The associated persons will meet with the client for an information and data-gathering session to assist the client in determining the client's financial goals and objectives as well as the level of financial planning services needed by the client. Clients contracting for comprehensive or segmented financial planning services will receive a written plan prepared by the advisor's associated persons. These associated persons may use prepackaged software programs, such as Planning Tools, Lumen and Number Cruncher to assist in preparing comprehensive or segmented financial plans for clients. Messrs. Evans, Haymond, Ryan, Flynn, Purmort and Greenamyre provide advisory services using the name EHG Financial Planning. All other associated persons provide advisory services using the name Cooper McManus. Comprehensive & Segmented Financial Plans Fees for comprehensive and segmented financial planning services may be charged in the form of a fixed or hourly fee, as determined by the client and the advisor. Fees for hourly financial planning services will be billed at a rate of up to $500 per hour. Total fees for comprehensive and segmented financial planning services generally range from $500 to $25,000. The fees are negotiable based on the complexity of the client's situation, the associated person providing the services, the actual services provided and any extraordinary expenses that may be incurred in providing the services. The negotiated fee will be disclosed to clients prior to services being provided. Half the quoted fee will be due upon executing the client agreement and the remaining half will be due upon presentation of the plan to the client. Clients purchasing a comprehensive financial plan will also receive 12 months of ongoing financial planning/investment consultation services at no additional charge. Limited Consultations Clients may also contract with the advisor for limited consultation services. Fees for consultation services may be charged in the form of a fixed or hourly fee, as determined by the client and the advisor. The fees are negotiable based upon the complexity of the client's situation, the associated person providing the services, the actual services provided and the estimated time required to complete the consultations. Fees for hourly consultations will be billed at a rate of up to $500 per hour, and an estimate of the total hours needed will be provided to the client prior to services being provided. If more time is needed to complete the services than the original estimate provided, the associated person will contact the client about the additional time needed and cost involved. The associated persons will not proceed with the additional work unless authorized by the client. For fixed fees, the negotiated fee will be disclosed to the client prior to any services being provided. No adjustment will be made to the quoted fixed fee whether or not the actual time expended is more or less than the calculations used in the original quote. A retainer of half of the quoted fee will be due upon the execution of the client agreement. For hourly charges, the advisor will track and monitor the amount of time expended on the client's account. Once the retainer has been exhausted, the

For fixed fees, the remainder of the fee is due upon the completion of the consultation services. The client will receive an invoice for both fixed and hourly fees. Services terminate upon completion of the consultation services. Ongoing Consultations Clients may contract with the advisor for ongoing consultation services on any topic(s) of interest to them. Clients contracting for ongoing services will receive 12 months of ongoing consultations, which will be renewed automatically each year on the anniversary date of the signing of the original client agreement, unless sooner terminated by either party. If the services or the fees charged change at the anniversary date, a new client agreement is required. Fixed fees for this service generally range from $1,000 to $25,000 annually, payable quarterly in advance. Fees will be negotiated with each client depending on the complexity of the client's situation, the associated person providing the services, the actual services provided and any extraordinary expenses that may be incurred in providing the services. The negotiated fee will be disclosed to the client prior to services being provided. Payment Options For all financial planning and limited consultation services, the advisor and the client will determine if the requested services will be charged on a fixed or hourly basis. The client has the option to have fees billed directly to him or her, or automatically deducted from an existing investment account or charged to the client's credit card. If the client chooses to have fees automatically deducted from an existing investment account or paid via a credit card, the client will be required to provide the account custodian with written authorization to do so. At no time will the advisor act as custodian for any client account or have direct access to the client's funds and/or securities. At no time will the advisor require payment of more than $500 in fees, more than six months in advance. In addition, fees charged will never be based on the capital gains or the capital appreciation of any client's account. Commission and Fee Offset In addition to providing advisory services, the advisor's associated persons are also registered representatives and insurance agents. Therefore, they may earn fees when providing advisory services and commissions when selling securities and/or insurance products. Clients may select any broker/dealer or insurance agent they wish to implement any transactions recommended by the associated persons. If clients elect to have the advisor's associated persons implement the transactions, the associated persons may waive or reduce the amount of the advisory fee by the amount of the commissions received. Any reduction is at the discretion of the associated persons, but will not exceed 100% of the commission received. Clients may also elect to implement the advice of the associated persons through one or more of the other advisory programs disclosed in this document. In this case, the associated persons may waive or reduce the amount of the advisory fee as a result of earning additional ongoing fees. Any

