1. The defendant is permanently restrained and enjoined from, directly or indirectly, including, but not limited to, through any entity owned or controlled by the defendant, participating in the issuance, purchase, offer, or sale of any security, provided, however, that such injunction shall not prevent the defendant from purchasing or selling securities for his own personal account.

2. As provided by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d)(2), the foregoing paragraph also binds the following who receive actual notice of this Consent Judgment by personal service or otherwise: (a) the defendant's officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys; and (b) other persons in active concert or participation with the defendant or with anyone described in (a).

The defendant shall pay a civil penalty in the amount of $75,000 to the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 20(d) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"), 15 U.S.C. § 77t(d). The defendant may transmit payment electronically to the Commission, which will provide detailed ACH transfer/Fedwire instructions upon request. Payment may also be made directly from a bank account via Pay.gov through the SEC website at <http://www.sec.gov/about/offices/ofm.htm>. The defendant may also pay by certified check, bank cashier's check, or United States postal money order payable to the Securities and Exchange Commission, which shall be delivered or mailed to:

4. The defendant shall simultaneously transmit photocopies of evidence of payment and case identifying information to the Commission's counsel in this action. By making this payment, the defendant relinquishes all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in such funds and no part of the funds shall be returned to the defendant. 6. Solely for purposes of exceptions to discharge set forth in Section 523 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523, the defendant admits that the allegations in the complaint are true and admitted by the defendant, and further, that any debt for disgorgement, prejudgment interest, civil penalty or other amounts due by the defendant under this Consent Judgment or any other judgment, order, consent order, decree or settlement agreement entered in connection with this proceeding, is a debt for the violation by Defendant of the federal securities laws or any regulation or order issued under such laws, as set forth in Section 523(a)(19) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(19).

7. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter for the purposes of enforcing the terms of this Consent Judgment.
