Item 1

Advisory Services and Fees

CONCERT Wealth Management, Inc. provides (1) financial planning and other consulting services; (2) discretionary management advisory services; (3) non-discretionary advisory services; and (4) advice regarding other investment management firms.

Financial Planning and Other Consulting Services

CONCERT Wealth Management (CWM) may provide Financial Planning Services to some of its clients. The advisor's Financial Planning services may include recommendations for portfolio customization based on the client's investment objectives, goals and financial situation. Financial Planning Services may also include recommendations relating to investment strategies as well as tailored investment advice. The fixed fee for comprehensive financial planning services is $1500-$2500 per plan as contracted for with client in advance and may be negotiated in advance based at the discretion of the advisor and dependent on the complexity of the plan. For clients retaining CWM to also manage investment accounts as discussed below, CWM does not typically charge a separate fee for the financial planning process.

Some clients will contract to have investment advisory advice and/or financial planning advice provided based on an hourly fee rather than based on the assets under management. The advisors hourly fee will be billed at a rate of $250 to $400 per hour for professional time, but may be negotiated in advance. Hourly fee-based clients are billed on a monthly basis upon completion of work performed.

CONCERT Wealth Management also provides consulting and expert witness services to parties involved in litigation and to their legal counsel. Such services include, but are not limited to, advice regarding property settlements and divorce proceedings

Asset Management Services and Fees: Discretionary Accounts

Pursuant to an investment advisory contract signed by each client, the Management Fee is payable in advance at the beginning of each quarter and based on the amount of the assets under management at the end of the previous quarter. Example: For the quarter beginning April 1st, the fees are calculated based on the assets under management at the close of market on March 31st. The quarterly fee calculation is based on the annual fee rate as follows: Assets Under Management x (1/4) Annual Fee Rate. The deducted fees will be itemized on the custodial statement.

Current Fee Schedule
Aggregate Assets	Annual Fee
of the first $499,999	3.00%
from $500,000-749,999	2.50%
from $750,000-999,999	2.00%
$1,000,000 and above	1.50 %

Fees other than the Current Fee Schedule (above) may be negotiated by the advisor, at the sole discretion of the advisor. As an exception, the Client may pay a flat rate or hourly fee for Advisory services with consent of the Advisor and notification of the Principal. Commission based fees may exist within special circumstances and only where approved by both the Principle and the Chief Compliance Officer and may not be offered without their prior approval. CWM considers commission based fees to have an inherent conflict of interest, and as such, the circumstances for commission based fees will require documentation and frequent review of transactions to ensure fiduciary prudence. Comparison to fees on similarly advised accounts will be made available for regulatory review.

Termination and Reimbursement

A Client may terminate their account within five (5) days of signing the Client Agreement without penalty, or thereafter by providing a thirty (30) day notice to the Firm. When provided a 30-day notice, the Termination Date will be determined as 30 days after the date the notice is received (not sent). The Client will be entitled to a pro rata reimbursement of any prepaid quarterly fees which will be based upon the number of days remaining in the quarter (RDQ) after the Termination Date against the total number of days in the quarter (TDQ) as follows: $RDQ/TDQ \times FEE = \text{Reimbursement}$. A detail of the reimbursement calculations and a request for comments and feedback of the Firms' services will be provided in an "Account Closure and Exit Interview".

Additional Expenses to be Aware of

All fees paid to CONCERT Wealth Management (CWM) for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by mutual funds to their shareholders and the product sponsor in the case of variable insurance products. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's or variable product's prospectus and may include a management fee, distribution fee or other fund expenses.

If the sponsor also imposes sales charges, a Client may pay an initial or deferred sale or surrender charge. A client could invest in these products directly, without the services of CWM.

Asset Management Services and Fees: Nondiscretionary Accounts

CONCERT Wealth Management (CWM) may also provide nondiscretionary investment management advice regarding the investment of assets in a client's investment account. In such case, the Client is responsible for making investment decisions, but may receive advice from CWM regarding those decisions. The fees for each nondiscretionary account are typically charged based on an annual percentage of assets under management; However at the Client's discretion and approval of CWM Principal and Compliance Officer.

