SK-13: $105,841- $200,831

 Atlanta being the lowest and San Francisco being the highest in each range*

OCIE's Investment Adviser/Investment Company Examination Program

The Investment Adviser/Investment Company Examination Program within OCIE is responsible for examining investment advisers, investment companies, and private funds. Specific topics of examinations can include: safety of assets, accuracy of disclosure, conflicts of interests, marketing/performance, quantitative analytics and other asset management priorities as identified by leadership. The Program also works with the policy divisions on investment adviser, private fund, and mutual fund rules.

Office of Compliance Inspections and Examinations

OCIE protects investors through administering the SEC's nationwide examination and inspection program. Examiners in Washington, DC and in the Commission's 11 regional offices conduct examinations of the nation's registered entities, including broker-dealers, transfer agents, investment advisers, investment companies, private funds, the national securities exchanges, clearing agencies, the nationally recognized statistical rating organizations, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board, and the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. OCIE's mission is to protect investors, ensure market integrity and support responsible capital formation through risk-focused strategies that: (1) improve compliance; (2) prevent fraud; (3) monitor risk; and (4) inform policy. The examination program plays a critical role in encouraging compliance within the securities industry, which in turn also helps to protect investors and the securities markets generally.
