Describe, on Schedule F, your code of ethics, and state that you will provide a copy of your code of ethics to any client or prospective client upon request.

- 10. Conditions for Managing Accounts. Does the applicant provide investment supervisory services, manage investment advisory accounts or hold itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services and impose a minimum dollar value of assets or other conditions for starting or maintaining an account? Yes ☒ No ☐

(If yes, describe on Schedule F.)

- 11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

- A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

RFL Advisor Program: Each IA Rep is responsible to review the accounts under his/her supervision, which can be on a daily basis. Changes can occur in the portfolio at any time based on fundamental news regarding the economy, client investments, and/or performance. A more comprehensive account review is done on a quarterly basis with an eye towards the asset allocation. Based on the IA Rep's philosophy and the client's investment objectives, some portfolios will be more actively traded and other securities will be held for the long term. Supervisory personnel will also periodically review portfolios.

Financial plans are designed by client request. Financial plans do not receive any scheduled review or reports, except as re-engaged by the client. The IA Rep suggests that clients meet with the IA Rep annually for reviews. Financial Planning Services terminate upon the delivery of services. While the advice may include the recommendation for a review or follow-up services, it is the client's obligation to secure additional or follow-up services with the IA Rep at the client's discretion.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Under the RFL Advisor Program, clients will receive a quarterly report, which will include at a minimum commentary, portfolio summary, and portfolio allocation comparison. The report design may include other pages and will be designated by the client at the account set-up. The IA Rep can also prepare post-meeting communications and financial planning documents upon request or at the IA Rep's discretion.

12. Investment or Brokerage Discretion.

A. Does applicant or any related person have authority to determine, without obtaining specific client consent, the:

	Yes	No
(1) securities to be bought or sold?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
(2) amount of the securities to be bought or sold?.....	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
(3) broker or dealer to be used?.....	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
(4) commission rates paid?.....	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

B. Does applicant or a related person suggest brokers to clients?.....

Yes	No
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

For each yes answer to A describe on Schedule F any limitations on the authority. For each yes to A(3), A(4) or B, describe on Schedule F the factors considered in selecting brokers and determining the reasonableness of their commissions. If the value of products, research and services given to the applicant or a related person is a factor, describe:

- the products, research and services
- whether clients may pay commissions higher than those obtainable from other brokers in return for those products and services
- whether research is used to service all of applicant's accounts or just those accounts paying for it; and
- any procedures the applicant used during the last fiscal year to direct client transactions to a particular broker in return for products and research services received.

13. Additional Compensation.

Does the applicant or a related person have any arrangements, oral or in writing, where it:

A. is paid cash by or receives some economic benefit (including commissions, equipment or non-research services) from a non-client in connection with giving advice to clients?	Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>
B. directly or indirectly compensates any person for client referrals?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/>	No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------

Item of Form (Identify)	Answer
1.	Advisory Services R.F. Lafferty & Co., Inc. ("RFL") is a registered Broker/Dealer ("BD") with FINRA and a Registered Investment Adviser ("RIA") in state jurisdictions where applicable. As a BD, RFL conducts retail brokerage on a transaction-based service. As an RIA, RFL provides managed account and financial planning services. RFL manages investment advisory accounts ("RFL Advisor Program" or "Advisor Program") with RBC Correspondent Services ("RBC") acting as "custodian" and offering back office support.
1.A(1)	RFL's Investment Advisor Representative ("IA Rep" or "Financial Consultant" in accordance with the Advisor Program Agreement) conducts an initial interview and data-gathering questionnaire to determine the client's financial situation and investment objectives, and to give the client the opportunity to impose reasonable restrictions on the management of the account. Clients have the ability to leave standing instructions with the IA Rep to refrain from investing in particular securities or types of securities, or invest in limited amounts of securities. The IA Rep recommends a portfolio that may consist of stocks, bonds, mutual funds, options, CDs, ETFs, and US government securities. Based on client need, other securities may be considered (e.g., ADRs, foreign equities, warrants, and commercial paper). An asset allocation will be determined at the account set-up. Mutual funds will be offered at net asset value (without sales charge), or may include no load funds. Quarterly, the IA Rep will notify the client to contact the IA Rep if there have been any changes in the client's financial situation or investment objectives, or to impose or modify account restrictions. The IA Rep will contact or attempt to contact the client periodically but no less than annually on these matters. It is the client's responsibility to notify the IA Rep at any time there are changes. Clients may call in at any time during normal business hours to discuss directly with the IA Rep about the client's account, financial situation, or investment needs. Clients will receive from the custodian/brokerage firm timely confirmations and at least quarterly statements containing a description of all transactions and all account activity. The client will retain the indicia of ownership of all securities and funds in the account to the same extent as if the client held the securities and funds outside the program. In addition to custodial statements, RFL sends the client quarterly Portfolio Review reports prepared by RBC. The reports are customized at the account set-up.
1.A(3)	RFL provides Financial Planning Services consistent with the individual client's tax status as well as their financial risk/reward parameters and personal financial objectives. Planning may focus on investments, insurance planning, taxes, retirement planning, risk management issues, and goal setting including education funding, and/or estate plans. Investment recommendations may consist of stocks, bonds, mutual funds, options, CDs, ETFs, and US government securities. Based on client need, other securities may be considered (e.g., foreign equities, warrants, and commercial paper). Vehicles such as variable life insurance or variable annuities, disability and/or life insurance may also be recommended based on client needs and objectives. The financial plan is only included with the RFL Advisor Program if requested by the client

1. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in Item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: R.F. Lafferty & Co., Inc.		IRS Empl. Ident. No.: 13-3000887
Item of Form (Identify)	Answer
1.D (continued)	The client may terminate the Agreement without penalty (full refund) within five business days of signature. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> After the first five days for the RFL Advisor Program, services will continue until either party terminates the agreement upon receipt of written notice. If termination occurs prior to the end of a calendar quarter, a pro-rata refund of unearned fees will be made to the client, provided that the minimum annual fee requirement has been satisfied. Upon termination of the Agreement, it is solely Client's responsibility to issue instructions regarding disposition of the assets in the account. As of the date of termination, RFL will no longer be the investment advisor of record, and it will be Client's responsibility to monitor the timely disposition of the account and take all future actions in regards to the management of the account. After the first five days for financial planning, the client may terminate the Agreement at any time and a refund of the unearned fees, if any, will be made based on time and effort expended before termination. The Agreement for financial planning terminates upon delivery of the plan. When the IA Rep, in writing, confirms with client that the financial plan has been completed, no refunds will be made and payment is due in full. Any controversy or claim, including, but not limited to, errors and omissions arising out of or relating to our Agreement or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the securities arbitration rules then in effect with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Client understands that this agreement to arbitrate does not constitute a waiver of the right to seek a judicial forum where such a waiver would be void under the federal securities laws. Arbitration is final and binding on the parties. Selection of FINRA to arbitrate investment advisory disputes is not intended to imply that FINRA supervises investment advisory activities.
3.	Types of Investments As a broker/dealer, RFL may buy and sell a variety of investments including but not limited to: stocks, bonds, variable life, term, health and/or disability insurance, variable annuities, mutual funds, US government securities, CDs, ETFs, options, and limited partnerships. As a registered investment advisor, under the RFL Advisor Program the investments may be more limited, but can be adjusted based on client need.
4.A(5), 4.C(5)	Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies Methods of analysis may include charting, fundamental, technical, cyclical, or a combination thereof, based on the investment style of the IA Rep. The IA Rep also evaluates the investments to determine whether they correspond with the client's financial objectives. The Advisory Affiliate will design and propose a portfolio to assist the client in achieving his/her financial goals. Some IA Reps may use margin as an investment strategy, whereas other IA Reps may use this strategy based on a client's needs.
4.C(7)	By its nature, financial planning looks to the long-term. If a financial plan is provided, the client's short-term cash needs and emergency funds are evaluated first, and then investment and insurance strategies are designed to help the client attain his or her financial goals. Casualty insurance (e.g. homeowner's, auto, liability, etc.) is reviewed only at the client's request, and would be provided by an outside casualty firm.

Education and Business Standards

As a broker/dealer, agents of RFL are Registered Representatives ("RRs"). RRs may request to act in the capacity of an IA Rep under RFL's registered investment advisor. In approving the IA Rep status, RFL will consider education, experience, and character. All IA Reps must complete industry exam and licensing requirements.

1. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in Item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: R.F. Lafferty & Co., Inc.		IRS Empl. Ident. No.: 13-3000887
Item of Form (Identify)	Answer
7.A, 7.B, 7.C, 8.A, 8.C(9)	Other Business Activities and Industry Affiliations RFL is registered as a securities broker/dealer, having membership in the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and the NYSE Amex. IA Reps of RFL are also RRs. We may recommend securities or asset management offered by RFL. IA Reps of RFL are licensed with several life, disability, and other insurance companies. Insurance products offered by these companies may be recommended. If clients purchase securities, asset management, or insurance products through us, we receive the normal commissions or fees. Thus a conflict of interest may exist between our interests and those of advisory clients. The client is under no obligation to purchase products recommended, or to purchase products either through us or through the insurance companies. The sale of securities and insurance products account for the principal business by RFL and its Advisory Affiliates. Only licensed, authorized representatives of our firm may act as IA Reps. As a broker/dealer, RFL is also engaged in the investment banking business and acts as a market maker. See related disclosures at items 9A and 9D.
8.D	Henry Hackel is a General Partner in First Tera Byte Fund, a private hedge fund. Henry Hackel manages the fund; however, he does not solicit clients to invest in the fund.
	Participation or Interest in Client Transactions
9.A	RFL, as a broker/dealer acts as a market maker. Advisory and brokerage clients are restricted from the purchase of securities in which RFL makes a market. RFL does enter into riskless principal trades with brokerage client accounts. RFL does not enter into any principal trades with advisory accounts.
9.B	As RRs of RFL, the IA Reps will be compensated for effecting securities transactions on the normal commission schedule when done in the capacity as an RR. Client will not pay the advisory fee for mutual funds held in the RFL Advisor Program that were purchased from RFL with a front-end sales load until the client has held those shares for at least two years from the date of the initial purchase.
9.D	RFL, as a broker/dealer is engaged in the investment banking business. Advisory and brokerage clients are limited from purchasing the stocks of companies while RFL has current investment banking activity with the company, as these stocks will be placed on the restricted list and no recommendations of these securities may be made. Clients may purchase these securities on an unsolicited basis during the investment banking period. The stocks of these companies may be recommended to advisory and brokerage clients after the investment banking activity has ceased. None-the-less, clients may invest money into an investment banking company during the course of a financing deal in a separate RFL brokerage account. This transaction would not be deemed an advisory service and hence, would not take place within the advisory account.

