Re: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552
Request No. 18-00294-FOIA

Dear Ms. Journey:

This letter is in response to your request, dated and received in this office on November 03, 2017, for certain records concerning Wirecard for the time period January 1, 2012 to present. Specifically, you requested the following:

- All correspondence between the Securities and Exchange Commission and Wirecard;
- All complaints made to the Securities and Exchange Commission about Wirecard; and
- All internal communications from January 1, 2012 to present within the Securities Exchange Commission related to enforcement actions or complaints concerning Wirecard.

Based on the information you provided in your letter, we conducted a thorough search of the SEC's various systems of records, but did not locate or identify any information responsive to your request.

If you still have reason to believe that the SEC maintains the type of information you seek, please provide us with additional information, which could prompt another search. Otherwise, we conclude that no responsive information exists and we consider this request to be closed.

You have the right to appeal the adequacy of our search or finding of no responsive information to the SEC's General Counsel under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6), 17 CFR § 200.80(d)(5)(iv). The appeal must be received within ninety (90) calendar days of the date of this adverse decision. Your appeal must be in writing, clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal," and should identify the requested records. The appeal may include facts and authorities you consider appropriate.
