Re: *Chevron Corporation
Stockholder Proposal of The City of Philadelphia Public Employees
Retirement System et al.
Exchange Act of 1934—Rule 14a-8*

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This letter is to inform you that our client, Chevron Corporation (the “Company”), intends to omit from its proxy statement and form of proxy for its 2020 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (collectively, the “2020 Proxy Materials”) a stockholder proposal (the “Proposal”) and statements in support thereof (the “Supporting Statement”) received from The City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System, Boston Trust Walden, DANA Investment Advisors, United Steelworkers, Sisters of Saint Francis Charitable Trust, Sisters of St. Francis, Dubuque, Mercy Investment Services, AP7, Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary, Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange, Benedictine Sisters of Mount St. Scholastica, Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate, and Greater Manchester Pension Fund (collectively, the “Proponents”).

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j), we have:

- filed this letter with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) no later than eighty (80) calendar days before the Company intends to file its definitive 2020 Proxy Materials with the Commission; and
- concurrently sent copies of this correspondence to the Proponents.

Rule 14a-8(k) and Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14D (Nov. 7, 2008) (“SLB 14D”) provide that stockholder proponents are required to send companies a copy of any correspondence that the proponents elect to submit to the Commission or the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance (the “Staff”). Accordingly, we are taking this opportunity to inform the Proponents that if the Proponents elect to submit additional correspondence to the Commission or the Staff with respect to this Proposal, a copy of that correspondence should be sent at the same time to the undersigned on behalf of the Company pursuant to Rule 14a-8(k) and SLB 14D.

THE PROPOSAL

The Proposal states:

Resolved, the stockholders of Chevron request the preparation of a report, updated annually, disclosing:

1. Company policy and procedures governing lobbying, both direct and indirect, and grassroots lobbying communications.
2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron's membership in and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management's and the Board's decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

For purposes of this proposal, a "grassroots lobbying communication" is a communication directed to the general public that (a) refers to specific legislation or regulation, (b) reflects a view on the legislation or regulation and (c) encourages the recipient of the communication to take action with respect to the legislation or regulation. "Indirect lobbying" is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both "direct and indirect lobbying" and "grassroots lobbying communications" include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

The report shall be presented to the Public Policy Committee and posted on Chevron's website.

A copy of the Proposal, the Supporting Statement and related correspondence with the Proponents, is attached to this letter as Exhibit A.

BASIS FOR EXCLUSION

We hereby respectfully request that the Staff concur in our view that the Proposal may be excluded from the 2020 Proxy Materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(11) because the Proposal is virtually identical to, and therefore substantially duplicates, a stockholder proposal the Company received from the National Center for Public Policy Research (the “NCPPr Proposal,” and together with the Proposal, the “Proposals”), which was previously submitted to the Company and which the Company intends to include in the 2020 Proxy Materials.

ANALYSIS

The Proposal May Be Excluded Under Rule 14a-8(i)(11) Because It Substantially Duplicates An Earlier Submitted Proposal That The Company Intends To Include In Its 2020 Proxy Materials

A. Background

The Proposal substantially duplicates the NCPPr Proposal. See Exhibit B. The NCPPr Proposal states:

Resolved, the shareowners of Chevron request the preparation of a report, updated annually, disclosing:

1. Company policy and procedures governing lobbying, both direct and indirect, and grassroots lobbying communications.
2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron’s membership and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and/or endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management’s and the Board’s decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

For purposes of this proposal, a “grassroots lobbying communication” is a communication directed to the general public that (a) refers to specific legislation or regulation, (b) reflects a view on the legislation or regulation and (c) encourages the recipient of the communication to take action with respect to the legislation or regulation. “Indirect lobbying” is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both “direct and indirect lobbying” and “grassroots lobbying communications” include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

Office of Chief Counsel
Division of Corporation Finance
January 17, 2020

The report shall be presented to all relevant oversight committees and posted on Chevron's website.

The Company initially received the NCPPR Proposal on August 6, 2019, which is before the date the Company first received the Proposal from one of the Proponents, The City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System, on October 24, 2019. See Exhibit A and Exhibit B. The Company intends to include the NCPPR Proposal in its 2020 Proxy Materials.

B. Analysis

Rule 14a-8(i)(11) provides that a stockholder proposal may be excluded if it “substantially duplicates another proposal previously submitted to the company by another proponent that will be included in the company’s proxy materials for the same meeting.” The Commission has stated that “the purpose of [Rule 14a-8(i)(11)] is to eliminate the possibility of shareholders having to consider two or more substantially identical proposals submitted to an issuer by proponents acting independently of each other.” Exchange Act Release No. 12999 (Nov. 22, 1976). The standard that the Staff traditionally has applied for determining whether stockholder proposals are substantially duplicative is whether the proposals present the same “principal thrust” or “principal focus.” Pacific Gas & Electric Co. (avail. Feb. 1, 1993).

