	Clients participating in the RUMA will establish an account at either TD Ameritrade or Penson Financial Services, Inc., an SEC-registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA (the Custodian). Based on the individual needs and circumstances of the client, Adviser will determine the allocation of the account among the Program Managers. Each Program Manager will have discretion to select the investments, to designate the strategies, and to buy, sell or otherwise effect transactions for the portion of the account allocated to such Program Manager. On a continuous basis, Adviser will monitor the performance of the account, will hire and fire the Program Managers, and allocate and reallocate the account among the Program Managers, according to the individual needs and circumstances of the Client. Adviser will have full discretion to allocate and reallocate the account, to increase or decrease the portion of the account allocated to each Program Manager, and to hire new Program Managers and fire existing Program Managers. Advisers decisions with respect to the Program Managers will be based, in part, on Advisers evaluation of the investment styles, strategies, risks, and potential benefits of each Program Manager. Adviser will not provide advice regarding specific investments for a RUMA account, and will not manage or effect purchases, sales, or other transactions for an account; provided, Adviser will have the authority and discretion to manage the account upon the occurrence of one or more of the following Limited Events: (i) a transfer of assets other than cash into the account, in which event Adviser shall have authority and discretion to liquidate such assets to cash, and (ii) in the event a Program Manager ceases to act as manager for the account, in which event Adviser shall have authority and discretion to manage account investments not allocated to an existing Program Manager until a new Program Manager is retained. In managing the account assets, Adviser is specifically permitted to retain all or part of the existing investments or to liquidate such investments, in Advisers discretion. At or before entering into the Agreement, Clients will receive a copy of the Form ADV Part II or other disclosure documents adopted by each Program Manager under SEC Rule 204-3 (the Manager Disclosure Document). The Representative will be available to discuss the Manager Disclosure Documents and answer questions the Client may have regarding the RUMA and Program Managers. If requested by Adviser or a Program Manager, Client will enter into a separate advisory agreement with a Program Manager. Upon the addition of a new Program Manager for an account, the Representative will provide the Client with the new Manager Disclosure Document. Because the Program managers may change from time to time, Clients and prospective Clients should consult directly with their Representative to discuss the current Program Managers. 4.	The RUMA Agreement may be terminated by either party at any time without penalty upon written notice to the other party. Such termination shall not, however, affect liabilities or obligations incurred or arising from transactions initiated under the RUMA Agreement prior to such termination, including the provisions regarding arbitration, which shall survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement. Upon termination, Client shall have the exclusive responsibility to monitor the securities in the account, and neither Adviser nor the Program managers shall have any further obligation to act or advise with respect to those assets. If Client terminates the RUMA Agreement within five days of its signing, Client shall receive a full refund of all fees and expenses. If the RUMA Agreement is terminated after five business days of its signing, any prepaid fees shall be prorated and the unused portion shall be returned to Client. Upon termination of the Agreement, the account will be charged any introducing or clearing broker's customary fees and commissions, and the Custodian's fees for services provided with expenses payable upon termination of the Agreement may be described in the Manager Disclosure Documents. BOND ASSET ALLOCATION PROGRAM (BTS Asset Management, Inc.) The Bond Asset Allocation Program is designed to achieve equity-like returns with bond-like risk and has a minimum investment time horizon of 3 years or more. The portfolio consists of mutual funds representing three fixed-income sectors: money market, government bond, and high yield bond. Assets are allocated among these three sectors seeking the best performance based on the current market environment. The portfolio is managed by BTS Asset Management, Inc. ("BTS"), an investment adviser registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and located in Lexington, Massachusetts. The Registrant and BTS have entered into a sub-investment advisory agreement under which the Registrant delegates to BTS its discretionary authority under the Client Agreement to make investment decisions on behalf of the client. Such delegated authority continues in force until revoked by the Registrant or the client in writing. In exchange for the services provided by BTS, BTS is paid an annual fee (no more than 1.25%) of the combined assets under management of all Registrant's clients with accounts managed by BTS. Bond Asset Allocation Program clients pay advisory fees according to the following annual fee schedule: <table border="0"> <thead> <tr> <th>Assets Under Management</th><th>Annual Management Fee</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>First < $100,000</td><td>2.50%</td></tr> <tr> <td>Next $100,000 to $249,000</td><td>2.15%</td></tr> </tbody> </table>	Assets Under Management	Annual Management Fee	First < $100,000	2.50%	Next $100,000 to $249,000	2.15%

