Supplementary Material to Section 6

.01 No change

.02 The interval between strike prices of series of options on individual stocks may be:

a. $1.00 or greater ("$1 Strike Prices") provided the strike price is $50 or less, but not less than $1. Except as provided in Supplementary Material .02(c) below, the listing of $1 strike prices shall be limited to option classes overlying no more than one hundred and fifty (150) [fifty-five (55)] individual stocks (the "$1 Strike Price Program") as specifically designated by BOX. BOX may list $1 Strike Prices on any other option classes if those classes are specifically designated by other national securities exchanges that employ a similar $1 Strike Price Program under their respective rules.

b. through e. No change