Mutual Funds held in the Account pay their own advisory fees and other expenses, which are explained in each Mutual Fund's prospectus. These fees and expenses are separate charges from the Account management fees. THIRD PARTY MONEY MANAGERS SEI Tax Controlled Program The SEI Tax Controlled Program (TC Program) is sponsored by SEI Investments Management Corporation (SIMCO). To participate in the TC Program, the advisor, SIMCO and each client execute a tri-party agreement (Tax Controlled Agreement) providing for the management of certain client assets. Under the Tax Controlled Agreement, the client appoints an associated person as his or her investment advisor representative to assist the client in selecting an asset allocation strategy, which would include a percentage of client assets allocated to designated portfolios of separate securities (each, a Separate Account Portfolio) and may include the percentage of assets allocated to a portfolio of mutual funds sponsored by SIMCO or its affiliate. The client appoints SIMCO to manage the assets in each Separate Account Portfolio in accordance with a strategy selected by the client with the associated person. SIMCO may delegate its responsibility for selecting particular securities to one or more portfolio managers. The TC Program seeks to manage taxes within each Separate Account Portfolio through individually managed U.S. equity and/or laddered municipal bond component(s) within the structure of a globally diversified portfolio in order to meet a client's long-term goals of managing taxes while controlling risk. Clients may terminate the TC Program account at any time. Termination will be effective upon receipt of such notice by SIMCO. If services are terminated within five business days of executing the client agreement, services will be terminated without penalty. After the initial five business days, the client may be responsible for payment of fees for the number of days services are provided by SIMCO prior to receipt of the notice of termination. TC Program client management fees are payable quarterly, in arrears, based on assets under management at the end of the quarter. Management fees are automatically deducted from the client's account. Each quarter SEI will send the client an account statement that will include a management fee notification, which will show the computed fee, any adjustments to fee, an explanation of any adjustment and the net management fee to be deducted later in the period from the client's account.

Part II-Page 5 #9B	The advisor's associated persons are registered representatives of Securities America, Inc. (SAI), a full service broker/dealer and member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). As registered representatives, the associated persons may sell securities to any client for commissions. This could present a potential conflict of interest since the associated persons could receive fees and commissions if the client chooses to implement the recommendations of the associated persons. However, clients are free to select any broker/dealer they wish to implement said recommendations.
Part II-Page 5 #9E	The advisor or its associated persons may buy or sell securities or have an interest or position in a security for their personal account, which they also recommend to clients. The advisor is and shall continue to be in compliance with The Insider Trading and Securities Fraud Enforcement Act of 1988. As these situations may represent a potential conflict of interest, it is a policy of the advisor that no associated persons shall prefer his or her own interest to that of the advisory client. No person employed by the advisor may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction or transactions being implemented for an advisory account. The associated persons shall not buy or sell securities for their personal account(s) where their decision is derived, in whole or in part, by information obtained as a result of his or her employment unless the information is also available to the investing public upon reasonable inquiry. The advisor maintains a list of all securities holdings for itself and its associated persons, which is reviewed on a regular basis by a principal of the firm. This log is available for client review upon request. According to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, an investment advisor is considered a fiduciary. As a fiduciary, it is an investment advisor's responsibility to provide fair and full disclosure of all material facts. In addition, an investment advisor has a duty of utmost good faith to act solely in the best interest of each of its clients. The advisor and its associated persons have a fiduciary duty to all their clients. The advisor has established a Code of Ethics, which all associated persons must read and then execute an acknowledgement agreeing that they understand and agree to comply with the advisor's Code of Ethics. The advisor and its associated persons' fiduciary duty to clients is considered the core underlying principle for the advisor's Code of Ethics and represents the expected basis for all associated persons' dealings with clients. The advisor has the responsibility to make sure that the interests of clients are placed ahead of it or its associated persons' own investment interests. All associated persons will conduct business in an honest, ethical and fair manner. All associated persons will comply with all federal and state securities laws at all times. Full disclosure of all material facts and potential conflicts of interest will be provided to clients prior to services being conducted. All associated persons have a responsibility to avoid circumstances that might negatively affect or appear to affect the associated persons' duty of complete loyalty to their clients. This section is only intended to provide current clients and potential clients with a description of the advisor's Code of Ethics. If current clients or potential clients wish to review the advisor's Code of Ethics in its entirety, a copy may be requested from any of the advisor's associated persons and a copy will be provided promptly.

