IV.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Bryant is permanently barred from participating in an offering of penny stock, including engaging in activities with a broker, dealer, or issuer for purposes of issuing, trading, or inducing or attempting to induce the purchase or sale of any penny stock. VI.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Bryant is liable for disgorgement of $1,302,040, representing profits gained as a result of the conduct alleged in the Complaint, together with prejudgment interest thereon in the amount of $819,831.76, for a total of $2,121,871.76. Based on Bryant's sworn representations in his Statement of Financial Condition dated August 8, 2007, and other documents submitted to the Commission, however, the Court is not ordering Bryant to pay a civil penalty and the payment of all of the disgorgement and prejudgment interest thereon is waived. The determination not to impose a civil penalty and to waive payment of all of the disgorgement and prejudgment interest is contingent upon the accuracy and completeness of Bryant's Statement of Financial Condition. If at any time following the entry of this Amended Final Judgment the Commission obtains information indicating that Bryant's representations to the Commission concerning his assets, income, liabilities, or net worth were fraudulent, misleading, inaccurate, or incomplete in any material respect as of the time such representations were made, the Commission may, at its sole discretion and without prior notice to Bryant, petition the Court for an order requiring Bryant to pay the unpaid portion of the disgorgement, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest thereon, and the maximum civil penalty allowable under the law. In connection with any such petition, the only issue shall be whether the financial information provided by Bryant was fraudulent, misleading, inaccurate, or incomplete in any material respect as of the time such representations were made. In its petition, the Commission may move this Court to consider all available remedies, including, but not limited to, ordering Bryant to pay funds or assets, directing the forfeiture of any assets, or sanctions for contempt of this Amended Final Judgment. The Commission may also request additional discovery. Bryant may not, by way of defense to such petition: (1) challenge the validity of the Consent or this Amended Final Judgment; (2) contest the allegations in the Complaint filed by the Commission; (3) assert that payment of disgorgement, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest or a civil penalty should not be ordered; (4) contest the amount of disgorgement and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest; (5) contest the imposition of the maximum civil penalty allowable under the law; or (6) assert any defense to liability.

VII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d), this Amended Final Judgment shall be binding on Bryant, his agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with him who receive actual notice of this Amended Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise.

VIII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes, including, but not limited to, implementing and enforcing the terms and conditions of this Amended Final Judgment.

IX.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Consent is incorporated herein with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein, and that Bryant shall comply with all of the undertakings and agreements set forth therein.

X.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that there is no just reason for delay, pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Clerk of the Court is hereby ordered to enter this Amended Final Judgment forthwith and without further notice.

DEFENDANT LARRY BRYANT

1. Defendant Larry Bryant ("Bryant"), having accepted service of the summons issued to him and the complaint in this action, having read and understood the terms of the annexed Amended Final Consent Judgment As To Defendant Larry Bryant ("Amended Final Judgment"), appears and admits the jurisdiction of this Court over him and over the subject matter of this action, waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Complaint of Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), except as to jurisdiction, which are admitted, hereby consents to the entry, without further notice, of the Amended Final Judgment in the form annexed hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

2. Bryant agrees that this Consent of Defendant Larry Bryant ("Consent") shall be incorporated by reference in and made part of the annexed Amended Final Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

3. Bryant waives the right, if any, to appeal from the Amended Final Judgment.

4. Bryant enters into this Consent voluntarily and represents that no threats, offers, promises, or inducements of any kind have been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission to induce Bryant to enter into this Consent.

5. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(f), this Consent resolves only the claims asserted against Bryant in this civil proceeding. Bryant acknowledges that no promise or representation has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission with regard to any criminal liability that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such criminal liability. Bryant waives any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. Bryant further acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding. In addition, in any disciplinary proceeding before the Commission based on the entry of the injunction in this action, Bryant understands that he shall not be permitted to contest the factual allegations of the complaint in this action.

6. Bryant understands and agrees to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings." 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(e). In compliance with this policy, Bryant agrees: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Complaint or creating the impression that the Complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, Bryant hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the Complaint. If Bryant breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition
