No

☒☐

(If yes, describe on Schedule F.)

- 11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

- A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

Client reviews are scheduled and structured according to the client's stated guidelines or in response to specific client requests. In the absence of guidelines, client meetings are generally scheduled annually. Client reviews generally involve a meeting between the client and the Westwood Relationship Manager to review strategy, objectives, key concerns and outlooks. The materials reviewed may include, but are not limited to, monthly and/or quarterly performance numbers, portfolio holdings, asset mix, cash flow and liquidity requirements, specific guidelines and objectives applicable to the account and other pertinent matters. In addition to account reviews with the client, the Portfolio Team formally reviews the account on a weekly basis looking at the recent events and the performance of each holding, sector and industry versus the market using a variety of tools including formal attribution analysis. The team also reviews the portfolio to evaluate changes or additions to the portfolio that might be appropriate. The Portfolio Team meets informally on a daily basis to monitor the portfolio and its holdings. We have also established the Performance Evaluation Technology Committee (PETC) which meets monthly to review performance calculation policies, dispersion for each investment management account and monitors and updates the account guidelines on an annual basis.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Monthly reports to clients include an asset statement, performance for the month and frequently quarter-to-date, and status of the portfolio.

On a quarterly basis, we include all of the above information, as well as an overall review of results for the quarter, year-to-date, and inception-to-date. We may also include a strategic forecast, highlighting our investment outlook for the capital markets.

We generally meet with clients on an annual basis, and to a lesser degree, on a semi-annual or quarterly basis.