5.	FINANCIAL PLANNING SERVICES Certain Representatives provide financial planning services on Adviser's behalf. Clients seeking financial planning services will enter into an Agreement which describes the services the Representative will provide on Adviser's behalf, and the Fees for such services. In providing financial planning services, the Representative will typically ask the Client to provide detailed information with respect to the Client's personal and family situation, financial condition, investment objectives, risk tolerance, investment time horizon, estate and retirement plans, trust agreements, wills, investment, insurance, personal and family obligations, and other pertinent information. Based on this information, the Representative will prepare a written financial plan which will include recommendations to assist the Client in achieving his or her financial goals and objectives, such as obtaining insurance or revising existing coverage, establishing an individual retirement account, increasing or decreasing funds held in savings accounts, or investing in securities. Financial planning services will usually address a broad range of financial issues. However, when appropriate, the Representative may agree to provide specific, limited financial planning services, such as the following: PERSONAL: Family records, budgeting, personal liability, estate information and financial goals. TAX & CASH FLOW: Income tax and spending analysis and planning for past, current and future years. The Representative will illustrate the impact of various investments on a Client's current income tax and future tax liability. DEATH & DISABILITY: Cash needs at death, income needs of surviving dependents, estate planning and disability income analysis. RETIREMENT: Analysis of current strategies and investment plans to help achieve retirement goals. PUBLIC BENEFITS PLANNING: Analysis of current strategies related to Medicare, Medicaid and long-term care planning. INVESTMENTS: Analysis of investment alternatives and their effect on a Client's portfolio.

6.	Clients who receive financial planning services may choose to implement their financial plans by purchasing securities or insurance products offered through a Representative who is also a registered representative of an independent broker-dealer (a "Broker-Dealer") or is an appointed agent of an independent insurance carrier (an "Insurance-Carrier"). In those circumstances, the Representative will be acting as the Broker-Dealer's representative or the Insurance-Carrier agent, and the Broker-Dealer or Insurance Carrier and the Representative will receive commissions or other compensation (including 12b-1 fees, as described below) as a result of those investments. Consequently, Clients should be aware that in those situations, there exists a conflict between the interests of the Client and the interests of the Representative as a result of the potential additional compensation to be earned the Client chooses to purchase securities or insurance products. Clients are under no obligation to purchase any products or follow any course of action recommended by a Representative. Each Representative establishes the fee schedule for financial planning services he or she provides. The fee schedule will be provided to the Client before entering into an Agreement. Financial planning services may be charged on an hourly or fixed fee arrangement. Hourly rates vary between $150 to $450 per hour. Fees are negotiable and will vary depending upon the particular Representative who provides the services, the complexity of the Client situation and services to be provided, prior or anticipated relationships, as well as the size of the Client's assets, and the possibility for additional business, as determined by the Representative within his or her discretion. All financial planning arrangements must be approved by Adviser. Similar financial planning services may be available elsewhere at lower cost to the Client. Financial planning services terminate upon completion of the services described in a financial planning Agreement. A Client may terminate a financial planning Agreement at any time, and will receive a prorated refund of the Fee based on the proportion of the total services that the Representative has performed through the date Adviser receives written notice of such termination. GENERAL INFORMATION CONCERNING FEES AND ADVISORY ACCOUNTS Possibility of Lower Fees: Clients should be aware that lower fees for comparable services may be available from other advisers. Negotiability of Fees: In certain circumstances, Adviser may agree to negotiate its fees. Adviser may charge different fees to Clients receiving the same services. The Fees described in this Brochure represent Adviser's basic Fees charged to Clients absent negotiable circumstances. Fees are negotiated on a case-by-case basis, depending on a variety of factors, including the nature and complexity of the particular service, the availability of qualified personnel, the Clients's relationship with the firm, the size of the account, and the potential for other business or Clients, among other factors. Direct Debiting of Fees: The RUMA Agreement will provide that the Custodian will pay the Fees immediately upon the Custodian's receipt of Adviser's (or a Program Manager's) invoice, without further inquiry and without prior notice to or consent of the Client. All account assets, transactions, and Fees will be shown on the monthly or quarterly account statements provided by the Custodian.

