9. Participation or Interest in Client Transactions.

Applicant or a related person: (check those that apply)

- ☐ A. As principal, buys securities for itself from or sells securities it owns to any client.
- ☒ B. As broker or agent effects securities transactions for compensation for any client.
- ☐ C. As broker or agent for any person other than a client effects transactions in which client securities are sold to or bought from a brokerage customer.
- ☒ D. Recommends to clients that they buy or sell securities or investment products in which the applicant or a related person has some financial interest.
- ☒ E. Buys or sells for itself securities that it also recommends to clients.

(For each box checked, describe on Schedule F when the applicant or a related person engages in these transactions and what restrictions, internal procedures, or disclosures are used for conflicts of interest in those transactions.) Describe, on Schedule F, your code of ethics, and state that you will provide a copy of your code of ethics to any client or prospective client upon request.

- 10. Conditions for Managing Accounts. Does the applicant provide investment supervisory services, manage investment advisory accounts or hold itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services and impose a minimum dollar value of assets or other conditions for starting or maintaining an account?

Yes ☒ No ☐

(If yes, describe on Schedule F.)

- 11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

- A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

Every 6-12 months, Advisory Representatives will contact all financial planning clients and offer to review the plan. This will help to ensure that the plan still reflects Client's financial goals and objectives, and give Adviser the opportunity to amend the plan to accommodate any changes in Client's circumstances. This service is optional, and the Client is not obligated to accept. Asset Allocation accounts will be reviewed quarterly and rebalanced as necessary. Clients may request more frequent reviews and may set thresholds for triggering events that would cause a review to take place. Generally, Advisory Representatives will monitor for changes or shifts in the economy, changes to the management and structure of a mutual fund or company in which client assets are invested and market shifts and corrections. Levels of reviews will vary depending on Client needs at the time of review as well as changes in the financial status or position (tax status or otherwise), financial goals, current market conditions, performance standards, suitability changes and age, among other things. Clients are advised that they should notify their Advisory Representative promptly of any changes to the Client's financial goals, objectives or financial situation as such changes may require Advisory Representative to review the Client's portfolio and make recommendations for changes. Client accounts will be reviewed by the Advisory Representative.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Clients will be provided with account statements reflecting the transactions occurring in the client's account at least on a quarterly basis. Client will be provided with confirmations for each securities transaction executed in the client's account.

Financial plans will be reviewed periodically as needed, as the result of qualifying events or at the request of a client. Clients may request more frequent reviews and may set thresholds for triggering events that would cause a review to take place. Printouts of account values will be provided to clients.

Asset Allocation accounts will be provided with quarterly performance reports.

12. Investment or Brokerage Discretion.

A. Does applicant or any related person have authority to determine, without obtaining specific client consent, the:

(1) securities to be bought or sold?

Yes No

☒ ☐

(2) amount of the securities to be bought or sold ?

Yes No

☒ ☐

(3) broker or dealer to be used ?

Yes No

☐ ☒

(4) commission rates paid?

Yes No

☐ ☒

B. Does applicant or a related person suggest brokers to clients?

Yes No

☒ ☐

For each yes answer to A describe on Schedule F any limitations on the authority. For each yes to A(3), A(4) or B, describe on Schedule F the factors considered in selecting brokers and determining the reasonableness of their commissions. If the value of products, research and services given to the applicant or a related person is a factor, describe:

- the products, research and services
- whether clients may pay commissions higher than those obtainable from other brokers in return for those products and services
- whether research is used to service all of applicant's accounts or just those accounts paying for it; and
- any procedures the applicant used during the last fiscal year to direct client transactions to a particular broker in return for products and research services received.

13. Additional Compensation.

Does the applicant or a related person have any arrangements, oral or in writing, where it:

A. is paid cash by or receives some economic benefit (including commissions, equipment or non-research services) from a non-client in connection with giving advice to clients?

Yes No

☒ ☐

B. directly or indirectly compensates any person for client referrals?

Yes No

☒ ☐

(For each yes, describe the arrangements on Schedule F.)

14. Balance Sheet. Applicant must provide a balance sheet for the most recent fiscal year on Schedule G if applicant:

- has custody of client funds or securities (unless applicant is registered or registering only with the Securities and Exchange Commission); or
- requires prepayment of more than $500 in fees per client and 6 or more months in advance

Has applicant provided a Schedule G balance sheet?