9.E	Occasionally, investment objectives of clients are similar to that of RFL's IA Reps, accordingly, this may lead to personal investments made in the same securities that are recommended to clients. However, RFL will always place the interests of clients ahead of RFL and its staff. RFL's policy is designed to avoid conflicts of interest with our clients and we will not violate the Advisor's fiduciary responsibilities to our clients. All applicable securities rules and regulations will be strictly enforced. RFL does not permit insider trading. Mutual funds are purchased or redeemed at a fixed net asset value price set by the fund company. Transactions in mutual funds by access persons are not likely to have an impact on prices of fund shares. Access persons may buy or sell these funds on the same day as clients. Limited partnership offerings have a set number of units available for purchase. We will fulfill client subscriptions first, and access persons may invest if units are remaining. Thus, we will not "race" clients into limited partnership offerings. For general securities transactions (e.g. stocks, bonds, options): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We will generally be "last in" and "last out" for the trading day when trading occurs in close proximity to client trades. • Scalping (trading shortly ahead of clients) is prohibited. • Should a conflict occur because of materiality (i.e. access person's prior holding of a thinly traded security), disclosure will be made to the client(s) at the time of trading. • Incidental trading not deemed to be a conflict (i.e. a purchase or sale which is minimal in relation to the total outstanding value, and as such would have negligible effect on the market price), would not be disclosed at the time of trading. RFL maintains a written Code of Ethics. The Code of Ethics sets forth standards of conduct expected of advisory personnel; requires compliance with Federal securities laws; and, addresses conflicts that arise from personal trading by advisory personnel. Clients are welcome to request a copy of the Code of Ethics for review at any time by contacting their IA Rep.
10.	Conditions for Managing Accounts RFL sets the initial minimum account size under the RFL Advisor Program at $50,000. RFL may waive this minimum in its sole discretion; however in no case will the initial minimum account size be below $25,000.

1. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in Item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: R.F. Lafferty & Co., Inc.		IRS Empl. Ident. No.: 13-3000887
Item of Form (Identify)	Answer
12.A	Limited Discretionary Authority and Brokerage Recommendation RFL does not have discretion as to the securities to be bought or sold, the amount of the securities, or the broker/dealer. The RFL Advisor Program provides for RFL (and RBC acting on its behalf) only the “limited” discretionary authority to rebalance the account if the client selects “automatic rebalancing.” The client may elect to being alerted by RFL when rebalancing is recommended, in which case there will be no discretionary authority. RFL will not have authority to withdraw funds or to take custody of client funds or securities, other than under the terms of the Fee Payment Authorization clause in the Advisor Program Agreement. RFL does not vote proxies. It is the client’s responsibility to vote proxies.
12.B	Because IA Reps are registered representatives with RFL, if clients freely choose to implement advice through us, the broker/dealer is RFL.
13.A	Additional Compensation Received RFL may exercise agreements with other Registered Investment Advisors and recommend other Advisors to clients. RFL may offer Resource II and/or Total Strategy sponsored by RBC. In such instances, RFL may receive a portion of the account fee or commissions. In these instances, we will make available to the client a "Compensation Disclosure Statement" and the Form ADV for the other Advisor. The client is under no obligation to use the services of the other Advisor(s) recommended. In instances of a “wrap fee” program, clients will receive a Schedule H wrap fee brochure in lieu of the Form ADV part II disclosures. The regulatory Schedule H filing of the brochure is prepared by the outside money manager. RFL in its capacity as a broker/dealer may receive incentive awards from mutual fund companies. All allowable compensation is disclosed in the mutual fund prospectus. Commission rates are set by each fund, and clients do not pay up for the additional compensation. Applicant may also receive additional compensation on stocks, bonds, partnerships, and insurance, as may be applicable in the normal course of running a securities brokerage business. Advice offered by IA Reps in their capacity as RRs of RFL or agents of insurance companies, may involve investments in mutual funds, variable insurance or variable annuities, which pay commissions (including 12(b)-1 fee “trails” or other compensation) from the respective product sponsor. All allowable compensation is disclosed in the prospectus.
