CONSENT OF DEFENDANT LORI CAPORICCI

1. Defendant Lori Caporicci (“Caporicci”), being fully apprised of her rights, having had the opportunity to confer with legal counsel, having read and understood the terms of the annexed Final Consent Judgment Of Permanent Injunction And Other Relief As To Defendant Lori Caporicci (“Final Judgment”), appears and admits to the jurisdiction of this Court over her and over the subject matter of this action, waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, without further notice, trial or argument, and without admitting or denying the allegations of the Complaint filed by plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), except as to jurisdiction, which is admitted, hereby consents to the entry of the annexed Final Judgment.

2. Defendant Caporicci agrees that this Consent Of Defendant Lori Caporicci (“Consent”) shall be incorporated by reference in and made part of the Final Judgment to be presented to the Court for signature, filing and entry contemporaneously herewith.

3. Defendant Caporicci waives the right, if any, to a jury trial and to appeal from the Final Judgment.

4. Defendant Caporicci acknowledges that any violation of any of the terms of the Final Judgment may place her in contempt of this Court and subject her to civil or criminal sanctions.

5. Defendant Caporicci acknowledges that she enters into this Consent voluntarily, and that, this Consent and the Final Judgment embody the entire understanding of Caporicci and the Commission. Defendant Caporicci acknowledges and agrees that this proceeding, and her Consent to the entry of the Final Judgment, are for the purpose of resolving this civil action only, and that no tender, offer, promise, threat or representation of any kind has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, attorney, agent or representative thereof with regard to: (a) any criminal liability arising from the facts underlying this action; or (b) immunity from any such criminal liability.

6. Defendant Caporicci acknowledges that she has been informed and understands that the Commission, at its sole and exclusive discretion, may refer, or grant access to, this matter or any information or evidence gathered in connection therewith or derived therefrom, to any person or entity having appropriate administrative, civil, or criminal jurisdiction, if the Commission has not already done so.

7. Defendant Caporicci acknowledges that, in conformity with the provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(f), her Consent and the entry of the annexed Final Judgment do not resolve, affect or preclude any other proceeding that has been or may be brought against her or anyone else. Among other things, defendant Caporicci waives any right she may have to assert that, under the Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the relief sought or consented to in this civil action, including the seeking or imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein, bars any criminal action, or that any criminal action bars the relief consented to in this action.

8. Defendant Caporicci acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding.

9. Defendant Caporicci understands and agrees to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegation in the Complaint or order for proceedings," 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(e). In compliance with this policy, defendant Caporicci agrees: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Complaint or creating the impression that the Complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, defendant Caporicci hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that she denies any allegation in the Complaint. If defendant Caporicci breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket. Nothing in this provision affects defendant Caporicci's: (a) testimonial obligations; or (b) right to take legal or factual positions in defense of litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

10. Defendant Caporicci agrees that this Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter for purposes of implementing and enforcing the terms and conditions of the Final Judgment and for all other purposes.

11. Defendant Caporicci hereby consents and agrees that the annexed Final Judgment may be presented by the Commission to the Court for signature and entry without further notice or delay.

12. Defendant Caporicci will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waive any objection based thereon.

13. Defendant Caporicci waives service of the Final Judgment and agrees that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to defendant Caporicci of its terms and conditions. Defendant Caporicci agrees to execute and provide to the Commission a written declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 acknowledging her receipt of the Final Judgment no later than twenty (20) days after a copy of the Final Judgment has been delivered to her counsel, David Smith, Esq., Law Offices of David Smith, 666 Old Country Road – Suite 305, Garden City, New York 11530.

14. Defendant Caporicci hereby waives any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to seek from the United States, or any agency, or any official of the United States acting in his or her official capacity, directly or indirectly, reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by defendant Caporicci to defend against this action. For these purposes, defendant Caporicci agrees that she is not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

15. In connection with this action and any related judicial or administrative proceeding or investigation commenced by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party, defendant Caporicci (i) agrees to appear and be interviewed by Commission staff at such times and places as the staff requests upon reasonable notice; (ii) will accept service by mail or facsimile transmission of notices or subpoenas issued by the Commission for documents or testimony at depositions, hearings, or trials, or in connection with any related investigation by Commission staff; (iii) appoints her attorney, David Smith, Esq., as agent to receive service of such notices and subpoenas; (iv) with respect to such notices and subpoenas, waive the territorial limits on service contained in Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and any applicable local rules, provided that the party requesting the testimony reimburses defendant Caporicci's travel, lodging, and subsistence expenses at the then-prevailing U.S. Government per diem rates; and (v) consents to personal jurisdiction over her in any United States District Court for purposes of enforcing any such subpoena.
