FINAL JUDGMENT AS TO DEFENDANT JOHN HUNTING WHITTIER

The Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") having filed a Complaint in this action, and Defendant John Hunting Whittier ("Whittier") in his attached and herein incorporated Consent of Defendant John Hunting Whittier (the "Consent"), having entered a general appearance; consented to the Court's jurisdiction over Whittier and the subject matter of this action; consented to entry of this Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations of the Complaint (except as to jurisdiction); waived findings of fact and conclusions of law; and waived any right to appeal from this Final Judgment:

I.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Whittier and Whittier's agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise are permanently restrained and enjoined from violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") [15 U.S.C. § 77q(a)] in the offer or sale of any security by the use of any means or instruments of transportation or communication in interstate commerce or by use of the mails, directly or indirectly:

- (a) to employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;
- (b) to obtain money or property by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission of a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or
- (c) to engage in any transaction, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser.

II.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Whittier and Whittier's agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise are permanently restrained and enjoined from violating, directly or indirectly, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") [15 U.S.C. § 78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder [17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5], by using any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, or of the mails, or of any facility of any national securities exchange, in connection with the purchase or sale of any security:

- (a) to employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;

- (b) to make any untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or
- (c) to engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

III.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Whittier and Whittier's agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise are permanently restrained and enjoined from violating, directly or indirectly, Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") [15 U.S.C. § 78m(d)] and Rules 13d-1 and 13d-2 promulgated thereunder [17 C.F.R. §§ 240.13d-1 and 240.13d-2] by, as a person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than 5 percent of: (i) any equity security which is registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78l]; or (ii) any equity security of an insurance company which would have been required to be so registered except for the exemption contained in Section 12(g)(2)(G) of the Exchange Act; or (iii) any equity security issued by a closed-end investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940; or (iv) any equity security issued by a Native Corporation pursuant to Section 37(d)(6) of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act:

- (a) failing, after acquiring such beneficial ownership, to file with the Commission (and to send a copy to the issuer of such equity security and to each exchange where the security is traded) within the requisite time period provided for in Rule 13d-1, statements containing the information required by Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and Rule 13d-1 promulgated thereunder;

- (b) failing to file with the Commission, within the requisite time period set forth in Rule 13d-2, any amendment to such statements as are required pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and Rule 13d-2 promulgated thereunder; or

IV.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Whittier and Whittier's agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise are permanently restrained and enjoined from violating, directly or indirectly, Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") [15 U.S.C. § 78p(a)] and Rules 16a-2 and 16a-3 promulgated thereunder [17 C.F.R. §§ 240.16a-2 and 240.16a-3], by, as a person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than 10 percent of any class of any equity security (other than an exempted security) which is registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78l], or who is a director or an officer of the issuer of such security:

- (a) failing, at the time of the registration of such security on a national securities exchange or by the effective date of a registration statement filed pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78l(g)], or within ten days after he becomes such a beneficial owner, director, or officer, to file a statement with the Commission (and, if such security is registered on a national securities exchange, also with the exchange) of the amount of all equity securities of such issuer of which he is the beneficial owner;
- (b) within ten days after the close of each calendar month thereafter, if there has been a change in such ownership during such month, failing to file with the Commission (and if such security is registered on a national securities exchange, also with the exchange) a statement indicating his ownership at the close of the calendar month and such changes in his ownership as have occurred during such calendar month; or
- (c) failing to otherwise comply with the provisions of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and Rules 16a-2 and 16a-3 promulgated thereunder.

V.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Whittier and Whittier's agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise are permanently restrained and enjoined from violating, directly or indirectly, Sections 206(1) and (2) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, 15

U.S.C. §80b-6(1) and (2) (the "Advisers Act"), by use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, directly or indirectly:

- (a) to employ any device, scheme or artifice to defraud any client or prospective client; or
- (b) to engage in any transaction, practice or course of business which operates as a fraud or deceit upon any client or prospective client.