Sub-Advised Accounts:

CONCERT Wealth Management (CWM) may also utilize sub-advisers to manage one or more of a Client's investment accounts. The sub-adviser may be retained by CWM on a discretionary basis, or by the client. CWM receives a fee as described under asset management services and fees, and the client pays directly the fees charged by the sub-adviser as set forth in a written agreement between the Client and sub-adviser. Other fee deduction arrangements may be made; However any sub-advisor agreements will be fully disclosed to the client.

CONCERT Wealth Management believes that its fees are competitive with fees charged by other investment advisers for comparable services; However, comparable services may be available from other sources for fees lower than those charged by CONCERT Wealth Management.

Item 5

Education and Business Standards:

CONCERT Wealth Management requires that persons providing investment advice should be an Investment Advisor Representative with the equivalent of a Series 65 or Series 7 and Series 66 license, and have a bachelor's degree or equivalent of 3 to 5 years business experience.

Other Business Activities & Other Financial Industry Activities or Affiliations

CONCERT Wealth Management, Inc. is a subsidiary of CONCERT Global Group Ltd. ("CONCERT Global"). On occasion, CONCERT Wealth Management may refer clients to CONCERT Real Estate Advisors, also a subsidiary of CONCERT Global. Any compensation earned by this affiliate will be separate, yet typical compensation, relating to the purchase or investment counseling of real estate transactions. CONCERT Global also owns CONCERT Business Consulting and may cross refer clients between CONCERT Wealth Management and Business Consulting. This is a potential conflict of interest because there is an incentive to refer clients to an affiliate. CONCERT Global also owns CONCERT Advisor services, which handles transitioning individuals from a broker dealer sponsored platform to an independent investment advisory model. CONCERT Wealth Management has an affiliated investment adviser, CONCERT Private Wealth Advisor Solutions LLC, that currently provides similar services as CONCERT Wealth Management.

Certain associated persons of CONCERT Wealth Management are also registered securities representatives of Financial Advisers of America, a registered broker-dealer member of FINRA. Neither of these firms are affiliated with CONCERT Wealth Management. In this capacity these associated persons of CONCERT Wealth Management may recommend securities, or other products, and receive normal securities transactions commissions if products are purchased through any firms with which these associated persons are affiliated. Thus, a conflict of interest exists between the interests of associated persons and those of the advisory clients. However, clients are under no obligation to act upon any recommendations of the associated persons or effect any transactions through the associated persons if they decide to follow the recommendations.

Associated persons who are properly licensed may also be insurance agents/brokers of various insurance companies. In these capacities associated persons of the Adviser may receive insurance commissions if insurance products are purchased through the associated persons. Thus, a conflict of interest exists between the interests of associated persons and those of the advisory clients. However, clients are under no obligation to act upon any recommendations of the associated persons or effect any transactions through the associated persons if they decide to follow the recommendations.

Participation or Interest In Client Transactions

CONCERT Wealth Management Inc. and/or its advisory representatives may from time to time purchase or sell products that they may recommend to clients. CONCERT Wealth Management has adopted a Code of Ethics that sets forth the basic policies of ethical conduct for all managers, officers, and employees of the adviser. In addition, the Code of Ethics governs personal trading of each employee deemed to be an Access Person and is intended to ensure that securities transactions effected by Access Persons of CONCERT Wealth Management are conducted in a manner that avoids any actual or potential conflict of interest between such persons and clients of the adviser or its affiliates. CONCERT Wealth Management collects and maintains records of securities holdings and securities transactions effected by Access Persons. These records are reviewed to identify and resolve potential conflicts of interest. CONCERT Wealth Management's Code of Ethics is available upon request.

