

SEC Information and Networking Event for Individuals with Disabilities

Individuals with disabilities interested in federal employment in the securities regulation and enforcement arena are invited to a U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Information and Networking Event on Monday, August 8th, at 1:00 p.m. At the event, guests will have the opportunity to learn more about the SEC's mission, hear about the agency's benefits and reasonable accommodations, and network with SEC hiring managers. Guests may be considered for current and/or future employment opportunities.

Accountants, attorneys, economists, examiners, IT specialists and securities industry professionals are strongly encouraged to attend.

To attend:

1. You must be eligible for the Schedule A Hiring Authority. You are eligible for Schedule A if you are an individual with a severe physical disability, a psychiatric disability or an intellectual disability.
2. You must pre-register by providing your full name and resume by Wednesday, July 27, 2016 to DisabilityEmploymentProgram@sec.gov. Due to limited space the capacity limit is 75 guests.

For additional information, please contact DisabilityEmploymentProgram@sec.gov.

To request disability accommodation for participation in this event, please email DisabilityEmploymentProgram@sec.gov by Wednesday, July 27, 2016.
