Washington, D.C.

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 71517 / February 11, 2014

SEC SUSPENDS TRADING IN SECURITIES OF CENTOR ENERGY, INC.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) announced the temporary suspension of trading in the securities of Centor Energy, Inc. (“Centor”), of Winter Park, Florida, commencing at 9:30 a.m. EDT on February 11, 2014, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on February 25, 2014.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of Centor because of questions regarding the accuracy and adequacy of assertions by Centor, and by others, to investors in press releases and promotional material concerning, among other things, the company’s assets, operations, and financial prospects. This order was entered pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”).

The Commission cautions brokers, dealers, shareholders and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by this company.

Brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11, at the termination of the trading suspensions, no quotation may be entered relating to the securities of the subject company unless and until the broker or dealer has strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by the rule, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to the securities of this company that has been subject to trading suspensions until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. Any broker or dealer with questions regarding the rule should contact the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, DC at (202) 551-5720. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker, dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact Lara S. Mehraban, Assistant Regional Director, New York Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission at 212-336-0591, or Jorge G. Tenreiro, Staff Attorney, New York Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission at 212-336-9145.