The resolved clauses in the Proposal and the NCPPR Proposal are virtually identical and, therefore, share the same principal thrust or focus. The Staff has consistently concurred with the exclusion of proposals under Rule 14a-8(i)(11) when the proposal and a prior proposal contained virtually identical language in the resolved clause. For example, in Pfizer Inc. (avail. Feb. 28, 2019) (“Pfizer 2019”), the Staff concurred with the exclusion of a stockholder proposal “request[ing] that the [c]ompany prepare a report on lobbying contributions and expenditures that contains information specified in the [p]roposal” under Rule 14a-8(i)(11) on the basis that it was “substantially duplicative of [the] previously submitted proposal that will be included in the [c]ompany’s 2019 proxy materials,” where the two proposals contained virtually identical resolved clauses. See also The Walt Disney Co. (avail. Dec. 6, 2019) (concurring with the exclusion of a stockholder proposal on the basis of Rule 14a-8(i)(11) where the company argued that the request to prepare a report on lobbying contributions and expenditures substantially duplicated a previously submitted proposal with a virtually identical resolved clause); Danaher Corp. (avail. Jan. 19, 2017) (concurring with the exclusion of a stockholder proposal under Rule 14a-8(i)(11) because the proposal substantially duplicated a previously submitted proposal with a virtually identical resolved clause requesting that the company issue a report on its plan to achieve certain greenhouse gas emission targets); United Therapeutics Corp. (avail. Mar. 5, 2015) (concurring with the exclusion of a proxy access stockholder proposal as substantially duplicative of a previously submitted, substantially identical proxy access proposal to be included in the company's proxy materials for the same meeting); Google Inc. (avail. Jan. 22, 2014) (concurring with the exclusion of a stockholder proposal providing for majority voting where a previously submitted proposal contained the same requests and only varied in how it referred to the company). Additionally, the Staff already essentially provided a determination on the Proposals when effectively the same pair of proposals was received in Pfizer 2019.

In Pfizer 2019, the company also first received a proposal from the National Center for Public Policy Research (the "Pfizer NCPPR Proposal"), which is identical to the Company's NCPPR Proposal except for the company names and the two to three trade associations or groups named in the supporting statements as associated with the companies. The company then received a subsequent proposal (the "Pfizer Excluded Proposal," and together with the Pfizer NCPPR Proposal, the "Pfizer Proposals"), virtually identical to the Proposal besides being tailored to the company (i.e., virtually identical resolved clauses followed by supporting statements that both address, in the following order, (i) provide information on the companies' federal and state lobbying expenditures, (ii) disclose the lobbying expenses of certain large trade associations tied to the companies, (iii) note the companies' non-disclosure of payments to trade associations or certain tax-exempt groups, and (iv) present concerns regarding the risk of the companies' "lobbying contradict[ing] company public positions"). The resolved clauses in the Pfizer Proposals were virtually identical—the differences between the two were few and negligible (e.g., rearranging a few words within a sentence; using "shareholders" versus "shareowners"), with the only substantive difference being the requirement to present to "the Corporate Governance Committee" versus "all relevant oversight committees." In its no-action request, the company indicated that it planned to include the earlier received Pfizer NCPPR Proposal in its proxy materials, and the Staff thus concurred in the exclusion of the later received Pfizer Excluded Proposal under Rule 14a-8(i)(11).

The Proposals essentially mirror the Pfizer Proposals as described above and contain resolved clauses virtually identical to each other and to the Pfizer Proposals. In fact, the differences between the resolved clauses in the Proposals are even more minute than in the Pfizer Proposals, with fewer negligible differences, in addition to the one difference to present to the "Public Policy Committee" versus "all relevant oversight committees."

Furthermore, as shown in Pfizer 2019, the Staff has consistently concurred with the exclusion of proposals under Rule 14a-8(i)(11) when the proposal and a prior proposal present the same principal thrust or focus despite containing different supporting statements. In Pfizer 2019, the supporting statement of the Pfizer NCPPR Proposal "describe[d] lobbying in the context of [the company's] free speech and freedom of association rights," while the Pfizer Excluded Proposal "describe[d] the [p]roponents' concern that the lack of lobbying disclosure creates reputational risk when such lobbying contradicts public positions.” The company maintained that despite these differences, the Pfizer Proposals “share[d] the same principal thrust or focus” because their resolved clauses were virtually identical. See also The Walt Disney Co. (avail. Dec. 6, 2019) (same); Danaher Corp. (avail. Jan. 19, 2017) (concurring with the exclusion of a proposal to adopt goals for reducing greenhouse gas emissions, with a supporting statement describing reasons to do so, as substantially duplicative of an earlier-received proposal with a supporting statement describing risks and opportunities associated with climate change); Duke Energy Corp. (avail. Feb. 19, 2016) (concurring with the exclusion of a proposal requesting that the board review and report on the company’s relationship with organizations that may engage in lobbying, with a supporting statement suggesting considering the company’s benefits derived from limited government and relationships with pro-growth groups, as substantially duplicative of an earlier-received proposal substantially similar to the Proposal and also with a supporting statement calling for increased lobbying disclosure); Pfizer Inc. (avail. Feb. 17, 2012) (concurring with the exclusion of a proposal requesting a lobbying priorities report, with a supporting statement describing the company’s involvement in the passage of Obamacare, as substantially duplicative of another earlier-received proposal substantially similar to the Proposal with a supporting statement calling for increased lobbying disclosure).

As noted above, the wording of the resolved clauses in the Proposals is substantively identical, as was the case in Pfizer 2019. The supporting statements in the Proposals mirror those in the Pfizer Proposals, and therefore again do not impact that the Proposals present the same principal thrust or focus. Thus, as already determined by the Staff in Pfizer, the Proposal is “substantially duplicative of [the] previously submitted proposal that will be included in the Company’s [2020] proxy materials.”

