CONSENT OF
DEFENDANT JONATHAN ARONICA

1. Defendant Jonathan Aronica (“Aronica”), having accepted service of the summons issued to him and the complaint in this action, having read and understood the terms of the annexed Final Consent Judgment As To Defendant Jonathan Aronica (“Final Judgment”), appears and admits the jurisdiction of this Court over him and over the subject matter of this action, waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Complaint of Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), except as to jurisdiction, which are admitted, hereby consents to the entry, without further notice, of the Final Judgment in the form annexed hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

2. Aronica agrees that this Consent of Defendant Jonathan Aronica (“Consent”) shall be incorporated by reference in and made part of the annexed Final Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

3. Aronica waives the right, if any, to appeal from the Final Judgment.

4. Aronica enters into this Consent voluntarily and represents that no threats, offers, promises, or inducements of any kind have been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission to induce Aronica to enter into this Consent.

5. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(f), this Consent resolves only the claims asserted against Aronica in this civil proceeding. Aronica acknowledges that no promise or representation has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission with regard to any criminal liability that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such criminal liability. Aronica waives any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. Aronica further acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding. In addition, in any disciplinary proceeding before the Commission based on the entry of the injunction in this action, Aronica understands that he shall not be permitted to contest the factual allegations of the complaint in this action.

6. Aronica understands and agrees to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings." 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(e). In compliance with this policy, Aronica agrees: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Complaint or creating the impression that the Complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, Aronica hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the Complaint. If Aronica breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket.

Nothing in this paragraph affects Aronica's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

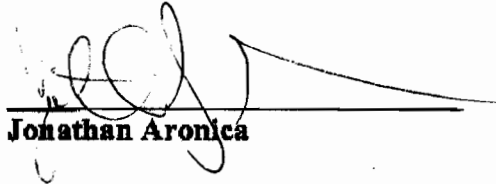

7. Aronica waives any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to pursue reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by Aronica to defend against this action. For these purposes, Aronica agrees that he is not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

8. Aronica will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waives any objection based thereon.

9. Aronica waives service of the Final Judgment and agrees that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to Aronica of its terms and conditions. Aronica further agrees to provide counsel for the Commission, within thirty days after the Final Judgment is filed with the Clerk of the Court, with an affidavit or declaration stating that Aronica has received and read a copy of the Final Judgment.

10. Aronica agrees that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Final Judgment.

11. Aronica agrees that the Commission may present the annexed Final Judgment to the Court for signature and entry without further notice.

DEFENDANT JONATHAN ARONICA

1. Defendant Jonathan Aronica (“Aronica”), having accepted service of the summons issued to him and the complaint in this action, having read and understood the terms of the annexed Final Consent Judgment As To Defendant Jonathan Aronica (“Final Judgment”), appears and admits the jurisdiction of this Court over him and over the subject matter of this action, waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Complaint of Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), except as to jurisdiction, which are admitted, hereby consents to the entry, without further notice, of the Final Judgment in the form annexed hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

2. Aronica agrees that this Consent of Defendant Jonathan Aronica (“Consent”) shall be incorporated by reference in and made part of the annexed Final Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

3. Aronica waives the right, if any, to appeal from the Final Judgment.

4. Aronica enters into this Consent voluntarily and represents that no threats, offers, promises, or inducements of any kind have been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission to induce Aronica to enter into this Consent.

5. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(f), this Consent resolves only the claims asserted against Aronica in this civil proceeding. Aronica acknowledges that no promise or representation has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission with regard to any criminal liability that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such criminal liability. Aronica waives any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. Aronica further acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding. In addition, in any disciplinary proceeding before the Commission based on the entry of the injunction in this action, Aronica understands that he shall not be permitted to contest the factual allegations of the complaint in this action.

6. Aronica understands and agrees to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings." 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(e). In compliance with this policy, Aronica agrees: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Complaint or creating the impression that the Complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, Aronica hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the Complaint. If Aronica breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket.

Nothing in this paragraph affects Aronica's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

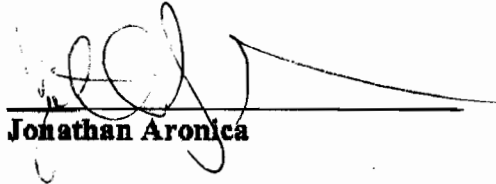

7. Aronica waives any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to pursue reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by Aronica to defend against this action. For these purposes, Aronica agrees that he is not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

8. Aronica will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waives any objection based thereon.

9. Aronica waives service of the Final Judgment and agrees that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to Aronica of its terms and conditions. Aronica further agrees to provide counsel for the Commission, within thirty days after the Final Judgment is filed with the Clerk of the Court, with an affidavit or declaration stating that Aronica has received and read a copy of the Final Judgment.

10. Aronica agrees that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Final Judgment.

11. Aronica agrees that the Commission may present the annexed Final Judgment to the Court for signature and entry without further notice.
