Accounts are reviewed no less than weekly by the relevant Portfolio Managers against current investment strategy, policy and objectives. A quarterly review of performance and investment decisions of Portfolio Managers is carried out through peer group scrutiny. In general, no individual will be responsible for day to day management of more than 10 accounts.

Client restrictions on investments are documented within their Investment Management Agreement. Documented restrictions are encoded into the Compliance Function of the Investment management systems which generates pre and post trade alerts to ensure such restrictions are not breached.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts

All clients receive monthly or quarterly reports which will include a valuation of assets in the account and a description of all their transactions. The content and timing of these reports will be agreed with the client. Special reports may be prepared on the basis of a client's particular requirements. Participants in the Funds advised by First State receive monthly statements indicating un-audited account balances and any changes in such values during such month. A final statement is issued on an annual basis to each participant, following the audit of the Fund.
