NOTICE OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPROVE REISSUE OF ADDITIONAL GENERAL DISTRIBUTION CHECKS AND TO AMEND THE PROPOSED SUPPLEMENTAL DISTRIBUTION

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that upon the Declaration of Nashira Washington, executed June 12, 2012, and the Exhibit thereto, the Declaration of Nancy A. Brown, executed June 12, 2012, the Proposed Order submitted herewith, and all prior proceedings had herein, the Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission will move this Court, at a date and time to be determined by the Court, before the Honorable Richard J. Sullivan, at the United States Courthouse for the Southern District of New York, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York 10007, for an order approving reissue of additional General Distribution checks, directing amendment of the proposed Supplemental Distribution, and granting such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Dated: New York, New York
June 13, 2012

Respectfully submitted,

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Lawrence Iason, Esq. (Counsel for Defendants ATG and Alexander Stelmak)
Ariana Torchin, Esq. (Counsel for Defendants ATG and Alexander Stelmak)
Michael Fischman, Esq. (Counsel for Defendant Abelis Raskas)

2012, and that any party wishing to object to the proposed Supplemental Distribution do so no later than June 18, 2012. (Docket No. 93.) On May 16, 2012, the Court clarified the May 15 Order by allowing the posting of a redacted version of the proposed Supplemental Distribution. (Docket No. 94.) In compliance with these Orders, on May 17, 2012, the Commission posted on its website the redacted version of the proposed Supplemental Distribution and the date for any objections under the May 15, 2012 Order. I understand that Gilardi also posted the proposed Supplemental Distribution and the May 15 Order on its case-specific website, www.atgfairfund.com.

4. Subsequent to the May 14, 2012 filing of the Motion to Approve Supplemental Distribution, Gilardi received documentation or information supporting investor requests to reissue certain additional General Distribution checks. The circumstances of each of those investor requests is detailed in the Declaration of Nashira Washington, executed June 12, 2012, submitted herewith. Because each investor has a legitimate claim to participation in the recovery provided by the Plan, and because we believe that the Plan's objectives will be served by reissuing their checks to them, we seek an Order permitting the reissuance of the checks.

5. Any reissuance of checks changes the amounts available for the Supplemental Distribution. Accordingly, Gilardi has recalculated the amounts due each investor under an amended Supplemental Distribution schedule, which the Commission will post (in redacted form) on its website if the Court approves the reissuance of the additional General Distribution checks.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

3. On May 15, 2012, this Court entered an Order directing that the Commission post the proposed Supplemental Distribution on the Commission's website no later than May 18,

2012, and that any party wishing to object to the proposed Supplemental Distribution do so no later than June 18, 2012. (Docket No. 93.) On May 16, 2012, the Court clarified the May 15 Order by allowing the posting of a redacted version of the proposed Supplemental Distribution. (Docket No. 94.) In compliance with these orders, Gilardi subsequently posted the proposed Supplemental Distribution and the May 15 Order on its case-specific website, www.atgfairfund.com.

4. Subsequent to the May 14, 2012 filing of the Motion to Approve Supplemental Distribution, Gilardi received documentation or information supporting investor requests to reissue certain additional General Distribution checks. Specifically:

- a. As to Claim 100276-7 (total Recognized Loss of $13,264.41), Gilardi was contacted by the original investor's sister on or about May 16, 2012. She informed Gilardi that the original investor passed away in September 2009, and that the distribution should be made to the investor's son. Last week, Gilardi received documents supporting the son's status as the appropriate beneficiary.
- b. As to Claim 100194-9 (total Recognized Loss of $237,192.65), the original General Distribution check was returned as undeliverable from the original investor's address on file. Gilardi conducted an address search and re-mailed the check to a new address thus discovered. That check was also returned as undeliverable. On or about May 15, 2012, Gilardi received correspondence, dated May 14, 2012, from the original investor's son, informing Gilardi of the investor's new address at an assisted living center and enclosing a copy of a Power of Attorney as evidence of the son's authority to manage the investor's finances.

- c. As to Claim 100113-2 (total Recognized Loss of $21,040.67), Gilardi left voicemail messages at the investor's home on or about April 10 and April 12, 2012, informing him that his check was still uncashed and recommending that he request a reissue before funds were distributed in a Supplemental Distribution. The investor left a voicemail message with Gilardi on or about May 8, 2012, indicating that the landline at his home is very rarely used, that he had just retrieved Gilardi's messages, and providing an updated address for the check reissue. Unfortunately, the message was retrieved only after the Supplemental Distribution motion was filed on May 14, 2012.
- d. As to Claim 100255-4 (total Recognized Loss of $7,346.72), an attorney representing the original investor's beneficiary contacted Gilardi by mail on or about January 17, 2012, providing the original investor's and his wife's death certificates and a copy of the original investor's will. In February 2012, Gilardi contacted the attorney to request additional documentation. No reply was received. On May 15, 2012, the attorney followed up on his initial request and requested reconsideration of Gilardi's request for additional records. After additional internal review, Gilardi determined that the previously provided documentation was sufficient and that the check could be reissued to the original investor's beneficiary.

5. Gilardi requests the authority to reissue the General Distribution checks to claimants described in paragraph 4 above because doing so would be consistent with the intent of the Plan, stated in paragraph F.1, to “achieve the prompt, fair and efficient distribution of the Fair Fund to those victims who suffered a loss ... as a result of their investment with ATG,” and because the Plan, in paragraph M.1, authorizes Gilardi to “make adjustments to the Distribution Plan, consistent with the purposes and intent of the Distribution Plan, as may be agreed upon between the Fund Administrator and the Commission.”

6. If the Court approves the requested reissues, Gilardi further requests the authority to amend its Supplemental Distribution proposal to reflect the reduced total Remaining Distributable Amount, as well as the participation of the four additional claimants in the Supplemental Distribution. The revised proposed Supplemental Distribution Schedule is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

7. If the Court grants the above requests, Gilardi further proposes that the deadline to object to the proposed Supplemental Distribution (currently, June 18, 2012) be two weeks from the date of the Order, and that the Commission and Gilardi be directed to post the revised Supplemental Distribution proposal and the new objection deadline on their websites.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