Finally, because the Proposal substantially duplicates the NCPPR Proposal, if the Company were required to include both proposals in its proxy materials, there is a risk that the Company’s stockholders would be confused when asked to vote on both proposals. In such a circumstance, stockholders could assume incorrectly that there are substantive differences between the two proposals and the requested reports. As noted above, the purpose of Rule 14a-8(i)(11) “is to eliminate the possibility of shareholders having to consider two or more substantially identical proposals submitted to an issuer by proponents acting independently of each other.” Exchange Act Release No. 12999 (Nov. 22, 1976). Accordingly, the Company believes that the Proposal may be excluded as substantially duplicative of the NCPPR Proposal.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing analysis, we respectfully request that the Staff concur that it will take no action if the Company excludes the Proposal from its 2020 Proxy Materials.

Re: The City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System

Dear Ms. Francis:

In my capacity as the Chief Investment Officer of The City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System (the "Fund"), I write to give notice that pursuant to the 2019 proxy statement of Chevron Corporation (the "Company"), the Fund intends to present the attached proposal (the "Proposal") at the 2020 annual meeting of shareholders (the "Annual Meeting") along with co-filers. The Fund requests that the Company include the Proposal in the Company's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting.

A letter from the Fund's custodian documenting the Fund's continuous ownership of the requisite amount of the Company's stock for at least one year prior to the date of this letter is being sent under separate cover. The Fund also intends to continue its ownership of at least the minimum number of shares required by the SEC regulations through the date of the Annual Meeting.

I represent that the Fund or its agent intends to appear in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting to present the attached Proposal. I declare the Fund has no "material interest" other than that believed to be shared by stockholders of the Company generally.

Sincerely,

Christopher DiFusco
Chief Investment Officer

Whereas, we believe in full disclosure of Chevron’s lobbying activities and expenditures to assess whether its lobbying is consistent with Chevron’s expressed goals and in stockholders’ best interests.

Resolved, the stockholders of Chevron request the preparation of a report, updated annually, disclosing:

1. Company policy and procedures governing lobbying, both direct and indirect, and grassroots lobbying communications.
2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron’s membership in and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management’s and the Board’s decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

For purposes of this proposal, a “grassroots lobbying communication” is a communication directed to the general public that (a) refers to specific legislation or regulation, (b) reflects a view on the legislation or regulation and (c) encourages the recipient of the communication to take action with respect to the legislation or regulation. “Indirect lobbying” is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both “direct and indirect lobbying” and “grassroots lobbying communications” include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

The report shall be presented to the Public Policy Committee and posted on Chevron’s website.

Supporting Statement

Chevron spent $84,560,000 on federal lobbying from 2010 – 2018. This does not include state lobbying, where Chevron also lobbies but disclosure is uneven or absent. For example, Chevron spent $35,124,804 lobbying in California from 2010 – 2018. Chevron also lobbies abroad, spending between €1,000,000–1,249,999 on lobbying in Europe for 2018.

We commend Chevron for now disclosing its largest trade associations. Chevron belongs to the Business Roundtable (BRT), Chamber of Commerce and National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), which spent $127,448,048 on lobbying for 2018. Both the BRT and NAM are lobbying against shareholder rights to file resolutions. Chevron does not disclose its payments to trade associations nor amounts used for lobbying. And Chevron does not disclose its payments to tax-exempt organizations that write and endorse model legislation, such as the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC).

We are concerned that Chevron’s lack of disclosure presents reputational risks when its lobbying contradicts company public positions. For example, Chevron supports the Paris climate agreement, yet a 2019 InfluenceMap report found Chevron has spent millions lobbying to undermine it.¹ And Chevron’s ALEC membership has drawn scrutiny.² Investors participating in the Climate Action 100+ representing $34 trillion in assets are asking companies to align their lobbying with the goals of the Paris agreement. Peer Shell produced an “Industry Associations Climate Review” report to ensure its trade association participation aligned with its views.³

We believe reputational damage stemming from misalignment between policy positions and actual direct and indirect lobbying efforts harms long-term value creation by Chevron. Thus, we urge Chevron to expand its lobbying disclosure.

Political Lobbying and Contributions

Whereas, we believe in full disclosure of our Company's direct and indirect lobbying activities and expenditures to assess whether Chevron's lobbying is consistent with the Company's expressed goals and in the best interest of shareowners.

Resolved, the shareowners of Chevron request the preparation of a report, updated annually, disclosing:

1. Company policy and procedures governing lobbying, both direct and indirect, and grassroots lobbying communications.
2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron's membership and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and/or endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management's and the Board's decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

"Indirect lobbying" is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both "direct and indirect lobbying" and "grassroots lobbying communications" include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

The report shall be presented to all relevant oversight committees and posted on Chevron's website.

Supporting Statement

The Company lobbies on a broad array of issues and works with groups that do the same. That's a good thing as the Company is rightfully exercising free speech. As such, the Company has become a target for anti-free speech activists. These activists are working to defund pro-business organizations by attacking their corporate members.

The Company should take an active role in combating this narrative and attacks on its freedom of association rights.

The Company should be proud of its memberships in trade associations and non-profit groups that promote pro-business, pro-growth initiatives.

For example, the Company's relationships with groups such as the American Legislative Exchange Council, the American Petroleum Institute, the National Association of Manufacturers, and the Business Roundtable should be applauded and endorsed by shareholders. These groups advance initiatives that are designed to unburden corporations such as Chevron, allowing them the freedom to create jobs and economic prosperity in the United States.