In their capacity as registered representatives, associates of the Adviser may receive payments from certain mutual funds distributed pursuant to a 12b-1 distribution plan or other such plans as compensation for administrative services, representing a separate financial interest. As such, a conflict of interest may exist with respect to recommendations to buy or sell securities. In all cases, transactions are effected in the best interests of the client. The Adviser does not permit insider trading and has implemented procedures to ensure that its policy regarding insider trading is being observed by these associated persons.

However, these purchases or sales may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, or limitations previously set forth by the client and agreed to by CWM. Discretionary authority will only be authorized upon full disclosure to the client. The granting of such authority will be evidenced by the client's execution of an Investment Advisory Agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority. All discretionary trades made by CWM will be in accordance with each client's investment objectives and goals. Best Execution CONCERT Wealth Management (CWM) has a fiduciary duty to seek best execution for client transactions. While best execution is difficult to define and challenging to measure, there is some consensus that it does not solely mean the achievement of the best price on a given transaction. In selecting a broker-dealer for any transaction or series of transactions, CWM may consider a number of factors including: 1) the broker's capital depth, 2) the broker's market access, 3) the broker's transaction confirmation and account statement practices, 4) our knowledge of negotiated commission rates and spreads currently made available, 5) the nature and character of the markets for the security to be purchased or sold, 6) the desired timing of the transaction, 7) the execution, 8) clearance and settlement capabilities of the broker selected and others considered, 9) our knowledge of any actual or apparent operational problems of a broker, 10) offering to CONCERT Wealth Management online access to computerized data regarding clients' accounts and 11) the reasonableness of the commission or its equivalent for the specific transaction. Based on the above criteria, CONCERT Wealth Management Inc. may not necessarily pay the lowest commission as specific transactions may involve specialized services on the part of the broker. This would justify higher commissions (or their equivalent) than other transactions requiring routine services. If CONCERT Wealth Management is directed by the client to direct trades to a specific broker-dealer other than the custodian typically used by CONCERT Wealth Management Inc. for trade execution, it is disclosed that CONCERT Wealth Management's ability to negotiate commissions (where applicable), obtain volume discounts, or otherwise obtain best execution may not be as favorable as might otherwise be obtained.

	Order Aggregation CONCERT Wealth Management Inc. may combine orders into block trades when more than one account is participating in the trade. Block trading is performed when it is consistent with the duty to seek best execution and is consistent with the terms of CONCERT Wealth Management's investment advisory agreements. Equity trades are blocked based upon fairness to client, both in the participation of their account, and in the allocation of orders for the accounts of more than one client. Allocations of all orders are performed in a timely and efficient manner. All managed accounts participating in a block execution receive the same execution price (average share price) for the securities purchased or sold in a trading day. Any portion of an order that remains unfilled at the end of a given day will be rewritten on the following day as a new order with a new daily average price to be determined at the end of the following day. Due to the low liquidity of certain securities, broker availability may be limited. Open orders are worked until they are completely filled, which may span the course of several days. If an order is filled in its entirety, securities purchased in the aggregated transaction will be allocated among the accounts participating in the trade in accordance with the allocation statement. If an order is partially filled, the securities will be allocated pro rata based on the allocation statement. CONCERT Wealth Management may allocate trades in a different manner than indicated on the allocation statement (non-pro rata) only if all managed accounts receive fair and equitable treatment.
Item 12A(3)&(4)	Investment or Brokerage Discretion CONCERT Wealth Management has discretionary authority to select the broker or dealer for custodial and execution services. CONCERT Wealth Management has established custodial relationships with various custodians including Schwab Institutional, Fidelity Investments, Broadcort and American Funds. Client may also request a particular custodian, but should understand that setting up any new relationship may involve contractual and technical constraints. While a fiduciary, CONCERT Wealth Management endeavors to act in its clients' best interests and CONCERT Wealth Management's recommendations that Clients maintain their assets in accounts at the directed Custodian or Broker/Dealer may be based in part on the benefit to CONCERT Wealth Management of the availability of some of the products and services and not solely based on the nature, cost or quality of custody and brokerage services, which may create a potential conflict of interest. Some of these products and services (which may include software/technology that provide access to client account data; facilitate trade execution; provide research, pricing and other market information; facilitate payment of advisory fees from its clients' accounts; and assist with recordkeeping and back office functions) assist in managing and administering CONCERT Wealth Managements Clients' account regardless of the Custodian or Broker/Dealer utilized.
Item 12B	Brokerage Discretion Where CONCERT Wealth Management does not exercise brokerage discretion, it may recommend brokers to clients for execution and/or custodial services where requested by the client. CONCERT Wealth Management may recommend brokers based on criteria such as, but not limited to, reasonableness of commissions charged to the client, services made available to the client, and location of broker offices. Clients are not obligated to use the recommended broker and will not incur any extra fee or cost associated with using a broker not recommended by CONCERT Wealth Management. Associated persons in their capacity as registered representatives of Financial Advisers of America may suggest that clients implement recommendations through Financial Advisers of America. If the client so elects, associated persons would receive normal and customary commissions as sales agents resulting from any securities transactions, presenting associated persons with a conflict of interest. Furthermore, in implementing a plan through relationships maintained by associated persons, clients may pay commissions or fees that are higher or lower than those that may be obtained from elsewhere for similar services. Clients are advised that they are under no obligation to implement the plan or its recommendations through the associated persons in their capacities as registered representatives.

