LBJ Family Wealth Advisors, Ltd.
Item of Form (Identify)	Answer
Item 11(A), 11(B)	Review of Accounts LBJ Family Wealth Advisors, Ltd. monitors Clients' portfolios on an ongoing basis. Monthly and trade confirmation statements are sent to Clients directly from the broker. Quarterly meetings are held with each Client to review performance and determine any changes in financial situation or risk tolerance. Quarterly reviews include current and target asset allocations and portfolio performance. Substantial changes in portfolio allocation due to withdrawals, additions or severe market moves may be cause for rebalancing on an ad-hoc basis, but LBJ Advisors formally reviews portfolios for rebalancing only once a year. All Client accounts are reviewed quarterly by Ian Turpin, President and Faith Vincent, Vice President and Chief Investment Officer.
Item 12(A), 12(B)	Investment or Brokerage Discretion LBJ Family Wealth Advisors, Ltd. opens an advisory and management relationship with each Client through the LBJ Advisors Investment Management Agreement which gives the advisor full and exclusive authority to hire, manage and terminate brokers, managers, custodians and other third-party Advisors and to manage, buy, sell, exchange, convert or otherwise trade stocks, bonds, mutual funds and other securities and to otherwise act within advisor's discretion on Client's behalf in all cases without prior consultation or approval. When placing trades for its Clients, LBJ Advisors seeks to obtain best execution of securities transactions. In general, LBJ Advisors recommends Fidelity Brokerage Services ("Fidelity") to Clients as its broker dealer of choice for the reasons described below. However, LBJ Advisors will work with any broker dealer of the Client's choice as long as the broker dealer recognizes and accepts LBJ Advisors' authority to act on behalf of such Client under the LBJ Advisors Investment Management Agreement. In selecting Fidelity as its broker-dealer of choice or other broker-dealers, if applicable, LBJ Advisors considers the broker's commission and fee structure, the quality of its brokerage services, its ability to effect transactions, the broker's facilities, reliability and financial responsibility, and the broker's provision of certain brokerage and research products and services, including custodial services. LBJ Advisors need not solicit competitive bids and does not have the obligation to seek the lowest available commission costs. Accordingly, the commissions and fees that Clients pay Fidelity or other brokers, if applicable, may be lower than those available from other broker-dealers, but may not be the lowest available. LBJ Advisors believes, in good faith, that the brokerage and research products and services it receives from Fidelity or, if applicable, other brokers assist it in managing Client assets and that the commissions charged by Fidelity or, if applicable, other brokers are reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research products and services provided, as described below.

Additional Information continued	Varying Disruptions – Significant business disruptions can vary in their scope, such as emergencies affecting only a single building housing our Firm, the business district where our Firm is located, the city where we are located, or the whole region. Within each of these areas, the severity of the disruption can also vary from minimal to severe. In a disruption to only our Firm or a building housing our Firm, we will transfer our operations to an emergency-ready local site, moving a select group of trained employees and expecting to recover and resume business within four hours. In a disruption affecting our business district, city, or region, we will move appropriate staff to a site outside of the affected area to be able to communicate with our custodian on behalf of our Clients. In either situation, we plan to continue in business, transferring operations to our clearing firm if necessary. If the significant business disruption is so severe that it prevents us from remaining in business, our clearing firm is one of the largest financial institutions in the world, assuring our customer’s prompt access to their funds and securities.
