

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission

Office of the Advocate for Small Business Capital Formation

The SEC's Office of the Advocate for Small Business Capital Formation champions pragmatic solutions so that small businesses—from startups to smaller public companies—and their investors can build great companies together using capital markets. The Office proactively identifies and addresses unique challenges faced by minority-owned, women-owned, rural, and natural disaster area small businesses.

EXPLORE OUR CAPITAL RAISING RESOURCES

We offer educational resources to make pathways to raising capital more accessible to small businesses and their investors. We welcome your feedback and ideas for other helpful tools.

Find these tools and more at: www.sec.gov/capitalraising

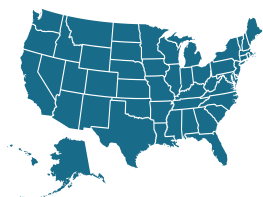

Navigating Your Options

Explore what regulatory pathways you could use to raise capital from investors.

Building Blocks

Explore the fundamentals of capital raising.

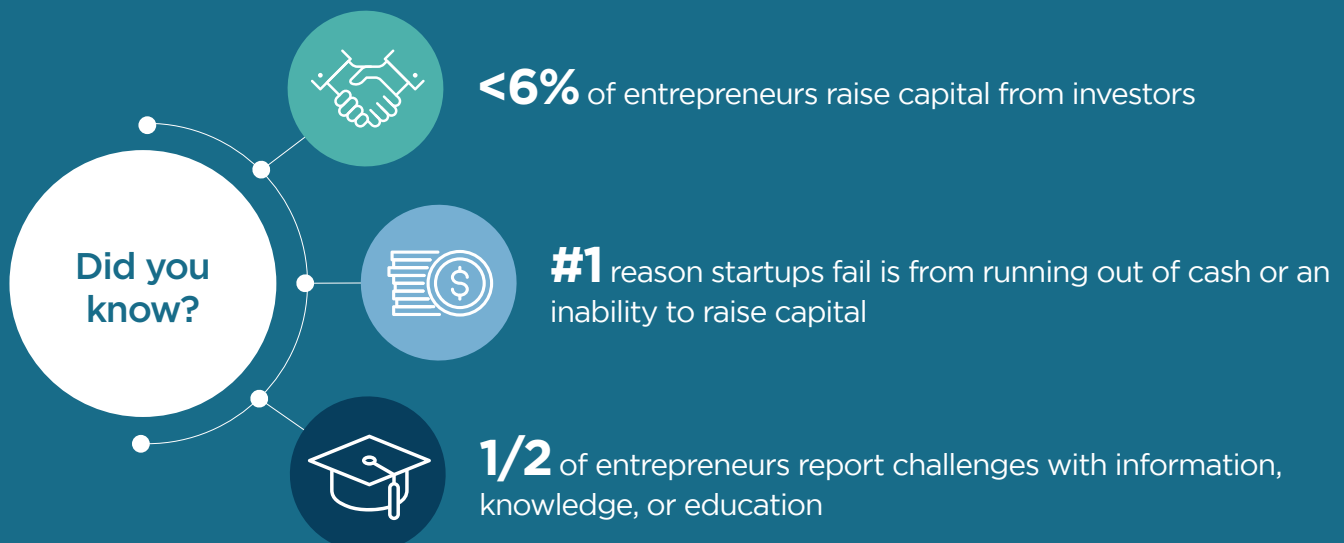

Capital Trends

Survey where capital is being raised across the country with interactive maps.

Glossary of Terms

Cut through the jargon and learn the language of capital raising.

ENGAGE WITH US

smallbusiness@sec.gov

202.551.5407

www.sec.gov/oasb

@SECGOV
#SECSmallBiz

<https://www.linkedin.com/company/secgov>

Check out our Annual Report to Congress for a comprehensive resource on the dynamics of capital raising in communities across the country.