SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Release No. 90940 / January 19, 2021

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, of trading in the securities of View Systems, Inc. (VSYM) (CIK No. 1075857), of Greenbelt, Maryland, commencing at 9:30 a.m. EST on January 19, 2021, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on February 1, 2021.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of View Systems, Inc. because of questions that have been raised about the accuracy and adequacy of publicly disseminated information on the company's website, on Twitter, and in press releases, including a press release dated November 20, 2020, concerning, among other things, its introduction of a security scan product that has the ability to provide real-time temperature results to detect COVID-19, and orders that View Systems has received for its security scan product.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not it has complied with the rule, it should not enter any quotation but immediately contact the staff in the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance, at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to View Systems, Inc.'s securities until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information that may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact Lisa Deitch, Assistant Director, at 202-551-4999. The Commission appreciates the assistance of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.
