Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Item 1.D.	Raab & Moskowitz Asset Management, LLC d/b/a Chatham Wealth Management ("CWM") is primarily engaged in the business of furnishing investment supervisory services to separately-managed accounts for individuals, trusts and corporations, and is in the business of being the investment advisor to pension and profit sharing plans. The fee for such services is based on a percentage of the market value of assets under management. The following schedule sets forth CWM's basic fee schedule for investment supervisory services to separately-managed accounts. These basic rates reflect the annual charges which would generally apply for clients entering into CWM's customary investment advisory agreement. FEE SCHEDULE (annual rate, based on market value of assets under management) <table><tr><td>1st $ 2.5 million</td><td>1.00% (i.e., 100 basis points)</td></tr><tr><td>Amount above 2.5 million</td><td>.60% (i.e., 60 basis points)</td></tr></table> Fees generally billed either monthly or quarterly and payable when billed. CWM's customary investment advisory agreement provides that an account may be terminated by either party upon at least thirty days' written notice. CWM believes that its fees are competitive with those fees charged by other investment advisors for comparable services; however, comparable services may be available from other sources for lower fees than those charged by CWM. Under its customary investment advisory agreement, CWM holds a limited power of attorney to act on a discretionary basis as to a client's account. Each client's securities and funds are held by a brokerage firm or a bank custodian. In addition to investment supervisory services, CWM from time to time, at the request of clients, provides financial advice unrelated to securities. Such advice might include long-range income and expense projections for clients, analysis of real estate investments, advice on clients' private business ventures, etc. Any such advice given to clients is based on CWM's financial knowledge and business judgment. Provision of financial advice unrelated to securities does not constitute a significant proportion of CWM's business and is undertaken only as an adjunct to CWM's central role as investment advisor.		1 st $ 2.5 million	1.00% (i.e., 100 basis points)	Amount above 2.5 million	.60% (i.e., 60 basis points)

All associated persons are expected to adhere strictly to these guidelines. Associated persons are also required to report any violations of CWM's Code of Ethics. Additionally, CWM maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse or dissemination of material, non-public information about Clients or their account holdings by CWM or any associated person.
Item 11.A.	Daniel Moskowitz is responsible for reviewing all client accounts.
Item 11.B.	All accounts receive monthly statements from the custodian of the account. CWM sends Annual letters to clients and/or conducts meetings with clients to discuss performance and Investment outlook.
Item 12.B.	CWM will recommend that clients utilize TD Ameritrade, Inc., among others, for custodial services and brokerage transactions. CWM participates in the TD Ameritrade Institutional program. TD Ameritrade Institutional is a division of TD Ameritrade, Inc. ("TD Ameritrade"), a FINRA/SIPC member. TD Ameritrade is an independent and unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer. TD Ameritrade offers services to independent investment advisers which include custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. CWM receives some benefits from TD Ameritrade through its participation in the program. (Please see the disclosure under Item 13.A. below.) It may be the case that the recommended broker charges a higher fee for a particular type of service, such as commission rates, than can be obtained from another broker. Clients may utilize the broker/dealer of their choice and have no obligation to purchase or sell securities through such broker as CWM recommends. In order to obtain more favorable order execution and lower per share brokerage costs, it is CWM's practice to aggregate contemporaneous buy or sell orders for the same securities. Each account participates in such aggregated order at the average price except in cases when, due to limitations on the liquidity of a security or other factors, multiple transactions are necessary to complete a buying or selling program. In such cases, in order to reduce custodial transaction costs to clients, CWM may assign completed trades among accounts with open orders on a randomized (blind) basis or on such other basis that CWM considers equitable under the circumstances. In case of newly issued securities (i.e. in an IPO or a secondary offering by an issuer) when the amount available to clients of CWM is not sufficient to allocate reasonable size positions among all appropriate client accounts, these newly issued securities are anticipated to be allocated in a randomized (blind) basis or on such other basis that CWM considers equitable under the circumstances. In allocating these newly issued securities, CWM will consider the investment objectives and risk tolerance of those accounts. Clients may direct CWM, by means of written instruction, to use a designated broker or brokers for executing security transactions in their accounts; however, clients doing so may pay brokerage commission rates which are less favorable than those paid by other clients for whom CWM is free to select the broker to be used for each transaction. Directed orders may, in some transactions, limit CWM's ability to obtain the best price and execution on particular trades. Although CWM clearly understands its duty to seek to obtain competitive commission rates, designation of a broker by a client may limit CWM's ability to negotiate competitive commission rates. If the designated broker played a role in introducing or referring the client to CWM, CWM may face a conflict of interest which could be seen as

