Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Part II, Page 2, Item 1A	FINANCIAL PLANNING PROGRAM Dorion-Gray Financial Services, Inc. (the applicant) offers financial planning services that include investment advice, tax advice, retirement planning, estate planning and risk management strategies. The applicant's advisory representatives may also participate in speaking engagements, guest appearances, seminars and workshops and appearances on advisory panels or radio talk shows. Fixed fees generally range up to $100,000 for the above services. Depending upon the client's needs, the applicant's advisory representatives have discretion whether to charge hourly or fixed fees. Hourly fees generally range up to $1,000 per hour. Both fixed and hourly fees are negotiable based on items such as the complexity of the situation, the overall services being provided, amount of time spent on the plan and the number of advisory representatives and/or various other experts used to research and prepare the plan or provide other requested services. Whether fixed or hourly fees, one-half of quoted fee is payable at the time the financial services agreement is signed with the balance due upon delivery of all requested services. For hourly fees, the retainer due is equal to one-half of the total estimated hours needed to complete the requested services. The client may also choose to pay the total fee upon signing the financial services agreement. Clients will have fees billed directly to them. At no time will applicant or its advisory representatives act as custodian for any client account or have any direct access to a client's funds or securities. In no event will the applicant ever require payment of more than $500 in fees more than six months in advance. In addition, fees charged will never be based on the capital gains or the capital appreciation of any client's account. The advisory representative must disclose any and all forms of compensation at or before services performed. Fees charged for these services may be higher or lower than fees clients may be able to obtain if services were provided through another registered investment advisor. Financial planning services terminate upon delivery of the financial plan or completion of the seminar, speaking engagement or other requested service. Either party may terminate the financial services agreement by notifying all appropriate parties in writing, and termination will be effective upon receipt of such notice. If services are terminated within five business days of signing the financial services agreement, the client will receive a full refund of all fees paid in advance. If services are terminated after five business days, the client is responsible for the time and effort expended by the applicant and its advisory representative prior to receipt of termination. A prorated refund or a prorated charge at a rate of up to $250 per hour will be determined based on preparatory services already performed and time and effort expended prior to receipt of termination. The client will receive a statement summarizing any prorated refund or prorated charge due. If the client wishes to implement the advice of the applicant, the client may do so through the advisory representatives in their separate capacity as registered representatives and/or independent insurance agents. When transactions are implemented through the advisory representatives in these separate capacities, commissions may be earned. If commissions are earned, the applicant may waive or reduce the amount of the financial planning fee by the amount of commissions earned. In addition, if the client wishes to implement the advice of the applicant through one or more of the applicant's on-going advisory programs (as disclosed in this Form ADV Part II), the applicant may waive or reduce the amount of the financial planning fee as a result of additional fees being earned.

SAA currently has a relationship with Oberon, a registered investment advisor, to provide these services. Clients establishing Managed Opportunities accounts will receive Oberon's Disclosure Brochure in addition to SAA and the applicant's disclosure brochures. The applicant will be available to meet with clients on a continuous basis. Clients should be aware that the applicant will be paid solicitor/referral fees by SAA for recommending mutual fund portfolios, separate account portfolios and unified managed account portfolios to clients. SAA will also share fees with the sub-advisors. The amount of compensation the applicant receives for recommending one Managed Opportunities portfolio over another portfolio may vary. Therefore, a potential conflict of interest may exist because these circumstances may result in the applicant having a financial incentive to recommend one portfolio over another. However, portfolios will be selected and recommended to clients based on each individual client's needs, goals and objectives. The applicant or SAA may invest a portion of client's assets in mutual funds or variable annuities and charges an investment management fee on client's assets invested in these securities. Therefore, clients may pay two levels of advisory fees for the management of their assets, one directly to the applicant or SAA and one indirectly to the managers of the mutual funds or variable annuities held in their portfolios. A complete description of Managed Opportunities and related fees and charges are described in SAA's Managed Opportunities Schedule H disclosure brochure which will be given to all clients prior to or at the time a Managed Opportunities Account is established.