Rather than letting outside agitators set the message that these relationships are somehow nefarious, the Company should explain the benefits of its involvement with groups that advocate for smaller government, lower taxes, and free-market reforms. The Company should show how these relationships benefit shareholders, increase jobs and wages, help local communities, and generally advance the Company's interests.

The proponent supports the Company's free speech rights and freedom to associate with groups that advance economic liberty. The Company should stand up for those rights.

Re: Stockholder Proposal

Dear Mr. DiFusco,

On October 24, 2019, we received your letter, dated October 24, 2019, submitting a stockholder proposal for the Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System ("Proponent"), for inclusion in Chevron's proxy statement and proxy for its 2020 annual meeting of stockholders. By way of rules adopted pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has prescribed certain procedural and eligibility requirements for the submission of proposals to be included in a company's proxy materials. I write to provide notice of certain defects in your submission, specifically proof of ownership of Chevron stock.

Pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(b), to be eligible to submit a proposal, the Proponent must be a Chevron stockholder, either as a registered holder or as a beneficial holder (i.e., a street name holder), and must have continuously held at least $2,000 in market value or 1% of Chevron's shares entitled to be voted on the proposal at the annual meeting for at least one year as of the date the proposal is submitted. Chevron's stock records for its registered holders do not indicate that the Proponent is a registered holder. Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(b)(2) and SEC staff guidance provide that if the Proponent is not a registered holder the Proponent must prove share position and eligibility by submitting to Chevron either:

1. a written statement from the "record" holder of the Proponent's shares (usually a broker or bank) verifying that the Proponent has continuously held the required value or number of shares for at least the one-year period preceding and including the date the proposal was submitted, which was October 24, 2019; or
2. a copy of a filed Schedule 13D, Schedule 13G, Form 3, Form 4, Form 5, or amendments to those documents or updated forms, reflecting Proponent ownership of the required value or number of shares as of or before the date on which the one-year eligibility period begins and any subsequent amendments reporting a change in ownership level, along with a written statement that the Proponent has owned the required value or number of shares continuously for at least one year as of the date the proposal was submitted (October 24, 2019).

Your letter did not include the required proof of the Proponent's ownership of Chevron stock. By this letter, I am requesting that you provide to us acceptable documentation that the Proponent has held the required value or number of shares to submit a proposal continuously for at least the one-year period preceding and including the October 24, 2019 date the proposal was submitted.

In this regard, I direct your attention to the SEC's Division of Corporation Finance Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14 (at C(1)(c)(1)-(2)), which indicates that, for purposes of Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(b)(2), written statements verifying ownership of shares "must be from the record holder of the shareholder's securities, which is usually a broker or bank." Further, please note that most large U.S. brokers and banks deposit their customers' securities with, and hold those securities through, the Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), a registered clearing agency that acts as a securities depository (DTC is also known through the account name of Cede & Co.), and the Division of Corporation Finance advises that, for purposes of Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(b)(2), only DTC participants or affiliates of DTC participants "should be viewed as 'record' holders of securities that are deposited at DTC." (Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14F at B(3) and No. 14G at B(1)-(2)). (Copies of these and other Staff Legal Bulletins containing useful information for proponents when submitting proof of ownership to companies can be found on the SEC's web site at: <http://www.sec.gov/interps/legal.shtml>.) You can confirm whether the Proponent's broker or bank is a DTC participant by asking the broker or bank or by checking DTC's participant list, which is available at <http://www.dtcc.com/~media/Files/Downloads/client-center/DTC/alpha.pdf>

Please note that if the Proponent's broker or bank is not a DTC participant, then you need to submit proof of ownership from the DTC participant through which the shares are held verifying that the Proponent has continuously held the requisite number of Chevron shares for at least the one-year period preceding and including the date the proposal was submitted (October 24, 2019). You should be able to find out the identity of the DTC participant by asking the Proponent's broker or bank. If the broker is an introducing broker, you may also be able to learn the identity and telephone number of the DTC participant through the Proponent's account statements, because the clearing broker identified on the account statements will generally be a DTC participant. If the DTC participant that holds the Proponent's shares is not able to confirm individual holdings but is able to confirm the holdings of the Proponent's broker or bank, then the Proponent will need to satisfy the proof of ownership requirements by obtaining and submitting two proof of ownership statements verifying that, for at least the one-year period preceding and including the date the proposal was submitted (October 24, 2019), the requisite number of Chevron shares were continuously held. The first statement should be from the Proponent's broker or bank confirming the Proponent's ownership. The second statement should be from the DTC participant confirming the broker or bank's ownership.

Consistent with the above, if the Proponent intends to demonstrate ownership by submitting a written statement from the "record" holder of the Proponent's shares, please provide to us a written statement from the DTC participant record holder of the Proponent's shares verifying (a) that the DTC participant is the record holder, (b) the number of shares held in the Proponent's name, and (c) that the Proponent has continuously held the required value or number of Chevron shares for at least the one-year period preceding and including the October 24, 2019 date the proposal was submitted.

Your response may be sent to my attention by U.S. Postal Service or overnight delivery at the address above or by email (cbutner@chevron.com). Pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(f), your response must be postmarked or transmitted electronically no later than 14 days from the date you receive this letter.

Corporate Secretary
Chevron Corporation

Dear Ms. Francis:

Boston Trust Walden holds shares of Chevron Stock on behalf of clients who ask us to integrate environmental, social, and governance (ESG) analysis into investment decisions and company engagement. Boston Trust Walden is an investment manager with $9.5 billion in AUM. We are pleased to be a long term shareholder of Chevron stock.