In such cases, some or all of the considerations described above with respect to directed orders may also apply to orders for such client's account.
Item 13.A.	As disclosed under Item 12.B. above, CWM participates in TD Ameritrade's institutional customer program and CWM may recommend TD Ameritrade to Clients for custody and brokerage services. There is no direct link between CWM's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although CWM receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD Ameritrade retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving adviser participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts); the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to CWM by third party vendors. TD Ameritrade may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by CWM's related persons. Some of the products and services made available by TD Ameritrade through the program may benefit CWM but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist CWM in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD Ameritrade. Other services made available by TD Ameritrade are intended to help CWM manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by CWM or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD Ameritrade. As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, the firm endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by CWM or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence the CWM's choice of TD Ameritrade for custody and brokerage services.
Item 13.B.	CWM may receive client referrals from TD Ameritrade through its participation in TD Ameritrade AdvisorDirect (the "referral program"). In addition to meeting the minimum eligibility criteria for participation in AdvisorDirect, Advisor may have been selected to participate in AdvisorDirect based on the amount and profitability to TD Ameritrade of the assets in, and trades placed for, client accounts maintained with TD Ameritrade. TD Ameritrade is a discount broker-dealer independent of and unaffiliated with CWM and there is no employee or agency relationship between them. TD Ameritrade has established the referral program as a means of referring its brokerage customers and other investors seeking fee-based personal investment management services or financial planning services to independent investment advisors. TD Ameritrade does not supervise CWM and has no responsibility for CWM's management of client portfolios or CWM's other advice or services. CWM pays TD Ameritrade an on-going fee for each successful client referral. This fee is usually a percentage (not to exceed 25%) of the advisory fee that the client pays to CWM ("Solicitation Fee"). CWM will also pay TD Ameritrade the Solicitation Fee on any advisory fees received by CWM from any of a referred client's family members, including a

Item 13.B. (continued)	spouse, child or any other immediate family member who resides with the referred client and hired CWM on the recommendation of such referred client. CWM will not charge clients referred through AdvisorDirect any fees or costs higher than its standard fee schedule offered to its clients or otherwise pass Solicitation Fees paid to TD Ameritrade to its clients. For information regarding additional or other fees paid directly or indirectly to TD Ameritrade, please refer to the TD Ameritrade AdvisorDirect Disclosure and Acknowledgement Form. CWM's participation in AdvisorDirect raises potential conflicts of interest. TD Ameritrade will most likely refer clients through AdvisorDirect to investment advisors that encourage their clients to custody their assets at TD Ameritrade and whose client accounts are profitable to TD Ameritrade. Consequently, in order to obtain client referrals from TD Ameritrade, CWM may have an incentive to recommend to clients that the assets under management by CWM be held in custody with TD Ameritrade and to place transactions for client accounts with TD Ameritrade. In addition, CWM has agreed not to solicit clients referred to it through AdvisorDirect to transfer their accounts from TD Ameritrade or to establish brokerage or custody accounts at other custodians, except when its fiduciary duties require doing so. CWM's participation in AdvisorDirect does not diminish its duty to seek best execution of trades for client accounts. MISCELLANEOUS Proxy Voting CWM will not be required to take any action or render any advice with respect to voting of proxies solicited by, or with respect to, the issuers of securities in which Client assets may be invested. Although, on rare occasions and only at the Client's request, CWM may offer Clients advice regarding corporate actions and the exercise of proxy voting rights. Class Action Lawsuits From time to time, securities held in the accounts of Clients will be the subject of class action lawsuits. CWM has no obligation to determine if securities held by the Client are subject to a pending or resolved class action lawsuit. It also has no duty to evaluate a Client's eligibility or to submit a claim to participate in the proceeds of a securities class action settlement or verdict. Furthermore, CWM has no obligation or responsibility to initiate litigation to recover damages on behalf of Clients who may have been injured as a result of actions, misconduct or negligence by corporate management of issuers whose securities are held by Clients. Where CWM receives written or electronic notice of a class action lawsuit, settlement or verdict affecting securities owned by a Client, it will forward all notices, proof of claim forms and other materials, to the Client. Electronic mail is acceptable where appropriate, and the Client has authorized contact in this manner.