	Act of 1988. As these situations may represent a potential conflict of interest, it is a policy of the applicant that no advisory representative or associated person shall prefer their own interest to that of the advisory client. No person employed by the applicant may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction or transactions being implemented for an advisory account. Advisory representatives shall not buy or sell securities for their personal accounts where their decisions are derived, in whole or in part, by information obtained as a result of their employment unless the information is also available to the investment public upon reasonable research. The applicant maintains a list of all securities holding for it and all associated persons that is reviewed on a regular basis by a principal of the firm. This log is available for client review upon request. According to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, an investment advisor is considered a fiduciary. As a fiduciary, it is an investment advisor's responsibility to provide fair and full disclosure of all material facts. In addition, an investment advisor has a duty of utmost good faith to act solely in the best interest of each of its clients. The applicant and its advisory representatives have a fiduciary duty to all clients. The applicant has established a Code of Ethics that all advisory representatives and associated persons must read and then execute an acknowledgment agreeing that they understand and will comply with it. The fiduciary duty of the applicant and its advisory representatives is considered the core underlying principle for the applicant's Code of Ethics and represents the expected basis for all dealings with clients. The applicant has the responsibility to make sure that the interests of clients are placed ahead of it or its advisory representatives' own investment interests. All advisory representatives will conduct business in an honest, ethical and fair manner. All advisory representatives will comply with all federal and state securities laws at all times. Full disclosure of all material facts and potential conflicts of interest will be provided to clients prior to services being conducted. All advisory representatives have a responsibility to avoid circumstances that might negatively affect or appear to affect their duty of complete loyalty to their clients. This section is only intended to provide current clients and potential clients with a description of the applicant's Code of Ethics. If current clients or potential clients wish to review the applicant's Code of Ethics in its entirety, a copy may be requested and it will be provided promptly.
Part II, Page 5, Item 10	There is no minimum fee for financial plans or estate administration services. The applicant requires a minimum of $25,000 to establish and maintain an FAP account and a minimum of $50,000 to establish and maintain a LifeGuide Account. Exceptions may be granted to these minimums upon request. As a general rule, SAA requires a minimum of $50,000 to establish and maintain Managed Opportunities mutual fund portfolios, $100,000 for separate account portfolios, $250,000 for unified managed account portfolios and $50,000 for advisor directed portfolios. All minimums are negotiable at the discretion of the applicant and SAA.
Part II, Page 5, Item 11A	Each advisory representative reviews client accounts no less than quarterly. Reviews include analysis of current portfolios with respect to client investment goals, risk management analysis, retirement and estate and tax planning reviews. Triggering factors may include, but are not limited to, changes in market conditions, change in client goals and objectives, client requests via phone or in writing, when statements are generated from the money managers or on the calendar quarters. Those clients who are provided with a review are financial planning clients or managed account clients. Financial planning clients are those who implement the advisory representatives'

	investment recommendations after a written plan is presented. Managed account clients are those clients whose fees are based upon assets under management or any other third-party money manager used. SAA reviews the performance information in Managed Opportunities Accounts to determine its accuracy. Performance information provided by SAA is believed to be accurate, but cannot be guaranteed. Fund and other securities values and other information are obtained from third parties. Managed Opportunities accounts are reviewed as needed by SAA supervisors, SAI principals and Dorion-Gray Financial Services, Inc.'s advisory representatives. Triggering factors for reviews may include material market, economic or political events, change in the client's personal or financial situations or performance of the accounts in general. The applicant urges clients to compare performance reports you receive from the applicant with account statements you receive directly from the custodian. Inquiries or concerns regarding your account including performance reports should be directed to the applicant.
Part II, Page 5, Item 11B	At the discretion of applicant's advisory representatives, financial planning clients not in an account described below will receive an annual statement showing the current position of the portfolio. At least semi-annually, clients receive performance/position reports from the applicant at the time a review of the account is performed. Investors participating in FAP and/or LifeGuide may receive quarterly, monthly or on-demand reports showing the investment performance of their accounts the applicant. Investors participating in third-party money manager accounts will receive account statements at least quarterly from the third-party money manager. Clients participating in Managed Opportunities will be able to view daily and quarterly performance reports on a web site prepared on behalf of SAA by Oberon that will describe the performance, holdings and other activity in the clients' Managed Opportunities accounts. During any month in which there is activity in Managed Opportunities accounts, clients will receive monthly statements from the account custodian or clearing firm showing the activity in the clients' accounts, as well as positions held in the accounts at month end. Clients will also receive a confirmation of each purchase and sale transaction that occurs within Managed Opportunities accounts, unless clients provide SAA with written authorization to suppress confirm delivery. If there is no activity in the account, clients will receive statements no less than quarterly from the account custodian or clearing firm.
