Dear Ms. Murphy:

This letter is in response to your request, dated and received in this office on December 13, 2017, for Exhibits and Schedules referenced in the Stock Purchase and Sale Agreement of James A. Cummings, Inc., dated December 16, 2002, filed by Perini Corporation.

By email dated December 15, 2017, you advised us of your belief that the Exhibits and Schedules are attachments to Form 8-K, filed on June 8, 2016, by Tutor Perini Corp.

Based on the information you provided in your letter and email, we conducted a thorough search of the SEC's various systems of records, but did not locate or identify any information responsive to your request.

If you still have reason to believe that the SEC maintains the type of information you seek, please provide us with additional information, which could prompt another search. Otherwise, we conclude that no responsive information exists and we consider this request to be closed.

You have the right to appeal the adequacy of our search or finding of no responsive information to the SEC's General Counsel under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6), 17 CFR § 200.80(d)(5)(iv). The appeal must be received within ninety (90) calendar days of the date of this adverse decision. Your appeal must be in writing, clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal," and should identify the requested records. The appeal may include facts and authorities you consider appropriate.
