ORDER FOLLOWING PREHEARING
CONFERENCE

The Securities and Exchange Commission commenced this proceeding on February 13, 2015, with an Order Instituting Administrative and Cease-and-Desist Proceedings (OIP). A telephonic prehearing schedule was held today, attended by the Division and Respondents, appearing pro se.

At the prehearing conference, I deemed service of the OIP to have occurred on March 2, 2015. Respondents also waived their right to a hearing between thirty and sixty days after service of the OIP under Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. See 15 U.S.C § 78u-3(b). The parties agreed to attempt to resolve at least some issues through motions for summary disposition. Accordingly, I set the following schedule:

May 1, 2015: Parties shall file motions for summary disposition, if any.

May 15, 2015: Parties shall file oppositions to motions for summary disposition, if any.

May 27, 2015¹: Parties shall file replies to motions for summary disposition, if any.

A hearing schedule, if needed, will be set at a later date. SO ORDERED.

Cameron Elliot
Administrative Law Judge

¹ During the prehearing conference I set the due date as May 25, 2015, which is Memorial Day.