Part II, Page 6, Item 12A(1), 12A(2) & 12A(4)	Upon receiving written authorization from the client, the applicant may manage the client's assets in FAP, LifeGuide and Managed Opportunities advisor directed portfolios on a limited discretionary basis. When it does, discretionary authority is limited in that the applicant will not have the authority to withdraw funds and/or securities from client accounts except when written authorization has been provided to have fees automatically deducted from the client's account and paid directly to the applicant.
Part II, Page 6, Item 12B	The applicant's advisory representatives are also registered representatives of SAI, a full service broker/dealer, member FINRA/SIPC. Robert Gray is also a registered principal with SAI. When placing securities transactions through SAI in their capacity as registered representatives, they may earn sales commissions. Part II, Page 6, Item 13A	have the advisory representatives implement the advice in their capacities as registered representatives, SAI will be used. SAI has a wide range of approved securities products for which it performs due diligence in selecting. SAI's registered representatives are required to adhere to these products when implementing securities transactions through SAI. Commissions charged for these products may be higher or lower than commissions clients may be able to obtain if transactions were implemented through another broker/dealer. The applicant's advisory representatives sell securities products in their separate capacities as registered representatives. They also sell insurance products in their separate capacities as independently licensed insurance agents. They earn sales commissions when selling securities and insurance products. Some of the advice offered by the advisory representatives may involve investments in mutual fund products. Load and no-load mutual funds may pay annual distribution charges sometimes referred to as 12(b)-1 fees. The representatives may receive a portion of the 12(b)-1 fees from some investment companies in their separate capacities as registered representatives. Clients should be aware that these 12(b)-1 fees come from fund assets and, thus, indirectly from client's assets. Receipt of these fees could represent an incentive for registered representatives to recommend funds with 12(b)-1 fees or higher 12(b)-1 fees over funds with no fees or lower fees, therefore creating a potential conflict of interest. The applicant may refer clients to SAA through Managed Opportunities. SAA will work with Oberon, a registered investment advisor, and other sub-advisors when managing client assets. The applicant will not refer clients to SAA unless SAA, Oberon and other sub-advisors are registered or exempt from registration as investment advisors in each client's state of residence. SAA will pay the applicant a portion of client fees for referrals. In addition, SAA will share fees with Oberon and other Sub-Advisors. The applicant provides mortgage application services for United Community Bank. Clients are not obligated to use this service. Clients choosing this service are not charged an additional fee. The applicant receives a referral fee of $600 for mortgage application services provided for United Community Bank. The applicant from time to time may receive expense reimbursement for travel and/or marketing expenses from distributors of investment and/or insurance products. Travel expense reimbursements are typically a result of attendance at due diligence and/or investment training events hosted by product sponsors. Marketing expense reimbursements are typically the result of informal expense sharing arrangements in which product sponsors may underwrite costs incurred for marketing such as advertising, publishing and seminar expenses. Although receipt of these travel and marketing expense reimbursements are not predicated upon specific sales quotas, the product sponsor reimbursements are typically made by those sponsors for whom sales have been made or it is anticipated sales will be made.
Part II, Page 6, Item 13B	The applicant enters into agreements with solicitors to refer clients to the applicant. If a referred client enters into an investment advisory agreement with the applicant, a cash referral fee is paid to the referring party which is based upon a percentage of the client advisory fees that are generated. The referral agreements between any referring party and the applicant will not result in any charges to clients in addition to the normal level of advisory fees charged. The referral agreements between the applicant and referring parties are in compliance with regulations as set out in 17 CFR Section 275.206 (4)-3.

