Re: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552
Request No. 18-02346-FOIA

Dear Ms. Jouret:

This letter is in response to your request, dated June 30, 2018 and received in this office on July 2, 2018, for a registration statement (2-14819) dated March 9, 1959, in which Mark E. Hoffman consolidated seven businesses into a single entity. You want to ascertain the names of those seven businesses, and determine if Fadex is among them.

Based on the information you provided in your letter, we conducted an extensive search of our holdings and finding aids but did not located the material responsive to this request.

If you still have reason to believe that the SEC maintains the type of information you seek, please provide us with additional information, which could prompt another search. Otherwise, we conclude that no responsive information exists and we consider this request to be closed.

You have the right to appeal the adequacy of our search or finding of no responsive information to the SEC's General Counsel under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6), 17 C.F.R. § 200.80(d)(5)(iv). The appeal must be received within ninety (90) calendar days of the date of this adverse decision. Your appeal must be in writing, clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal," and should identify the requested records. The appeal may include facts and authorities you consider appropriate.

You may file your appeal by completing the online Appeal form located at https://www.sec.gov/forms/request_appeal, or mail your appeal to the Office of FOIA Services of the Securities and Exchange Commission located at Station Place, 100 F Street NE,

Ms. Jacqueline Jouret
