Advice and services are tailored to the stated objectives of the Client(s). Except as otherwise instructed, Client grants Advisor ongoing and continuous discretionary authority to execute its investment recommendations in accordance with Advisor's Statement of Investment Policy (or similar document used to establish Client's objectives and suitability), without the Client's prior approval of each specific transaction. Under this authority, Client shall allow Advisor to purchase and sell securities and instruments in this account, arrange for delivery and payment in connection with the foregoing, select and retain sub-advisors, and act on behalf of the Client in most matters necessary or incidental to the handling of the account, including monitoring certain assets. Unless specifically directed otherwise in writing by the Client, Advisor is not authorized to receive and vote proxies on issues held in the account or receive annual reports. All transactions in the account shall be made in accordance with the directions and preferences provided to the Advisor by the Client. Client will execute instructions regarding Advisor's trading authority as required by each custodian. In some circumstances, Client grants Advisor non-discretionary authority to execute its investment recommendations in accordance with Advisor's Statement of Investment Policy (or similar document used to establish Client's objectives and suitability). Non-discretionary authority requires the Advisor to obtain Client's prior approval of each specific transaction prior to executing investment recommendations, as well as for the selection and retention of sub-advisors to the account. Compensation to Advisor for its services will be calculated in accordance with "Schedule A" of the Investment Advisory Agreement, which may be amended from time to time by Advisor upon 30 days prior written notice to Client. Such fees may be paid directly to Advisor from the account by the custodian upon submission of an invoice to custodian showing the amount of fees, the value of the Client's assets on which the fees are based, and the specific manner in which the fees are calculated. Payment of fees may result in the liquidation of Client's securities if there is insufficient cash in the account. Copies of the fee invoices will be mailed to Client as required. Client may be required to pay, in addition to the Advisor's fee, a proportionate share of any mutual fund's fees and charges. In consideration for the Advisor's services, the Client will pay the Advisor a fee quarterly in advance, with payment due within 10 days from the date of the invoice. The fee will be equal to the agreed upon rate per annum, times the market value of the account, divided by the number of days in the agreed upon year and multiplied by the number of days in the quarter. 1. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in Item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: Hines & Warner Wealth Management, LLC		IRS Empl. Ident. No.:
Item of Form (identify)	Answer
12(A)(B)	Advisor or individuals associated with Advisor may buy and sell some of the same securities for its own account that Advisor buys and sells for its Clients. In all instances, where appropriate the Advisor will purchase a security for all of its existing accounts for which the investment is appropriate before purchasing any of the securities for his own account and, likewise, when it determines that securities should be sold, where appropriate will cause these securities to be sold from all of its advisory accounts prior to permitting the selling of the securities from its accounts. In some cases Advisor may buy or sell securities for its own account for reasons not related to the strategies adopted by the Advisor's Clients. When the Advisor is newly engaged by an investment advisory Client for whom it expects to recommend securities in which Advisor or its principal holds a position, Advisor will notify the new Client of its policies in respect to officers trading for their own account. Advisor may execute transactions with broker-dealers that pay a portion of 12b-1 fees to Advisor's principals. This interest conflicts with the Clients' interest of obtaining the lowest commission rate available. Therefore, Advisor must determine in good faith, based on the "best execution" policy stated below that such commissions are reasonable in relation to the value of the services provided by such executing broker-dealers. Advisor will disclose to advisory Clients any material conflict of interest relating to Advisor, its representatives, or any of its employees which could reasonably be expected to impair the rendering of unbiased and objective advice. Advisor has a Code of Ethics which all employees are required to follow. The Code of Ethics outlines proper conduct related to all services provided to Clients. Prompt reporting of internal violations is mandatory. The Advisor's chief compliance officer regularly evaluates employee performance to ensure compliance with the code of ethics. A copy of the code of ethics is available to any client or prospective client upon request.
	INVESTMENT OR BROKERAGE DISCRETION
	Generally, the Advisor has the authority to determine, without obtaining specific Client consent, the securities bought or sold and the amount of securities bought or sold and commission rates paid. The only restrictions on the above discretionary authority are those set by the Client on a case by case basis. The Advisor makes it a practice to question Clients to determine if there are any limitations to the Advisor's discretionary authority on the above matters.
	Except to the extent that the Client directs otherwise, the Advisor may use its discretion in selecting or recommending the broker-dealer. 13A	the following restrictions in order to ensure its fiduciary responsibilities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A director, officer, associated person, or employee of Advisor shall not buy or sell securities for his personal portfolio where his decision is substantially derived, in whole or in part, by reason of his employment unless the information is also available to the investing public or reasonable inquiry. No person of Advisor shall prefer his or her own interest to that of the advisory Client. 2. Advisor maintains a list of all securities holdings for itself and anyone associated with its advisory practice with access to advisory recommendations. These holdings are reviewed on a regular basis by an appropriate officer of Advisor. 3. If Advisor receives separate compensation for effecting transactions on the Client's behalf such compensation arrangements will be fully disclosed to Client. 4. Advisor emphasizes the unrestricted right of the Client to select and choose any broker or dealer, and/or insurance company he/she wishes. 5. Advisor requires that all individuals must act in accordance with all applicable federal and state regulations governing registered investment advisory practices. 6. Any individual not in observance of the above may be subject to termination. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION Additionally, Advisor may execute transactions with broker-dealers that provide research, seminars and execution services. Subject to Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Exchange Act"), Advisor may pay broker-dealer commissions for agency transactions that are in excess of the amount of commissions charged by other broker-dealers in recognition of their research, seminar and execution services. But for soft dollar arrangements, Advisor would have to obtain the aforementioned services and products for cash. As a result of receiving such products and services for no cost, Advisor may have an incentive to continue to place Client trades through broker-dealers that offer soft dollar arrangements. This interest conflicts with the Clients' interest of obtaining the lowest commission rate available. Therefore, Advisor must determine in good faith, based on the "best execution" policy stated above that such commissions are reasonable in relation to the value of the services provided by such executing broker-dealers.