	PROXY VOTING The applicant and its advisory representatives will not perform proxy voting services on a client's behalf. Clients are instructed to read through the information provided with the proxy voting document and to make a determination based on the information provided. In some instances, upon request from the client, the advisory representatives may give advice or provide an opinion on how to vote the proxy based on their understanding of issues presented in the voting materials. In all cases, clients will be solely responsible for making and submitting the final proxy voting decisions. OUTSIDE BUSINESS ACTIVITIES AND/OR OTHER AFFILIATIONS The applicant's advisory representatives are engaged in professions other than giving investment advice. All of the advisory representatives of the applicant sell securities products in their capacity as registered representatives and earn sales commissions on those transactions. They may also be independently licensed insurance agents and may sell life, health, disability or long term care insurance. Paula Dorion-Gray, CFP®, Mark Davids, CFP®, Joseph Genarella, CLU®, ChFC®, CSA, CDFA and John Georgy spend majority of their time on securities and insurance services along with retirement, financial, estate and tax planning. Robert Gray spends a majority of his time on operations and marketing as a registered principal of SAI. John Georgy spends a majority of his time on securities and insurance activities. SAI has established an agreement with EverBank, an FDIC insured Savings Association, to allow SAI registered representatives that are also advisory representatives of the applicant to affiliate with EverBank. In this capacity, the advisory representatives may refer clients to EverBank so that EverBank may provide the clients with banking and mortgage services. Advisory representatives will be compensated for such referrals. However, clients are not obligated to use any of these individuals for banking or mortgage services. SAI will be compensated by EverBank for these client referrals. The applicant may use the services of SAA, a registered investment advisor, through FAP and/or the LifeGuide Program when managing assets and, when doing so, SAA will receive a portion of the fees. The applicant or SAA may invest a portion of client's assets in mutual funds, exchange traded funds (ETFs) or variable annuities and charges an investment management fee on client's assets invested in these securities. Therefore, clients may pay two levels of fees for the management of their assets, one directly to the applicant or SAA and one indirectly to the managers of the mutual funds, ETFs or variable annuities held in their portfolios.

	CUSTOMER PRIVACY NOTICE This Privacy Notice is from Dorion-Gray Retirement Planning Inc. (the applicant). The applicant is an SEC Registered Investment Advisory firm and it is in the business of providing investment advisory services. The applicant is committed to safeguarding the confidential information of its clients. The applicant holds all personal information provided to its firm in the strictest confidence. The applicant's representatives may also be registered representatives of Securities America, Inc., (SAI) a registered broker-dealer that is not affiliated with the applicant. The applicant may also have relationships with other nonaffiliated investment advisor firms, such as Securities America Advisors, Inc. (SAA) an affiliate of SAI, insurance companies, trust companies, custodians and other financial institution entities. Except as required or permitted by law, the applicant does not share confidential information about the client with nonaffiliated third parties. In the unlikely event there were to be a change in this fundamental policy that would permit additional disclosures of the client's confidential information, the applicant will provide written notice to the client, and the client will be given an opportunity to direct the applicant as to whether such disclosure is permissible. AN IMPORTANT NOTICE CONCERNING CUSTOMERS' PRIVACY Customer information the applicant collects. The applicant collects and develops personal information about the client, and some of that information is nonpublic personal information (Customer Information). The essential purpose for collecting Customer Information is to provide and service the financial products and services the client obtains from the applicant. The categories of Customer Information collected by the applicant depend upon the scope of the engagement with the applicant and are generally described below. As an investment advisor, the applicant collects and develops Customer Information about the client in order to provide investment advisory services. Customer Information the applicant collects includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Information the applicant receives from the client on financial inventories through consultation with the applicant's representatives. This Customer Information may include personal and household information such as income, spending habits, investment objectives, financial goals, statements of account and other records concerning the client financial condition and assets, together with information concerning employee benefits and retirement plan interests, wills, trusts, mortgages and tax returns. ● Information developed as part of financial plans, analyses or investment advisory services. ● Information concerning investment advisory account transactions, such as wrap account transactions. ● Information about the client's financial products and services transactions with Advisor. DATA SECURITY. The applicant restricts access to Customer Information to those representatives and employees who need the information to perform their job responsibilities within the firm. Advisor maintains agreements, as well as physical, electronic and procedural securities measures that comply with federal regulations to safeguard Customer Information about the client.
