appear in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting to present the Proposal. I declare that the Fund has no "material interest" other than that believed to be shared by stockholders of the Company generally. Please direct all questions or correspondence regarding the Proposal to me at 202-637-5152 or brees@aflcio.org.

Dear Mr. Rogers:

AmalgaTrust, a division of Amalgamated Bank of Chicago, is the record holder of 223 shares of common stock (the "Shares") of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. beneficially owned by the AFL-CIO Reserve Fund as of December 6, 2016. The AFL-CIO Reserve Fund has continuously held at least $2,000 in market value of the Shares for over one year as of December 6, 2016. The Shares are held by AmalgaTrust at the Depository Trust Company in our participant account No. 2567.

RESOLVED: Shareholders of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. (the "Company") request that the Board of Directors adopt a policy prohibiting the vesting of equity-based awards for senior executives due to a voluntary resignation to enter government service (a "Government Service Golden Parachute").

For purposes of this resolution, "equity-based awards" include stock options, restricted stock and other stock awards granted under an equity incentive plan. "Government service" includes employment with any U.S. federal, state or local government, any supranational or international organization, any self-regulatory organization, or any agency or instrumentality of any such government or organization, or any electoral campaign for public office.

This policy shall be implemented so as not to violate existing contractual obligations or the terms of any compensation or benefit plan currently in existence on the date this proposal is adopted, and it shall apply only to equity awards or plan amendments that shareholders approve after the date of the 2017 annual meeting.

SUPPORTING STATEMENT:

Our Company provides its senior executives with vesting of equity-based awards after their voluntary resignation of employment from the Company to pursue a career in government service. In other words, our Company gives a "golden parachute" for entering government service.

At most companies, equity-based awards vest over a period of time to compensate executives for their labor during the commensurate period. If an executive voluntarily resigns before the vesting criteria are satisfied, unvested awards are usually forfeited. While government service is commendable, we question the practice of our Company providing accelerated vesting of equity-based awards to executives who voluntarily resign to enter government service.

The vesting of equity-based awards over a period of time is a powerful tool for companies to attract and retain talented employees. But contrary to this goal, our Company's Stock Incentive Plan contains a "Conflicted Employment" clause that permits the accelerated vesting of equity awards or an equivalent cash payment to executives who voluntarily resign to pursue a government service career.

Last year in its opposition statement to this resolution, the Company stated that it had issued a report showing that "None of our Senior Executives holds any equity-based awards the vesting of which would be triggered by the Senior Executive's voluntary resignation to enter into government service." However, this report only covered the Company's five Named Executive Officers. Other senior executives at our Company may be eligible to receive a Government Service Golden Parachute.

We believe that compensation plans should align the interests of senior executives with the long-term interests of the Company. We oppose compensation plans that provide windfalls to executives that are unrelated to their performance. For these reasons, we question how our Company benefits from providing Government Service Golden Parachutes. Surely our Company does not expect to receive favorable treatment from its former executives?

RESOLVED: Shareholders of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. (the “Company”) request that the Board of Directors prepare a report to shareholders regarding the vesting of equity-based awards for senior executives due to a voluntary resignation to enter government service (a “Government Service Golden Parachute”). The report shall identify the names of all Company senior executives who are eligible to receive a Government Service Golden Parachute, and the estimated dollar value amount of each senior executive’s Government Service Golden Parachute.

For purposes of this resolution, “equity-based awards” include stock options, restricted stock and other stock awards granted under an equity incentive plan. “Government service” includes employment with any U.S. federal, state or local government, any supranational or international organization, any self-regulatory organization, or any agency or instrumentality of any such government or organization, or any electoral campaign for public office.

Issuing a report to shareholders on the Company’s use of Government Service Golden Parachutes will provide an opportunity for the Company to explain this practice and provide needed transparency for investors about their use.

For these reasons, we urge shareholders to vote FOR this proposal.
