Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act<sup>3</sup> and Rule 19b-4(f)(2) thereunder,<sup>4</sup> NASDAQ has designated this proposal as establishing or changing a due, fee, or other charge, which renders the proposed rule change effective upon filing. II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, NASDAQ included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. NASDAQ has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

NASDAQ is making modifications to its pricing schedule for execution and routing of orders in securities priced at $1 or more through the NASDAQ Market Center.<sup>5</sup> First, for securities listed on exchanges other than NASDAQ or the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") ("Tape B Securities"), NASDAQ is modifying its liquidity provider rebate so that the levels of the rebate revert to levels in effect prior to April 1, 2010.<sup>6</sup> As a result of the change, the rebate paid with respect to execution of displayed quotes/orders posted by members providing an average of between 20,000,001 and 35 million shares of liquidity per day during the month will decrease from $0.0026 per share executed to $0.0025 per share executed; and the rebate paid with respect to execution of displayed quote/orders posted by members providing an average of 20 million or fewer shares of liquidity per day during the month will decrease from $0.0026 per share executed to $0.0020 per share executed. The change will make the rebate for Tape B

Securities consistent with the rebate paid with respect to execution of NASDAQ- and NYSE-listed securities. The rebate with respect to Tape B Securities for non-displayed quotes/orders and for members providing an average of more than 35 million shares of liquidity during the month will remain unchanged.

Second, NASDAQ is increasing the fee for orders using the TFTY routing strategy that execute at the NYSE from $0.0017 per share executed to $0.0020 per share executed. The change reflects the fact that NYSE recently increased the fees it charges for execution of orders routed to it.<sup>7</sup>

2. Statutory Basis

NASDAQ believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,<sup>8</sup> in general, and with Section 6(b)(4) of the Act,<sup>9</sup> in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which NASDAQ operates or controls. The impact of the price changes upon the net fees paid by a particular market participant will depend upon a number of variables, including the relative availability of liquidity on NASDAQ and other venues, the routing strategies that a member uses, the prices of the market participant's quotes and orders relative to the national best bid and offer (i.e., its propensity to add or remove liquidity), the types of securities that it trades, and the member's trading volumes.

NASDAQ notes that it operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can readily direct order flow to competing venues if they deem fee levels at a particular venue to be excessive. Accordingly, if particular market participants object to the proposed fee changes, they can avoid paying the fees by directing orders to other venues.

NASDAQ believes that its fees continue to be reasonable and equitably allocated to members on the basis of whether they opt to direct orders to NASDAQ.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

NASDAQ does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended. Because the market for order execution and routing is extremely competitive, members may readily direct orders to NASDAQ's competitors if they object to the proposed rule change.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act<sup>10</sup> and subparagraph (f)(2) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.<sup>11</sup> At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