Part II-Page 5 #11A & 11B	As a general rule, SAA requires a minimum of $50,000 to establish and maintain Managed Opportunities Mutual Fund Portfolios, $100,000 for Separate Account Portfolios, $250,000 for Multi Asset Class Portfolios and $50,000 for Advisor Directed Portfolios. All minimums are negotiable at the discretion of the advisor and SAA. Since segmented financial planning services and limited consultations terminate upon completion of the services, no ongoing reviews are performed. However, the advisor recommends that clients have their financial situation reviewed at least annually. Additional fees may be charged and the client may be required to execute a new client agreement for additional services. Clients contracting for comprehensive financial planning services also receive 12 months of ongoing consultation services regarding financial planning and investment matters at no additional charge. Reviews will be performed at least annually, with the calendar being the triggering factor, for clients contracting for ongoing financial planning services. More frequent reviews may be performed as determined by the advisor and client based upon the complexity of the client's financial situation and the services being provided. Clients contracting for ongoing financial planning services may also request an other-than-annual review from the advisor. Asset managed accounts through the FAP, LifeGuide and/or SEI Programs will be reviewed by the advisor's associated persons at least quarterly, with the calendar being the triggering factor, unless changes in the client's financial situation and/or changes in the market conditions trigger a more frequent review. Accounts established and maintained with other money managers will be reviewed by the advisor's associated persons when statements and/or reports are received from the money manager, usually quarterly. The advisor's associated persons are each responsible for reviewing their own clients' accounts under the supervision of Arthur Cooper and David McManus. The advisor does not prepare reports for clients. Clients will receive confirmations and/or statements from the investment company, broker/dealer, broker/dealer's clearing firm and/or money manager from whom the client's account is maintained. Clients participating in the FAP and/or LifeGuide Programs may receive quarterly, monthly or on-demand reports showing the investment performance of their accounts from SAA or the advisor. Clients participating in the SEI program will receive monthly account statements, transaction ledgers and quarterly reports showing the investment performance of their account from SEI. SAA reviews the performance information in Managed Opportunities Accounts to determine its accuracy. Performance information provided by SAA is believed to be accurate but cannot be guaranteed. Fund and other securities values and other information are obtained from third parties. Managed Opportunities accounts are reviewed as needed by SAA supervisors, SAI principals and the advisor's associated persons. Triggering factors for reviews may include material market, economic or political events, changes in the client's personal or financial situations or performance of the accounts in general.

Part II-Page 5 #11A & 11B (continued)	Clients participating in Managed Opportunities will be able to view daily and quarterly performance reports on a Web site prepared on behalf of SAA by Oberon, which will describe the performance, holdings and other activity in the clients' Managed Opportunities accounts. During any month in which there is activity in Managed Opportunities accounts, clients will receive monthly statements from the account custodian or clearing firm showing the activity in the clients' accounts as well as positions held in the accounts at month end. Clients will also receive a confirmation of each purchase and sale transaction that occurs within Managed Opportunities accounts, unless clients provide SAA with written authorization to suppress confirmation delivery. If there is no activity in the account, clients will receive statements no less than quarterly from the account custodian or clearing firm.
Part II-Page 6 #12A(1), 12A(2) & 12A(4)	Upon receiving written authorization from the client, the advisor may manage the client's assets on a limited discretionary basis. When it does, discretionary authority is limited in that the advisor will not have the authority to withdraw funds and/or securities from the client's account except when written authorization has been provided to have fees automatically deducted from the client's account and paid directly to the advisor. In SEI asset management accounts, discretionary authority is limited to no-load mutual funds.
Part II-Page 6 #12B	The advisor's associated persons are registered representatives of SAI, a full service broker/dealer, member FINRA/SIPC. When placing securities transactions through SAI in their capacity as registered representatives, they may earn sales commissions. Clients wishing to implement the advice of the advisor's associated persons are free to select any broker they wish and are so informed. If the clients wish to have the associated persons implement the advice in their capacity as registered representatives, the associated person's broker/dealer, SAI, will be used. SAI has a wide range of approved securities products for which SAI performs due diligence in selecting. SAI's registered representatives are required to adhere to these products when implementing securities transactions through SAI. Commissions charged for these products may be higher or lower than commissions clients may be able to obtain if transactions were implemented through another broker/dealer.