We consider the Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System as the primary filer of this resolution.

We are co-filing the enclosed shareholder proposal for inclusion in the 2020 proxy statement, in accordance with Rule 14a-8 of the General Rules and Regulations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We are the beneficial owner, as defined in Rule 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act, of the above mentioned number of Chevron shares.

We have been a continuous shareholder for more than one year holding over $2,000of Chevron shares and will continue to hold over $2,000 shares of Chevron stock through the next annual meeting.

Verification of our ownership position will be provided on request by our sub-custodian who is a DTC participant. A representative of the filers will attend the stockholders meeting to move the resolution as required by the SEC Rules.

We hereby deputize Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System to act on our behalf in withdrawing this resolution. Please contact me tsmith@bostontrustwalden.com (617-726-7155) if there are any questions.

Sincerely,

Timothy Smith

Cc: Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System

Whereas, we believe in full disclosure of Chevron’s lobbying activities and expenditures to assess whether its lobbying is consistent with Chevron’s expressed goals and in stockholders’ best interests.

Resolved, the stockholders of Chevron request the preparation of a report, updated annually, disclosing:

1. Company policy and procedures governing lobbying, both direct and indirect, and grassroots lobbying communications.
2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron’s membership in and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management’s and the Board’s decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

For purposes of this proposal, a “grassroots lobbying communication” is a communication directed to the general public that (a) refers to specific legislation or regulation, (b) reflects a view on the legislation or regulation and (c) encourages the recipient of the communication to take action with respect to the legislation or regulation. “Indirect lobbying” is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both “direct and indirect lobbying” and “grassroots lobbying communications” include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

The report shall be presented to the Public Policy Committee and posted on Chevron’s website.

Supporting Statement

Chevron spent $84,560,000 on federal lobbying from 2010 – 2018. This does not include state lobbying, where Chevron also lobbies but disclosure is uneven or absent. For example, Chevron spent $35,124,804 lobbying in California from 2010 – 2018. Chevron also lobbies abroad, spending between €1,000,000–1,249,999 on lobbying in Europe for 2018.

We commend Chevron for now disclosing its largest trade associations. Chevron belongs to the Business Roundtable (BRT), Chamber of Commerce and National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), which spent $127,448,048 on lobbying for 2018. Both the BRT and NAM are lobbying against shareholder rights to file resolutions. Chevron does not disclose its payments to trade associations nor amounts used for lobbying. And Chevron does not disclose its payments to tax-exempt organizations that write and endorse model legislation, such as the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC).

We are concerned that Chevron’s lack of disclosure presents reputational risks when its lobbying contradicts company public positions. For example, Chevron supports the Paris climate agreement, yet a 2019 InfluenceMap report found Chevron has spent millions lobbying to undermine it.¹ And Chevron’s ALEC membership has drawn scrutiny.² Investors participating in the Climate Action 100+ representing $34 trillion in assets are asking companies to align their lobbying with the goals of the Paris agreement. Peer Shell produced an “Industry Associations Climate Review” report to ensure its trade association participation aligned with its views.³

We believe reputational damage stemming from misalignment between policy positions and actual direct and indirect lobbying efforts harms long-term value creation by Chevron. Thus, we urge Chevron to expand its lobbying disclosure.

Re: Stockholder Proposal

Dear Mr. Smith,

On October 25, 2019, we received your letter, dated October 25, 2019, co-filing a stockholder proposal for the Boston Trust Walden ("Proponent"), for inclusion in Chevron's proxy statement and proxy for its 2020 annual meeting of stockholders. By way of rules adopted pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has prescribed certain procedural and eligibility requirements for the submission of proposals to be included in a company's proxy materials. I write to provide notice of certain defects in your submission, specifically proof of ownership of Chevron stock.

Pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(b), to be eligible to submit a proposal, the Proponent must be a Chevron stockholder, either as a registered holder or as a beneficial holder (i.e., a street name holder), and must have continuously held at least $2,000 in market value or 1% of Chevron's shares entitled to be voted on the proposal at the annual meeting for at least one year as of the date the proposal is submitted. Chevron's stock records for its registered holders do not indicate that the Proponent is a registered holder. Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(b)(2) and SEC staff guidance provide that if the Proponent is not a registered holder the Proponent must prove share position and eligibility by submitting to Chevron either:

1. a written statement from the "record" holder of the Proponent's shares (usually a broker or bank) verifying that the Proponent has continuously held the required value or number of shares for at least the one-year period preceding and including the date the proposal was submitted, which was October 25, 2019; or
2. a copy of a filed Schedule 13D, Schedule 13G, Form 3, Form 4, Form 5, or amendments to those documents or updated forms, reflecting Proponent ownership of the required value or number of shares as of or before the date on which the one-year eligibility period begins and any subsequent amendments reporting a change in ownership level, along with a written statement that the Proponent has owned the required value or number of shares continuously for at least one year as of the date the proposal was submitted (October 25, 2019).

Your letter did not include the required proof of the Proponent's ownership of Chevron stock. By this letter, I am requesting that you provide to us acceptable documentation that the Proponent has held the required value or number of shares to submit a proposal continuously for at least the one-year period preceding and including the October 25, 2019 date the proposal was submitted.