VI.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Whittier is liable for disgorgement of $5,535,571, together with prejudgment interest thereon in the amount of $798,339, for a total of $6,333,910, representing ill gotten gains as alleged in the Complaint, provided however, that Whittier may offset from this $6,333,910 the amount of forfeiture and restitution payments imposed against and paid by him in United States of America vs. John H. Whittier., 07 CR 087 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. 2007) (hereinafter "the Criminal Case"). Defendant shall transmit photocopies of documents evidencing payment of all such criminal forfeiture or restitution to the Commission's counsel in this action within three (3) business days after making such payments. Unless Whittier's obligation to pay prejudgment interest in the amount set forth above has then been fully satisfied by restitution payments made in the Criminal Case, Whittier shall pay the prejudgment interest amount owed (or any remaining portion thereof) within thirty (30) days prior to sentencing in the Criminal Case, but in any event no later than September 1, 2007. Unless Whittier's obligation to pay disgorgement in the amount set forth above has then been fully satisfied by forfeiture payments made in the Criminal Case, Whittier shall pay the disgorgement amount owed (or any remaining portion thereof) within sixty (60) days after sentencing in the Criminal Case, but in any event no later than December 31, 2007. Any such payments shall be made to the Clerk of this Court, together with a cover letter identifying Whittier as a defendant in this action, setting forth the title and civil action number of this action and the name of this Court, and specifying that payment is made pursuant to this Final Judgment. Whittier shall simultaneously transmit photocopies of such payment and letter to Kevin P. O'Rourke, the Commission's counsel in this action, at U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission, Division of Enforcement, 100 F. Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. Whittier shall pay post-judgment interest on any delinquent amounts pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961. If paid to the Court in this case, Whittier's payments shall be distributed pursuant to a plan for distribution of disgorged assets, to be filed by the Commission with the Court, but in no event shall any of the funds distributed pursuant to such plan be returned to Whittier, and Whittier shall not participate in any distribution in this case. Further, Whittier withdraws the proofs of claim he filed with the Receiver for the Wood River Defendants and waives any right he may have to file any proofs of claim, claims, or causes of action against the Receiver or any of the Defendants in this action. The Clerk shall deposit funds paid to the Court in this case into an interest bearing account with the Court Registry Investment System ("CRIS") or any other type of interest bearing account that is utilized by the Court. These funds, together with any interest and income earned thereon (collectively, the "Fund"), shall be held in the interest bearing account until further order of the Court. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1914 and the guidelines set by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, the Clerk is directed, without further order of this Court, to deduct from the income earned on the money in the Fund a fee equal to ten percent of the income earned on the Fund. Such fee shall not exceed that authorized by the Judicial Conference of the United States. Whittier shall pay post-judgment interest on any delinquent amounts pursuant to 28 USC § 1961.

VII.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Court is not ordering Whittier to pay a penalty pursuant to Section 21(d)(3)(A) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78u(d)(3)(A)] based upon the statutory penalties, including imprisonment and fines, that he is subject to in the Criminal Case.

VIII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Consent is incorporated herein with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein, and that Whittier shall comply with all of the undertakings and agreements set forth therein.

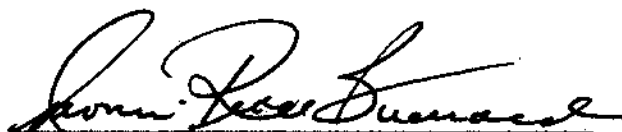

IX.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter for the purposes of enforcing the terms of this Final Judgment.

X.

There being no just reason for delay, pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Clerk is ordered to enter this Final Judgment forthwith and without further notice.

ECF CASE

CONSENT OF DEFENDANT JOHN HUNTING WHITTIER

1. Defendant John Hunting Whittier ("Whittier") acknowledges having been served with the complaint in this action, withdraws his answer to that complaint, and admits the Court's jurisdiction over himself and over the subject matter of this action.

2. Whittier, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, (except as to personal and subject matter jurisdiction, which he admits), hereby consents to entry of the Final Judgment as to Defendant John Hunting Whittier (the "Final Judgment") attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein, which, among other things:

- (a) permanently restrains and enjoins Whittier from violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 [15 U.S.C. § 77q(a)]; Sections 10(b), 13(d), and 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") [15 U.S.C. §§ 78j(b), 78m(d), 78p(a)] and Rules 10b-5, 13d-1, 13d-2, 16a-2, and 16a-3 thereunder [17 C.F.R. §§ 240.10b-5, 240.13d-1; 240.13d-2, 240.16a-2, and 240.16a-3]; and Sections 206(1) and (2) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. §80b-6(1) and (2); and

- (b) orders Whittier to pay disgorgement (to be satisfied by Whittier's forfeiture and restitution obligations in the parallel criminal action captioned United States of America vs. John H. Whittier, 07 CR 087 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. 2007)) and prejudgment interest.

3. Whittier understands and agrees that he shall pay disgorgement in the amount of $5,535,571 plus prejudgment interest thereon in the amount of $798,339, for a total of $6,333,910, representing ill gotten gains as alleged in the Complaint, provided however, that Whittier may offset from this $6,333,910 the amount of forfeiture and restitution payments imposed against and paid by him in United States of America vs. John H. Whittier, 07 CR 087 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. 2007) (hereinafter "the Criminal Case"). Defendant shall transmit photocopies of documents evidencing payment of all such criminal forfeiture or restitution to the Commission's counsel in this action within three (3) business days after making such payments. To ensure that this disgorgement payment is not directly or indirectly reduced by any subsequent receipts, Whittier agrees that he hereby withdraws any proofs of claim filed with the Receiver for the Wood River Defendants, and waives any right he may have to file any proofs of claim, claims, or causes of action against the Receiver or any of the Defendants in this action.