Item 13A

Additional Compensation

CONCERT Wealth Management (CWM) is independently owned and operated and is not affiliated any Custodian or Broker-Dealer. CWM may recommend various custodians such as Charles Schwab & Co (Schwab), Pershing, or Fidelity to maintain custody of Clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. Although CWM may provide custodial recommendations, it is the Clients' decision to custody assets with any custodian. Such custodians may provide access to its institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to retail investors.

For example, services are generally available to independent investment advisors on an unsolicited basis, at no extra charge to them so long as a total of at least $10 million of the advisor's clients' assets are maintained in accounts at Schwab. These services are not contingent upon CWM committing to Schwab any specific amount of business. Schwab's brokerage services include the execution of securities transactions, custody, research, and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.

Custodians generally do not charge separately for custody services but are compensated by account holders through commissions and other transaction-related or asset-based fees for securities trades that are executed through the custodian or that settle into the custodians' accounts. Custodians also make available to CWM other products and services that benefit the firm, but may not directly benefit the clients' accounts.

For example, Schwab products and services that assist CWM in managing and administering clients' accounts include software and other technology that (i) provide access to client account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements); (ii) facilitate trade execution and allocate aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts; (iii) provide research, pricing and other market data; (iv) facilitate payment of Investment Advisory fees from its clients' accounts; and (v) assist with back office-functions, recordkeeping and client reporting.

Client Benefit Agreement

Investment Advisor Representatives may be provided financial assistance for start up costs by Myriad Financial Inc. ("Myriad"). While Myriad is owned separately from CONCERT Global, some partial owners and members of the CONCERT group that are also partial owners of Myriad. Clients should be aware that CONCERT Wealth Management receives economic assistance from Schwab Advisor Services to use towards services received from Myriad by terms of a Client Benefit Agreement between Charles Schwab & Co., Inc.'s Advisor Services division and CONCERT Wealth Management, Inc.; and that a conflict of interest exists wherein such benefit would influence the decision to choose Schwab for custodial services.

Proxy Voting

The Client clearly keeps the authority and responsibility for the voting of proxies for securities held in Client's accounts. CONCERT Wealth Management does not vote proxy. The Client and CONCERT Wealth Management agree to this by contract. For accounts subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), the plan fiduciary specifically keeps the authority and responsibility for the voting of any proxies for securities held in plan accounts. Also, CONCERT Wealth Management cannot give any advice or take action with respect to the voting of these proxies.