Item of Form (identify)	Answer
	New England Investment & Retirement Group, Inc. is referred to herein as "Applicant" or "Adviser." Associated persons of Adviser are referred to herein as "Advisory Representatives" or "Associated Persons."
Item 1 D	Asset Allocation/Portfolio Monitoring Program Clients wanting to engage Adviser to manage Client's account will need to establish an account ("Account") with National Financial Services, LLC and grant trading authorization to Adviser. Generally, Adviser's minimum amount of assets per client in order to obtain asset allocation and portfolio monitoring services is $100,000. Adviser will not maintain possession of Client's funds or securities. Custodial services for the managed Account will be provided through National Financial Services, LLC. Adviser offers these services on a discretionary basis. Advisory Representatives will gather information on a Client's financial history, goals, objectives, and financial concerns and assist Client in developing an asset allocation strategy. Adviser has created a series of model portfolios, each with its own unique objective. All information gathered from Client is confidential. Client will establish an Account and deposit cash, cash equivalents and securities and engage an Advisory Representative to allocate the assets in the Account by investing in the model portfolio best suited to the Client's needs and objectives. Based on the model portfolio's investment objectives, risk tolerance, etc. Adviser will monitor the model portfolio and its performance and make changes as necessary. While Accounts are monitored and reviewed to ensure the chosen model fits Client's objectives, such Accounts are not managed based on the individual needs of the Client. Therefore, clients are advised if changes are made to the model, the changes are applied across all client accounts invested similarly to the model without regard to the client's individual financial or tax situation. Advisory fees will be charged in advance on a calendar quarterly basis. Upon establishment of an Account, the fee will be based upon the proportion of the number of days remaining in the quarter and, thereafter, quarterly on the first working day of each calendar quarter. The advisory fees payable upon initial implementation of the account may be paid by Client upon receipt of an invoice from Adviser or collected directly from the Account provided the Client has given Adviser written authorization. Advisory fees for all subsequent periods will be charged to and collected directly from the Account early in the quarter and will be based on the value of the portfolio as of the last working day of the previous quarter. Clients will be provided with a fee

As compensation for the investment management of the Partnership, the Partnership will pay Adviser monthly management fees equal to 1/12 of 1.25 percent of the net asset value of the Partnership attributable to the Limited Partners at the opening of business on the first day of each month. Payments will be made in advance of each monthly period. The management fee will be prorated in the event that the Partnership's initial closing takes place or additional Capital Contributions are made on a date other than the start of a month and a pro rata portion will be refunded if the Partnership ends on a date other than the last day of a month. Adviser and the General Partner may agree to waive the management fee in whole or in part for any Limited Partner, in which case the assets of the Partnership allocable to such Limited Partner subject to the waiver will be subtracted from the Partnership's net asset value attributable to the Limited Partners for purposes of calculating the management fee and the expense of the management fee will be specially allocated to those Limited Partners subject to the fee in a manner which reflects the waivers. Adviser and General Partner expect to waive the management fee for employees and affiliates of the General Partner. The General Partner is not subject to a management fee. Clients are advised positions in the hedge fund may generally be illiquid, unless an exception is made. If an exception is made, liquidations may be subject to a 3% early redemption fee. General Advice offered by Advisory Representatives may involve investment in mutual funds. Mutual funds may carry loads (i.e. sales charges) that may be up-front or on a contingent deferred basis or be no-loads with no initial or contingent deferred sales charges. Fees paid to Adviser or any investment adviser for advisory services are separate from the fees and expenses charged to shareholders of mutual fund shares by the mutual fund companies. A complete explanation of fees and expenses charged by mutual funds is contained in each mutual fund's prospectus. Clients are advised that Advisory Representatives may be Registered Representatives of Commonwealth Financial Network, a registered broker/dealer, member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and SIPC. Advisory Representatives will not offset any fees by the amount of 12b-1 fees received; however, 12b(1) fees will be credited back to all retirement accounts. Adviser and/or Advisory Representatives may receive benefits such as assistance with conferences and educational meetings from product sponsors. Commonwealth, the Broker/Dealer with which Advisory Representatives are registered, may negotiate discounted rates with various outside vendors. Services such as electronic statements and discounts on research and educational materials may be available to Adviser. It is Adviser's policy to only accept those products and services that directly enhance Adviser's ability to provide quality services to all Clients.
Item 13 B	Adviser and its Advisory Representatives may enter into arrangements with individuals ("Solicitor") whereby the Solicitor will refer clients who may be a candidate for investment advisory services offered by Adviser. In return, Adviser will agree to compensate the Solicitor for the referral. Compensation to the Solicitor is dependent on the client entering into an advisory agreement with Adviser for advisory services. Compensation to solicitor will be a percentage of Adviser's advisory fee or a flat fee as agreed upon between Adviser and Solicitor. Adviser's referral program is in compliance with the federal regulations as set out in 17 CFR section 275.206(4)-3. The solicitation/referral fee is paid pursuant to a written agreement entered into between Adviser and Solicitor. The Solicitor will be required to provide the client with a copy of Adviser's Form ADV Part II and a Solicitor Disclosure brochure at the time the referral is made to Adviser. Solicitor
