17 Civ. 403 (SJF) (GRB)

CONSENT OF DEFENDANT KENNETH MANZO

1. Defendant Kenneth Manzo (“Defendant”) waives service of a summons and the complaint in this action, enters a general appearance, and admits the Court’s jurisdiction over Defendant and over the subject matter of this action.

2. Defendant hereby admits the facts contained in Annex A, attached hereto, and the allegations in the complaint as to personal and subject matter jurisdiction, and consents to the entry of the final Judgment in the form attached hereto (the “Final Judgment”) and incorporated by reference herein, which, among other things:

- (a) permanently restrains and enjoins Defendant from violation of Section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”); Section 17 of the Securities Act; and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder;
- (b) permanently bars Defendant from participating in an offering of penny stock, including engaging in activities with a broker, dealer, or issuer for purposes of issuing, trading, or inducing or attempting to induce the purchase or sale of any penny stock (A penny stock is any equity security that has a price of less than five dollars, except as provided in Rule 3a51-1 under the Exchange Act [17 C.F.R. 240.3a51-1].);

- (c) prohibits Defendant from acting as an officer or director of any issuer that has a class of securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 781] or that is required to file reports pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78o(d)];
- (d) orders Defendant to pay disgorgement in the amount of $33,000.00, plus prejudgment interest thereon in the amount of $2,765.85; and
- (e) orders Defendant to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $60,000.00 under Section 21(d)(3) of the Exchange Act.

3. Defendant agrees that he shall not seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made pursuant to any insurance policy, with regard to any civil penalty amounts that Defendant pays pursuant to the Final Judgment, regardless of whether such penalty amounts or any part thereof are added to a distribution fund or otherwise used for the benefit of investors. Defendant further agrees that he shall not claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction or tax credit with regard to any federal, state, or local tax for any penalty amounts that Defendant pays pursuant to the Final Judgment, regardless of whether such penalty amounts or any part thereof are added to a distribution fund or otherwise used for the benefit of investors.

4. Defendant waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. Defendant waives the right, if any, to a jury trial and to appeal from the entry of the Final Judgment.

6. Defendant enters into this Consent voluntarily and represents that no threats, offers, promises, or inducements of any kind have been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission to induce Defendant to enter into this Consent.

7. Defendant agrees that this Consent shall be incorporated into the Final Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

8. Defendant will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waives any objection based thereon.

9. Defendant waives service of the Final Judgment and agrees that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to Defendant of its terms and conditions. Defendant further agrees to provide counsel for the Commission, within thirty days after the Final Judgment is filed with the Clerk of the Court, with an affidavit or declaration stating that Defendant has received and read a copy of the Final Judgment.

10. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. 202.5(f), this Consent resolves only the claims asserted against Defendant in this civil proceeding. Defendant acknowledges that no promise or representation has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission with regard to any criminal liability that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such criminal liability. Defendant waives any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. Defendant further acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding. In addition, in any disciplinary proceeding before the Commission based on the entry of the injunction in this action, Defendant understands that he shall not be permitted to contest the factual allegations of the complaint in this action.

11. Defendant understands and agrees to comply with the terms of 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(e), which provides in part that it is the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings." As part of Defendant's agreement to comply with the terms of Section 202.5(e), Defendant: (i) will not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the complaint or creating the impression that the complaint is without factual basis; (ii) will not make or permit to be made any public statement to the effect that Defendant does not admit the allegations of the complaint, or that this Consent contains no admission of the allegations; (iii) upon the filing of this Consent, Defendant hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the complaint; and (iv) stipulates for purposes of exceptions to discharge set forth in Section 523 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §523, that the allegations in the complaint are true, and further, that any debt for disgorgement, prejudgment interest, civil penalty or other amounts due by Defendant under the Final Judgment or any other judgment, order, consent order, decree or settlement agreement entered in connection with this proceeding, is a debt for the violation by Defendant of the federal securities laws or any regulation or order issued under such laws, as set forth in Section 523(a)(19) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(19). If Defendant breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket. Nothing in this paragraph affects Defendant's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

12. Defendant hereby waives any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to seek from the United States, or any agency, or any official of the United States acting in his or her official capacity, directly or indirectly, reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by Defendant to defend against this action. For these purposes, Defendant agrees that Defendant is not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

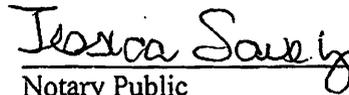

13. Defendant agrees that the Commission may present the Final Judgment to the Court for signature and entry without further notice.

14 Defendant agrees that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Final Judgment.

ANNEX A

Defendant admits the fact set forth below and acknowledges that his conduct violated the federal securities laws:

Misrepresentations to the Public

1. Kenneth Manzo (“Manzo”), age 47, resides in Shohola, Pennsylvania. Manzo is a licensed pharmacist and, from June 2014 until recently, was chief executive officer of Manzo Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“Manzo Pharmaceuticals”), a purported developer and manufacturer of dietary supplements. During Manzo’s tenure as chief executive officer, Manzo Pharmaceuticals’ stock traded on the OTC Pink Open Market.

2. From at least June 2014 through May 2016, Manzo issued at least twelve Manzo Pharmaceuticals press releases that created the false impression that Manzo Pharmaceuticals was the exclusive owner of a patent on a probiotic strain that allegedly could treat the symptoms of lactose intolerance (the “Probiotic Patent”) and was poised to market a product containing that probiotic strain called “Lacto-Freedom.” Those press releases failed to disclose that the Probiotic Patent’s co-inventor (the “Co-Inventor”), who was not affiliated with Manzo Pharmaceuticals, owned 50 percent of the Probiotic Patent and had exclusive physical possession of the probiotic strain.

3. In addition, Manzo issued two false press releases relating to an ongoing Lacto-Freedom clinical trial. The first press release, issued on February 16, 2016, announced that “[a]ll of the participants [in the clinical study] were able to eat and drink dairy products with no symptoms at all just 10-14 days after taking Lacto-Freedom™ for only 7 days. Two-thirds of the participants had no symptoms at all for a period of approximately two months after taking the probiotic, and one-third of the participants had no symptoms whatsoever well after three months.” Contrary to the press release, the reported results were not based upon “all of the participants” in the trial, which still was ongoing, but, rather, upon only three participants from whom Manzo had obtained those results. On March 24, 2016, Manzo issued a press release restating the misleading information contained in the February 16 press release.

Misrepresentations to Broker-Dealers

4. In connection with other parties’ sales of Manzo Pharmaceuticals stock, Manzo misrepresented to various securities brokerage firms that: (a) Raymond Barton (“Barton”) was not “affiliated” with Manzo Pharmaceuticals; (b) Barton had “not been given access to any information that has not been previously publicly disseminated”; and (c) Manzo Pharmaceuticals was not a current or prior shell company.

Sales of Unregistered Securities

5. In December 2014, Barton recruited Manzo to sell unregistered shares of MedGen, Inc. (“MedGen”), a public company with shares trading on the OTC Pink Open Market, for Barton’s benefit. Barton converted a portion of a MedGen promissory note into 50 million shares of Medgen stock and purported to transfer the shares to Manzo, while retaining an ownership interest in them.

6. Manzo deposited the 50 million shares in a brokerage account in his name. Manzo failed to disclose to the broker that Barton had an ongoing ownership interest in the shares.

7. After depositing the shares, Manzo sold them for over $60,000 and paid Barton $31,000 out of those funds.
