

Black History MONTH

HBCU College CAREER PANEL

WEDNESDAY

FEBRUARY

16, 2022

10 a.m. ET

Join the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the Office of Minority and Women Inclusion, and South Bronx Community Charter High School for a virtual discussion in celebration of Black History Month.

EVENT IS FREE

Register through this link

REGISTER HERE

Please submit questions for speakers in advance to:
SECNYOutreach@sec.gov

The panel features accomplished SEC employees from New York and Washington DC who are proud alumni of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). They will share their college experience, including the importance of internships and mentors, and discuss both the challenges and successes they encountered on their career path.

PANELISTS

RICHARD BEST

Director
New York Regional Office

SHARON BRYANT

Senior Specialized Examiner
New York Regional Office

BRANDON HILL

Attorney Advisor
Division of Trading and Markets
Washington DC

