

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 85150 / February 15, 2019

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-18811

In the Matter of

CEELOX, INC.,
TALON REAL ESTATE HOLDING CORP.,
VIRTUAL SOURCING, INC., AND WINDSTREAM TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

ORDER SETTING BRIEFING SCHEDULE

On September 20, 2018, the Commission instituted proceedings against the above-named respondents pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.¹ Talon Real Estate Holding Corp. (“Talon”), one of the respondents, filed an answer on September 28, 2018, in which it admitted “that it is delinquent on its periodic filings with the Commission” but raised various defenses to the proceeding. On February 8, 2019, the Division of Enforcement and Talon filed a “Joint Prehearing Conference Statement” which stated that “[t]he parties were unable to agree concerning whether this matter should proceed by summary disposition or by hearing” but they had agreed on a proposed briefing schedule.

The parties’ proposed briefing schedule provides that the Division will file its brief, Talon will file an opposition, and the Division will file a reply. It appears appropriate, however, for both parties to be given the opportunity to file briefs in support of motions for summary disposition under Rule of Practice 250(b).² Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the parties shall file any motions for summary disposition by March 1, 2019; that briefs in opposition are due by March 22, 2019, and that any replies are due by March 29, 2019.

² Commission Rule of Practice 250(b) provides that motions for summary disposition may be made once Rule 230’s provisions regarding document production have been satisfied. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.250(b); 17 C.F.R. § 201.230. We assume that has occurred here. If that is not the case, the parties should notify the Commission and the briefing schedule will be modified.

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
