John Miller & Associates, Inc ("JMA") reviews client accounts on at least an annual basis, and more often as facts and circumstances dictate. Such reviews include an analysis of client's income taxes, cash flows, balance sheets, estate tax liabilities, portfolio allocations and risk management as is necessary. For clients retaining JMA for comprehensive financial planning, JMA prepares account projections with the aid of computer-generated schedules - additional reviews may be conducted in the event of a significant change in the financial status or goals of the client. Where appropriate, JMA consults with client's accountant, attorney or other advisors to obtain their input with respect to the client's overall plan.

For clients retaining JMA for investment advisory services only, JMA interviews client to assess investment knowledge, risk tolerance, tax and income objectives in order to prepare and implement an investment plan. John O. Miller is the sole provider of investment advisory services within the firm and therefore has complete responsibility for all client reviews.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.
For clients retaining JMA for comprehensive financial planning service, every client is furnished with a written report annually. Follow-up reviews are conducted orally, either in person or via telephoneconference on an as-needed basis.