Part II-Page 6 #13A	The advisor's associated persons sell securities and insurance products in their separate capacities as registered representatives and independent insurance agents and may earn sales commissions. Some of the advice offered by the associated persons involve investments in mutual fund products. Load and no-load mutual funds may pay annual distribution charges sometimes referred to as 12(b)-1 fees. Associated persons may receive a portion of these 12(b)-1 fees from some investment companies in their separate capacities as registered representatives. Clients should be aware that these 12(b)-1 fees come from fund assets, and thus, indirectly from the client's assets. The receipt of these fees could represent an incentive for associated persons to recommend funds with 12(b)-1 fees or higher 12(b)-1 fees over funds with no fees or lower fees, therefore creating a potential conflict of interest. The advisor from time to time may receive expense reimbursement for travel and/or marketing expenses from distributors of investment and/or insurance products. Travel expense reimbursements are typically a result of attendance at due diligence and/or investment training events hosted by product sponsors. Marketing expense reimbursements are typically the result of informal expense sharing arrangements in which product sponsors may underwrite costs incurred

The advisor will receive a portion of the fees paid to SIMCO in the TC Program. SAA may also receive a portion of the fee. The advisor may select and monitor third party money managers to manage client assets, including money managers in SAA's IMAP. When soliciting for money managers, the advisor will receive a portion of the fees paid to the money manager. SAA may also receive a portion of the fee or a marketing override for fees paid to IMAP approved money managers. The advisor's associated persons will not refer clients to a money manager, unless the money manager is licensed or exempt from registration as an investment advisor in the State of California. The advisor may refer clients to SAA through Managed Opportunities. SAA will work with Oberon and other Sub-Advisors when managing client assets. The advisor will not refer clients to SAA unless SAA, Oberon and the other Sub-Advisors are registered or exempt from registration as investment advisors in each client's state of residence. SAA will pay the advisor a portion of client fees for referrals. In addition, SAA will share fees with Oberon and other Sub-Advisors. The advisor may use the advisory, administrative and marketing services of SAA and SEI Investments, registered investment advisors, when managing client assets in the SEI Asset Management Program. When doing so, SAA will receive a portion of the fees charged to the client. The advisor enters into agreements with solicitors (referring parties) to refer clients to the advisor. If a referred client enters into an investment advisory agreement with the advisor, a cash referral fee is paid to the referring party, which is based upon a percentage of the client advisory fees that are generated. The referral agreements between any referring party and the advisor will not result in any charges to clients in addition to the normal level of advisory fees charged. The referral agreements between the advisor and referring parties are in compliance with regulations as set out in 17 CFR Section 275.206(4)-3. OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES & INDUSTRY AFFILIATIONS The advisor's associated persons may be engaged in professions other than giving investment advice. 	transactions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Information about the client's financial products and services transactions with the advisor. DATA SECURITY. The advisor restricts access to Customer Information to associated persons and employees who need the information to perform their job responsibilities within the firm. The advisor maintains agreements, as well as physical, electronic and procedural securities measures that comply with federal regulations to safeguard Customer Information about the client. USE AND DISCLOSURE OF CUSTOMER INFORMATION TO PROVIDE CUSTOMER SERVICE TO CLIENT ACCOUNTS. To administer, manage and service client accounts, process transactions and provide related services for client accounts, it is necessary for the advisor to provide access to Customer Information within the firm and to nonaffiliated companies such as SAI, SAA, other investment advisors, other broker/dealers, trust companies, custodians and insurance companies. The advisor may also provide Customer Information outside of the firm as permitted by law, such as to government entities, consumer reporting agencies or other third parties in response to subpoenas. FORMER CLIENTS. If the client closes an account with the advisor, the advisor will continue to operate in accordance with the principles stated in the Notice. REQUIREMENTS OF FEDERAL LAW. In November of 1999, Congress enacted the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA). The GLBA requires certain financial institutions, including broker/dealers and investment advisors, to protect the privacy of Customer Information. To the extent a financial institution discloses Customer Information to nonaffiliated third parties other than as permitted or required by law, clients must be given the opportunity and means to opt out (or prevent) such disclosure. Please note that the advisor does not disclose Customer Information to nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted or required by law (e.g., disclosures to service client's account or to respond to subpoenas).
