the other party. Full refunds will only be made in cases where cancellation occurs within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's investment advisory agreement. After five (5) business days, clients will receive pro-rata refunds, which take into account work completed by the Advisor on behalf of the client. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis.

SCA's fee schedule does not include the following separately billed fees, which SCA does not receive any part of: mutual fund expenses, trading and custodial costs. These fees will be separately charged by the relevant parties and borne by the Client.

No portion of SCA's compensation shall be based on capital gains or capital appreciation of the Assets except as provided for under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. SCA will adhere to the SEC Staff No-Action Letter, SMC Capital, Inc. in the event that orders are aggregated.

Additional Information Concerning Fees

In certain circumstances, advisory fees and account minimums may be negotiable based upon prior relationships as well as related account holdings. The fees charged are calculated as described above and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds of an advisory Client.

All fees paid to SCA for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. Such fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses and a possible distribution fee. If the fund also imposes sales charges, a Client may pay an initial or deferred sales charge.

A Client could invest in a mutual fund directly, without the services of SCA. In that case, the Client would not receive the services provided by SCA which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which mutual fund or funds are most appropriate to the Client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the Clients should review both the fees charged by the funds and the fees charged by SCA to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the Clients and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided.

Advisory recommendations are based on the Client's financial situation at the time the services are provided and are based on financial information disclosed by the Client to SCA. Clients are advised that certain assumptions may be made with respect to interest and inflation rates and the use of past trends and performance of the market and economy. Past performance is in no way an indication of future performance. As the Client's financial situation, goals, objectives, or needs change,

Item 9.E (Continued)	Insider Trading SCA also maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of material non-public information by SCA.
Item 12.A,B	Investment or Brokerage Discretion SCA participates in the TD AMERITRADE Institutional program. TD AMERITRADE Institutional is a division of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. ("TD AMERITRADE") member FINRA/SIPC. TD AMERITRADE is an independent and unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer and FINRA member. TD AMERITRADE offers to independent investment advisers, services which include custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. SCA receives some benefits from TD AMERITRADE through its participation in the program. (Please see the disclosure under Item 13.A. below.) In certain cases, SCA has obtained the written consent of clients to engage in discretionary trading of securities. Such discretion is limited to the authority to select securities to be bought or sold and/or the amount of securities to be bought or sold. SCA does not possess the authority without the client's consent to determine the broker or dealer to be used or the commission rates paid. In any event, SCA often suggests that clients execute trades through TD AMERITRADE. SCA reasonably believes that in the case of managed accounts, TD AMERITRADE, Inc.'s blend of execution services, commission and transaction costs as well as professionalism allows SCA to seek best execution and competitive prices. Additionally SCA believes that in case of financial plan recommendations being implemented, that TD AMERITRADE, Inc.'s blend of execution services, commission and transaction costs as well as professionalism allows SCA to recommend TD AMERITRADE, Inc. for the establishment of a brokerage account. At all times, financial planning clients are free to execute their plan recommendations through any broker-dealer without the assistance of SCA or its investment advisory representatives. As mentioned previously, clients grant SCA discretionary authority over the selection and amount of securities to be bought and/or sold for their account without obtaining their prior consent or approval. The trading authority will allow SCA to take advantage of time-sensitive market conditions in securities, which are consistent with the client's prior stated investment objectives. However, SCA's investment authority may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, and/or conditions imposed by the client. For example, a client may specify that the investment in any particular stock or industry should not exceed specified percentages of the value of the portfolio and/or restrictions or prohibitions of transactions in the securities of a specific industry.

Item 13.A,B

Additional Compensation

While SCA, and its associated persons, endeavor at all times to put the interest of the clients first as part of their fiduciary duty, clients should be aware that receipt of additional compensation in itself creates a potential conflict of interest. As disclosed under Item 12.B. above, SCA participates in TD AMERITRADE's institutional customer program and SCA may require clients to maintain accounts with TD AMERITRADE/recommend TD AMERITRADE to clients. There is no direct link between SCA's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although SCA receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD AMERITRADE retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving SCA participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts); the ability to have Advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to SCA by third party vendors.

TD AMERITRADE may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by SCA's related persons and may also pay or reimburse expenses (including travel, lodging, meals [and entertainment] expenses) for SCA's personnel to attend conferences or meetings relating to the program or to TD AMERITRADE's Advisor custody and brokerage services generally. Some of the products and services made available by TD AMERITRADE through the program may benefit SCA but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist SCA in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD AMERITRADE. Other services made available by TD AMERITRADE are intended to help SCA manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by SCA or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD AMERITRADE. As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, SCA endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be advised, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by SCA or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence SCA's choice of TD AMERITRADE for custody and brokerage services.
