Dear Ms. Bell:

This letter is in response to your request, dated and received in this office on June 11, 2018, for certain records of any investigation(s) that directly pertain to the conduct, disclosures, and/or transactions of Teladoc Inc. since January 1, 2015. Specifically, you listed the following six types of records for which you were interested:

- Correspondence sent to and/or received by the registrant;
- Correspondence sent to and/or received by third parties on behalf of the registrant;
- Wells Notices;
- Subpoenas;
- Orders of Formal Investigation as well as any supplemental orders; and
- Opening and Closing Reports, including "Case Closing Recommendation," "Matter Under Inquiry Summary," "Investigation Summary," and/or similar documents and/or reports.

Based on the information you provided in your letter, we conducted a thorough search of the SEC's various systems of records, but did not locate or identify any records responsive to your request.

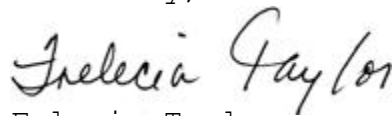

If you still have reason to believe that the SEC maintains the type of records you seek, please provide us with additional information, which could prompt another search. Otherwise, we conclude that no responsive records exist and we consider this request to be closed.

You have the right to appeal the adequacy of our search or finding of no responsive records to the SEC's General Counsel under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6), 17 CFR § 200.80(d)(5)(iv). The appeal must be received within ninety (90) calendar days of the date of this adverse decision. Your appeal must be in writing, clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal," and should identify the requested records. The appeal may include facts and authorities you consider appropriate.

You may file your appeal by completing the online Appeal form located at https://www.sec.gov/forms/request_appeal, or mail your appeal to the Office of FOIA Services of the Securities and Exchange Commission located at Station Place, 100 F Street NE, Mail Stop 2465, Washington, D.C. 20549, or deliver it to Room 1120 at that address. Also, send a copy to the SEC Office of the General Counsel, Mail Stop 9612, or deliver it to Room 1120 at the Station Place address.

There are no assessable fees for the processing of this request. As such, your fee waiver request is moot. If you have any questions, please contact me at taylorf@sec.gov or (202) 551-8349.