4. Unless Whittier's obligation to pay prejudgment interest in the amount set forth in paragraph 3 above has then been fully satisfied by restitution payments made in the Criminal Case, Whittier shall pay the prejudgment interest amount owed (or any remaining portion thereof) within thirty (30) days prior to sentencing in the Criminal Case, but in any event no later than September 1, 2007. Unless Whittier's obligation to pay disgorgement in the amount set forth in paragraph 3 above has then been fully satisfied by forfeiture payments made in the Criminal Case, Whittier shall pay the disgorgement amount owed (or any remaining portion thereof) within sixty (60) days after sentencing in the Criminal Case, but in any event no later than December 31, 2007. Any such payments shall be made to the Clerk of this Court, together with a cover letter identifying Whittier as a defendant in this action, setting forth the title and civil action number of this action and the name of this Court, and specifying that payment is made pursuant to this Final Judgment. Whittier agrees to simultaneously transmit photocopies of such payment and letter to Kevin P. O'Rourke and Peter J. Haggerty, the Commission's counsel in this action, at U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, Division of Enforcement, 100 F. Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. Whittier shall pay post-judgment interest on any delinquent amounts pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961. If paid to the Court in this case, Whittier's payments shall be distributed pursuant to a plan for distribution of disgorged assets, to be filed by the Commission with the Court, but in no event shall any of the funds distributed pursuant to such plan be returned to Whittier, and Whittier understands and agrees that he relinquishes all legal and equitable right to participate in any distribution in this case. Whittier understands and agrees that the Clerk shall deposit the funds into an interest bearing account with the Court Registry Investment System ("CRIS"), and that these funds, together with any interest and income earned thereon (collectively, the "Fund"), shall be held by the CRIS until further order of the Court. Whittier understands and agrees that, in accordance with the guidelines set by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, the Final Judgment directs the Clerk, without further order of this Court, to deduct from the income earned on the money in the Fund a fee equal to ten percent of the income earned on the Fund. Such fee shall not exceed that authorized by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

5. Whittier waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

6. Whittier waives the right, if any, to appeal from the entry of the Final Judgment.

7. Whittier enters into this Consent voluntarily and represents that no threats, offers, promises, or inducements of any kind have been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission to induce Whittier to enter into this Consent.

8. Whittier agrees that this Consent shall be incorporated into the Final Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

9. Whittier will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waives any objection based thereon.

10. Whittier waives service of the Final Judgment and agrees that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to Whittier of its terms and conditions. Whittier further agrees to provide counsel for the Commission, within thirty days after the Final Judgment is filed with the Clerk of the Court, with an affidavit or declaration stating that he has received and read a copy of the Final Judgment.

11. Whittier acknowledges that the Court is not ordering Whittier to pay a penalty pursuant to Section 21(d)(3)(A) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78u(d)(3)(A)] based upon the federal criminal statutory penalties, including imprisonment and fines, that he is subject to in the Criminal Case.

12. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. 202.5(f), this Consent resolves only the claims asserted against Whittier in this civil proceeding. Whittier acknowledges that no promise or representation has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission with regard to any criminal liability that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such criminal liability. Whittier waives any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. Whittier further acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding. In addition, in any disciplinary proceeding before the Commission based on the entry of the injunction in this action, Whittier understands that he shall not be permitted to contest the factual allegations of the complaint in this action.

13. Whittier understands and agrees to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegation in the complaint or order for proceedings." 17 C.F.R. § 202.5. In compliance with this policy, Whittier agrees: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the complaint or creating the impression that the complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, Whittier hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the complaint. If Whittier breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket. Nothing in this paragraph affects Whittier's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

14. Whittier hereby waives any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to pursue reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by him to defend against this action. For these purposes, Whittier agrees that he is not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

15. In connection with this action and any related judicial or administrative proceeding or investigation commenced by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party, including the SEC's private investigation entitled In the Matter of Wood River Partners, L.P., Whittier (i) agrees to appear and be interviewed by Commission staff at such times and places as the staff requests upon reasonable notice; (ii) will accept service by mail or facsimile transmission of notices or subpoenas issued by the Commission for documents or testimony at depositions, hearings, or trials, or in connection with any related investigation by Commission staff; (iii) appoints Defendant's undersigned attorney as agent to receive service of such notices and subpoenas; (iv) with respect to such notices and subpoenas, waives the territorial limits on service contained in Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and any applicable local rules, provided that the party requesting the testimony reimburses Defendant's travel, lodging, and subsistence expenses at the then-prevailing U.S. Government per diem rates; and (v) consents to personal jurisdiction over Defendant in any United States District Court for purposes of enforcing any such subpoena.

16. Whittier agrees that the Commission may present the Final Judgment to the Court for signature and entry without further notice.

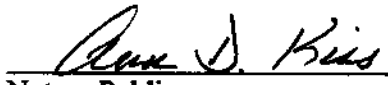

17. Whittier agrees that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Final Judgment.