In this regard, I direct your attention to the SEC's Division of Corporation Finance Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14 (at C(1)(c)(1)-(2)), which indicates that, for purposes of Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(b)(2), written statements verifying ownership of shares "must be from the record holder of the shareholder's securities, which is usually a broker or bank." Further, please note that most large U.S. brokers and banks deposit their customers' securities with, and hold those securities through, the Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), a registered clearing agency that acts as a securities depository (DTC is also known through the account name of Cede & Co.), and the Division of Corporation Finance advises that, for purposes of Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(b)(2), only DTC participants or affiliates of DTC participants "should be viewed as 'record' holders of securities that are deposited at DTC." (Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14F at B(3) and No. 14G at B(1)-(2)). (Copies of these and other Staff Legal Bulletins containing useful information for proponents when submitting proof of ownership to companies can be found on the SEC's web site at: <http://www.sec.gov/interps/legal.shtml>.) You can confirm whether the Proponent's broker or bank is a DTC participant by asking the broker or bank or by checking DTC's participant list, which is available at <http://www.dtcc.com/~media/Files/Downloads/client-center/DTC/alpha.pdf>

Please note that if the Proponent's broker or bank is not a DTC participant, then you need to submit proof of ownership from the DTC participant through which the shares are held verifying that the Proponent has continuously held the requisite number of Chevron shares for at least the one-year period preceding and including the date the proposal was submitted (October 25, 2019). You should be able to find out the identity of the DTC participant by asking the Proponent's broker or bank. If the broker is an introducing broker, you may also be able to learn the identity and telephone number of the DTC participant through the Proponent's account statements, because the clearing broker identified on the account statements will generally be a DTC participant. If the DTC participant that holds the Proponent's shares is not able to confirm individual holdings but is able to confirm the holdings of the Proponent's broker or bank, then the Proponent will need to satisfy the proof of ownership requirements by obtaining and submitting two proof of ownership statements verifying that, for at least the one-year period preceding and including the date the proposal was submitted (October 25, 2019), the requisite number of Chevron shares were continuously held. The first statement should be from the Proponent's broker or bank confirming the Proponent's ownership.

The second statement should be from the DTC participant confirming the broker or bank's ownership.

Consistent with the above, if the Proponent intends to demonstrate ownership by submitting a written statement from the "record" holder of the Proponent's shares, please provide to us a written statement from the DTC participant record holder of the Proponent's shares verifying (a) that the DTC participant is the record holder, (b) the number of shares held in the Proponent's name, and (c) that the Proponent has continuously held the required value or number of Chevron shares for at least the one-year period preceding and including the October 25, 2019 date the proposal was submitted.

Your response may be sent to my attention by U.S. Postal Service or overnight delivery at the address above or by email (cbutner@chevron.com). Pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 14a-8(f), your response must be postmarked or transmitted electronically no later than 14 days from the date you receive this letter.

Copies of Exchange Act Rule 14a-8 and Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14F are enclosed for your convenience. Thank you, in advance, for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Christopher A. Butner

Sabrina, thanks for your reply. The filing letter you sent did not indicate you were co-filing and didn't designate a lead filer to act on your behalf, so we've been treating your filing as a separate proposal. If you want to designate PhilPERS as the lead filer and designate them to act on your behalf for withdrawal and other actions, please send us a letter from USW indicating that intention. Of course we can continue to include you in engagements either way. Let me know if you have any questions.

Dear Ms. Francis:

The Sisters of St. Francis Charitable Trust is committed to investment decision-making that is guided by environmental, social and governance criteria. We support and encourage implementation of best practices which address these issues, especially as practices impact the poor.

The Sisters of St. Francis Charitable Trust has been a shareholder in Chevron Corporation continuously for more than one year holding at least $2,000 in market value. It will continue to hold the required number of shares for proxy resolutions through the date of the 2020 annual meeting of shareholders. A letter verifying ownership is being sent separately by our custodian, Wells Fargo Bank, NA.

In collaboration with City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System, we are co-filing the enclosed resolution for inclusion in the 2020 proxy statement in accordance with Rule 14(a)(8) of the General Rules and Regulations of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. A representative of the filers will attend the 2020 Annual Meeting as required by SEC rules. Cc: Resolution: Lobbying

Whereas, we believe in full disclosure of Chevron's lobbying activities and expenditures to assess whether its lobbying is consistent with Chevron's expressed goals and in stockholders' best interests.

Resolved, the stockholders of Chevron request the preparation of a report, updated annually, disclosing:

1. Company policy and procedures governing lobbying, both direct and indirect, and grassroots lobbying communications.
2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron's membership in and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management's and the Board's decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

For purposes of this proposal, a "grassroots lobbying communication" is a communication directed to the general public that (a) refers to specific legislation or regulation, (b) reflects a view on the legislation or regulation and (c) encourages the recipient of the communication to take action with respect to the legislation or regulation. "Indirect lobbying" is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both "direct and indirect lobbying" and "grassroots lobbying communications" include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

The report shall be presented to the Public Policy Committee and posted on Chevron's website.

Supporting Statement

Chevron spent $84,560,000 on federal lobbying from 2010 – 2018. This does not include state lobbying, where Chevron also lobbies but disclosure is uneven or absent. For example, Chevron spent $35,124,804 lobbying in California from 2010 – 2018. Chevron also lobbies abroad, spending between €1,000,000–1,249,999 on lobbying in Europe for 2018.

We commend Chevron for now disclosing its largest trade associations. Chevron belongs to the Business Roundtable (BRT), Chamber of Commerce and National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), which spent $127,448,048 on lobbying for 2018. Both the BRT and NAM are lobbying against shareholder rights to file resolutions. Chevron does not disclose its payments to trade associations nor amounts used for lobbying. And Chevron does not disclose its payments to tax-exempt organizations that write and endorse model legislation, such as the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC).

