CONSENT OF DEFENDANT MICHAEL SCRONIC

1. Defendant Michael Scronic (“Defendant”) acknowledges having been served with the service of a summons and the complaint in this action, enters a general appearance, and admits the Court’s jurisdiction over Defendant and over the subject matter of this action.

2. Specifically, in United States v. Scronic, No. 18 Cr. 43 (CS) (S.D.N.Y.) (“United States v. Scronic”), Defendant pleaded guilty to one count of securities fraud pursuant to Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”), and Rule 10b-5 thereunder [15 U.S.C. § 78j(b) and 78ff; 17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5], one count of wire fraud [18 U.S.C. § 1343], and one count of mail fraud [18 U.S.C. § 1341]. In connection with that plea, Defendant admitted the facts set out in the transcript of his plea allocution that is attached as Exhibit A to this Consent. This Consent shall remain in full force and effect regardless of the existence or outcome of any further proceedings in United States v. Scronic.

3. Defendant hereby consents to the entry of the final Judgment in the form attached hereto (the “Final Judgment”) and incorporated by reference herein, which, among other things:

(a) permanently restrains and enjoins Defendant from violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) [15 U.S.C. § 77q(a)]; Section 10(b) of the

Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 thereunder [17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5]; and Sections 206(1), 206(2), and 206(4) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the “Advisers Act”) [15 U.S.C. §§ 80b-6(1), 80b-6(2), 80b-6(4)] and Rule 206(4)-8 thereunder [17 C.F.R. § 275.206(4)-8]; and

(b) orders that while Defendant is liable to pay disgorgement of $17,481,276, representing his ill-gotten gains, together with prejudgment interest, such obligation to pay disgorgement and prejudgment interest shall be deemed satisfied by the restitution and/or forfeiture orders entered in the criminal action against him, United States v. Scronic (DE 48), of $22,026,427.

3. Defendant waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

4. Defendant waives the right, if any, to a jury trial and to appeal from the entry of the Final Judgment.

5. Defendant enters into this Consent voluntarily and represents that no threats, offers, promises, or inducements of any kind have been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission to induce Defendant to enter into this Consent.

6. Defendant agrees that this Consent shall be incorporated into the Final Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

7. Defendant will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waives any objection based thereon.

8. Defendant waives service of the Final Judgment and agrees that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to Defendant of its terms and conditions. Defendant further agrees to provide counsel for the Commission, within thirty days after the Final Judgment is filed with the Clerk of the Court, with an affidavit or declaration stating that Defendant has received and read a copy of the Final Judgment.

9. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. 202.5(f), this Consent resolves only the claims asserted against Defendant in this civil proceeding. Defendant acknowledges that no promise or representation has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission with regard to any criminal liability that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such criminal liability. Defendant waives any claim of double jeopardy based upon the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. Defendant further acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding. In addition, in any disciplinary proceeding before the Commission based on the entry of the injunction in this action, Defendant understands that he shall not be permitted to contest the factual allegations of the complaint in this action.

10. Defendant understands and agrees to comply with the terms of 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(e), which provides in part that it is the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings.” As part of Defendant’s agreement to comply with the terms of Section 202.5(e), Defendant acknowledges his guilty plea for related conduct described in paragraph 2 above, and: (i) will not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the complaint or creating the impression that the complaint is without factual basis; (ii) will not make or permit to be made any public statement to the effect that Defendant does not admit the allegations of the Complaint, or that this Consent contains no admission of the allegations; (iii) upon the filing of this Consent, Defendant hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the Complaint; and (iv) stipulates for purposes of exceptions to discharge set forth in Section 523 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §523, that the allegations in the Complaint are true, and further, that any debt for disgorgement, prejudgment interest, civil penalty or other amounts due by Defendant under the Final Judgment or any other judgment, order, consent order, decree or settlement agreement entered in connection with this proceeding, is a debt for the violation by Defendant of the federal securities laws or any regulation or order issued under such laws, as set forth in Section 523(a)(19) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(19). If Defendant breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket. Nothing in this paragraph affects Defendant’s: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

11. Defendant hereby waives any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to seek from the United States, or any agency, or any official of the United States acting in his or her official capacity, directly or indirectly, reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by Defendant to defend against this action. For these purposes, Defendant agrees that Defendant is not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

12. Defendant agrees that the Commission may present the Final Judgment to the Court for signature and entry without further notice.

13. Defendant agrees that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Final Judgment.

4 Can you tell me, Mr. Scronic --

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Can you tell me, Mr. Scronic, in your own
7 words what you did that makes you guilty.

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, I can. From 9 April 2010 through October 2017, I managed an investment
10 portfolio. At a point in time, I called the fund the Scronic
11 Macro Fund, I was the fund's investment advisor and its sole
12 trading authority over the fund.

13 I represented to my investors that the money would be 14 invested in options. I further represented that I would take a
15 small percentage for investing their funds and a small
16 percentage of the profits generated by the fund.

17 Despite the fact that the fund continually lost money,
18 I fraudulently represented to my investors that the fund was
19 making money and that they were generating profits. I failed
20 to tell them the true status of their investments.

21 I knew this was a crime, and I knew this was illegal.
22 This was done from my home in Westchester County.

6 did you know that it was wrong and illegal?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Did anybody threaten you or force you or 9 coerce you to do it?

10 THE DEFENDANT: No. No, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: And do you admit to the forfeiture
12 allegations as they relate to Count One?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, I do.

14 THE COURT: And do you agree to forfeit to the United 15 States $22,026,427, plus your interest in a condominium in 16 Stratton, Vermont, and a parcel of land in Pawling, New York,
17 according to the plea agreement?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, I do.

19 THE COURT: Does anybody think I should ask
20 Mr. Scronic any further questions?

21 MR. McMAHON: No, your Honor. I think that's an 22 adequate factual basis.

23 MS. BRODY: I think we're good, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Scronic, let me ask you formally. How 25 do you plead to the charge in Count One of Indictment 18 Cr. 43
