SCHEDULING ORDER

On September 15, 2015, Respondents moved to extend the remaining deadlines in the summary disposition briefing schedule. Respondents' motion represents that their counsel is currently in the process of transitioning between law firms and that the Division of Enforcement does not oppose Respondents' motion. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. § 201.161, the briefing schedule is revised as such:

- September 28, 2015: Respondents' opposition to the Division's motion for summary disposition is due. The opposition, exclusive of declarations and exhibits, must not exceed thirty-five pages.
- October 9, 2015: The Division's reply in further support of its motion for summary disposition is due. The reply must not exceed fifteen pages.
- October 19, 2015: Respondents' sur-reply in response to the Division's reply is due. The sur-reply must not exceed fifteen pages.
- Joint request for oral argument by videoconference, if any, is due.