We are concerned that Chevron's lack of disclosure presents reputational risks when its lobbying contradicts company public positions. For example, Chevron supports the Paris climate agreement, yet a 2019 InfluenceMap report found Chevron has spent millions lobbying to undermine it.¹ And Chevron's ALEC membership has drawn scrutiny.² Investors participating in the Climate Action 100+ representing $34 trillion in assets are asking companies to align their lobbying with the goals of the Paris agreement. Peer Shell produced an "Industry Associations Climate Review" report to ensure its trade association participation aligned with its views.³

Dear Ms. Francis,

For the fourth consecutive year, AP7 submits the enclosed shareholder proposal, for inclusion in the 2020 proxy statement, as a co-sponsor with the City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System. Again, we are asking for improved disclosure of Chevron's lobbying activities.

We consider the review, management and reporting on your direct and indirect lobbying activities to be a material sustainability issue and in the best interest of your shareholders.

We further expect companies to ensure that any public policy engagement conducted on their behalf or with their support is aligned with the Paris agreement and our interest in a safe climate. Corporate lobbying activities that are inconsistent with meeting the goals of the Paris Agreement present several financial risks to us as investors.

Over the past year we have seen several European companies from different sectors committing on reviewing industry association memberships and transparency. Some have already published the result of their reviews and we expect to see more reporting in 2020.

AP7 holds as of today 2,416,060 shares of Chevron stock. We are the beneficial owner, as defined in Rule 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, of at least $2,000 worth of stock for more than one year as of the filing date and will continue to hold at least the requisite number of shares for filing proxy resolutions through the annual meeting.

We consider the City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System as the primary filer of this resolution, and ourselves as a co-filer. We hereby deputize City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System to act on our behalf in withdrawing this resolution.

Sincerely,

Re: The City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System

Dear Ms. Francis:

In my capacity as the Chief Investment Officer of The City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System (the "Fund"), I write to give notice that pursuant to the 2019 proxy statement of Chevron Corporation (the "Company"), the Fund intends to present the attached proposal (the "Proposal") at the 2020 annual meeting of shareholders (the "Annual Meeting") along with co-filers. The Fund requests that the Company include the Proposal in the Company's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting.

A letter from the Fund's custodian documenting the Fund's continuous ownership of the requisite amount of the Company's stock for at least one year prior to the date of this letter is being sent under separate cover. The Fund also intends to continue its ownership of at least the minimum number of shares required by the SEC regulations through the date of the Annual Meeting.

I represent that the Fund or its agent intends to appear in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting to present the attached Proposal. I declare the Fund has no "material interest" other than that believed to be shared by stock holders of the Company generally.

Whereas, we believe in full disclosure of Chevron's lobbying activities and expenditures to assess whether its lobbying is consistent with Chevron's expressed goals and in stockholders' best interests.

Resolved, the stockholders of Chevron request the preparation of a report, updated annually, disclosing:

1. Company policy and procedures governing lobbying, both direct and indirect, and grassroots lobbying communications.
2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron's membership in and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management's and the Board's decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

For purposes of this proposal, a "grassroots lobbying communication" is a communication directed to the general public that (a) refers to specific legislation or regulation, (b) reflects a view on the legislation or regulation and (c) encourages the recipient of the communication to take action with respect to the legislation or regulation. "Indirect lobbying" is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both "direct and indirect lobbying" and "grassroots lobbying communications" include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

The report shall be presented to the Public Policy Committee and posted on Chevron's website.

Supporting Statement

Chevron spent $84,560,000 on federal lobbying from 2010–2018. This does not include state lobbying, where Chevron also lobbies but disclosure is uneven or absent. For example, Chevron spent $35,124,804 lobbying in California from 2010–2018. Chevron also lobbies abroad, spending between €1,000,000–1,249,999 on lobbying in Europe for 2018.

We commend Chevron for now disclosing its largest trade associations. Chevron belongs to the Business Roundtable (BRT), Chamber of Commerce and National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), which spent $127,448,048 on lobbying for 2018. Both the BRT and NAM are lobbying against shareholder rights to file resolutions. Chevron does not disclose its payments to trade associations nor amounts used for lobbying. And Chevron does not disclose its payments to tax-exempt organizations that write and endorse model legislation, such as the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC).

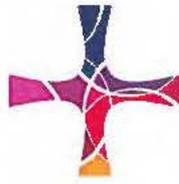

We are concerned that Chevron's lack of disclosure presents reputational risks when its lobbying contradicts company public positions. For example, Chevron supports the Paris climate agreement, yet a 2019 InfluenceMap report found Chevron has spent millions lobbying to undermine it.¹ And Chevron's ALEC membership has drawn scrutiny² Investors participating in the Climate Action 100+ representing $34 trillion in assets are asking companies to align their lobbying with the goals of the Paris agreement. Peer Shell produced an "Industry Associations Climate Review" report to ensure its trade association participation aligned with its views.³

We believe reputational damage stemming from misalignment between policy positions and actual direct and indirect lobbying efforts harms long-term value creation by Chevron. Thus, we urge Chevron to expand its lobbying disclosure.

Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange join the City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System by co-filing a shareholder proposal focused on lobbying by the Chevron Corporation, which is included in this mailing. As stated in the resolution, the Corporation “uses the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) for sustainability reporting yet fails to report “any differences between its lobbying positions and any stated policies, goals, or other public position.” This is of concern to us for inconsistencies can affect the reputation of the corporation.

Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange have been the beneficial owner of at least two thousand dollars’ worth of Chevron Corporation stock for more than one year and intend to hold it at least until after the next annual meeting, May 28, 2020. Verification of ownership is attached.

The resolution will be presented at the next annual meeting for consideration by stockholders in accordance with rule 14-a-8 of the general rules and regulations of The Securities and Exchange Act of 1934.

For this proposal, Christopher DiFusco, Chief Investment Officer of The City of Philadelphia Public Employees Retirement System, is the contact. He is authorized to negotiate and/or withdraw the resolution on our behalf. He can be reached through Kristyn Bair at Kristyn.Bair@phila.gov

2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron's membership in and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management's and the Board's decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

For purposes of this proposal, a "grassroots lobbying communication" is a communication directed to the general public that (a) refers to specific legislation or regulation, (b) reflects a view on the legislation or regulation and (c) encourages the recipient of the communication to take action with respect to the legislation or regulation. "Indirect lobbying" is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both "direct and indirect lobbying" and "grassroots lobbying communications" include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

The report shall be presented to the Public Policy Committee and posted on Chevron's website.

Supporting Statement

Chevron spent $84,560,000 on federal lobbying from 2010 – 2018. This does not include state lobbying, where Chevron also lobbies but disclosure is uneven or absent. For example, Chevron spent $35,124,804 lobbying in California from 2010 – 2018. Chevron also lobbies abroad, spending between €1,000,000–1,249,999 on lobbying in Europe for 2018.

We commend Chevron for now disclosing its largest trade associations. Chevron belongs to the Business Roundtable (BRT), Chamber of Commerce and National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), which spent $127,448,048 on lobbying for 2018. Both the BRT and NAM are lobbying against shareholder rights to file resolutions. Chevron does not disclose its payments to trade associations nor amounts used for lobbying. And Chevron does not disclose its payments to tax-exempt organizations that write and endorse model legislation, such as the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC).

We are concerned that Chevron's lack of disclosure presents reputational risks when its lobbying contradicts company public positions. For example, Chevron supports the Paris climate agreement, yet a 2019 InfluenceMap report found Chevron has spent millions lobbying to undermine it.¹ And Chevron's ALEC membership has drawn scrutiny.² Investors participating in the Climate Action 100+ representing $34 trillion in assets are asking companies to align their lobbying with the goals of the Paris agreement. Peer Shell produced an "Industry Associations Climate Review" report to ensure its trade association participation aligned with its views.³

³ <https://www.reuters.com/article/us-shell-afpm-idUSKCN1RE0VB>

We believe reputational damage stemming from misalignment between policy positions and actual direct and indirect lobbying efforts harms long-term value creation by Chevron. Thus, we urge Chevron to expand its lobbying disclosure.

Enclosure: Shareholder Proposal

Political Lobbying and Contributions

Whereas, we believe in full disclosure of our Company's direct and indirect lobbying activities and expenditures to assess whether Chevron's lobbying is consistent with the Company's expressed goals and in the best interest of shareowners.

Resolved, the shareowners of Chevron request the preparation of a report, updated annually, disclosing:

1. Company policy and procedures governing lobbying, both direct and indirect, and grassroots lobbying communications.
2. Payments by Chevron used for (a) direct or indirect lobbying or (b) grassroots lobbying communications, in each case including the amount of the payment and the recipient.
3. Chevron's membership and payments to any tax-exempt organization that writes and/or endorses model legislation.
4. Description of management's and the Board's decision-making process and oversight for making payments described in sections 2 and 3 above.

For purposes of this proposal, a "grassroots lobbying communication" is a communication directed to the general public that (a) refers to specific legislation or regulation, (b) reflects a view on the legislation or regulation and (c) encourages the recipient of the communication to take action with respect to the legislation or regulation. "Indirect lobbying" is lobbying engaged in by a trade association or other organization of which Chevron is a member.

Both "direct and indirect lobbying" and "grassroots lobbying communications" include efforts at the local, state and federal levels.

The report shall be presented to all relevant oversight committees and posted on Chevron's website.

Supporting Statement

The Company lobbies on a broad array of issues and works with groups that do the same. That's a good thing as the Company is rightfully exercising free speech. As such, the Company has become a target for anti-free speech activists. These activists are working to defund pro-business organizations by attacking their corporate members.

The Company should take an active role in combating this narrative and attacks on its freedom of association rights.

The Company should be proud of its memberships in trade associations and non-profit groups that promote pro-business, pro-growth initiatives.

For example, the Company's relationships with groups such as the American Legislative Exchange Council, the American Petroleum Institute, the National Association of Manufacturers, and the Business Roundtable should be applauded and endorsed by shareholders. These groups advance initiatives that are designed to unburden corporations such as Chevron, allowing them the freedom to create jobs and economic prosperity in the United States.

Rather than letting outside agitators set the message that these relationships are somehow nefarious, the Company should explain the benefits of its involvement with groups that advocate for smaller government, lower taxes, and free-market reforms. The Company should show how these relationships benefit shareholders, increase jobs and wages, help local communities, and generally advance the Company's interests.

The proponent supports the Company's free speech rights and freedom to associate with groups that advance economic liberty. The Company should stand up for those rights.