7.	Other Fees and Charges: In addition to Fees, the Client will be responsible for any other fees and charges as described in the Agreement, as well as any other fees and charges described in the this Brochure, and in any agreement with the Custodian or other third parties. Mutual Funds Fees and Expenses: If the Client's account is invested in mutual funds (including money market funds and exchange-traded funds ("ETFs")), the Fees paid to Adviser will be separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by the mutual funds and ETFs to their shareholders. Additionally, mutual funds may impose a contingent deferred sales charge ("CDSC") if shares are sold within a short time period, usually within 30, 60 or 90 days from the date of purchase. The CDSC is generally one percent. Mutual funds and ETFs will also charge a management fee, transactions costs, and a possible distribution or service fee made pursuant to a plan adopted under SEC Rule 12b-1 (a "12b-1 Fee"). Mutual funds and ETF fees and expenses are described in each fund's and ETF's prospectus or summary disclosure. A Client could invest in mutual funds and ETFs directly, without the services of an Adviser, a Representative, or a Program Manager. In that case, the Client would not receive the services provided by the Adviser, the Representative, and the Program Manager which are designed, among other things, to identify mutual funds or ETFs which are more appropriate in light of the Client's objectives, needs, and circumstances. Accordingly, Clients should review the fee charged by the funds and ETFs in which their accounts are invested in evaluating the costs of the services being provided. Fees and Commissions for Custodial and Brokerage Services: Fees charged by the Custodian, and fees and commissions charged by exchanges, electronic communications networks, introducing and executing brokers, and other trading intermediaries will be paid by Client and will be in addition to the fees owed to Adviser. Trade Errors: On infrequent occasions, an error may be made in a Client account. For example, a security may be erroneously purchased for a Client account instead of sold. In these situations, if Adviser was responsible for such error, the Adviser's policy is to restore or return the account to the position it would have been in had the trading error not occurred. Depending on the circumstances, various corrective steps may be taken, including but not limited to, cancelling the trade, adjusting an allocation, or reimbursing the account. Each Program Manager may establish its own separate policies and procedures with respect to trade errors for which it is responsible. TYPES OF INVESTMENTS In connection with providing financial planning services, or in connection with explaining RUMA to Clients and prospective Clients (or assisting Clients in funding their RUMA account), Adviser may provide advice with respect to exchange-listed or over-the-counter equity securities, warrants, corporate debt securities, mutual funds, ETFs, US Government securities, and options. However, Adviser will not provide advice regarding specific investments to be made in a RUMA account, and will not manage or have discretionary authority to affect a purchase, sale, or other transaction for a RUMA account, except upon the occurrence of a Limited Event, as described above.

16.	However, in directing the use of Custodian and/or TOS-BD, as brokers for the account, it should be understood that neither Adviser nor any Program Manager will negotiate commissions or obtain volume discounts among various brokers, and best prices and lowest commissions may not be obtained for transactions place through Custodian and/or TOS-BD. Similarly, the Program Managers will not aggregate Client orders with orders for other clients not participating in RUMA, and will not aggregate Client orders with orders for the portions of the RUMA accounts managed by other Program Managers, and as a result, the accounts will not receive the benefits of block orders and a disparity in commission charges may exist between the commissions charged to Clients and the Program Managers non-RUMA clients. Lower costs for comparable services may be available through other broker-dealers or custodians. Not all advisers require clients to designate the use of a particular broker. Clients should refer to the discussion below under Additional Compensation for further information with respect to conflicts of interest involving Adviser, Custodian, and TOS-BD. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION Custodian and TOS-BDs business consists primarily of orders placed electronically. In the RUMA Agreement, the Client will direct the Program Managers to place all orders with TD Ameritrade or TOS-BD, as introducing broker-dealer, and Custodian, as clearing broker-dealer. Custodian and/or TOS-BD will receive commissions and other economic benefits as a result of effecting such transactions. For its brokerage and related services, Custodian may charge commissions, mark-ups, mark-downs, and other transaction-related charges, and may also charge a fee for its services as custodian. The amount of such fees and expenses will be stated in the Custodian's documentation to open the account. Adviser and the Representatives (including Adviser principal officers) may receive 12b-1 Fees as a result of an accounts investment in funds which have adopted 12b-1 plans. Thus, Adviser and the Representatives may have an incentive to recommend to financial planning Clients that they invest in funds which pay 12b-1 Fees or to select Program Managers who purchase for RUMA accounts funds or fund families which pay 12b-1 Fees. Adviser and the Representatives will endeavor to act in the best interests of the Client, but the presence of such compensation creates an economic incentive that may influence their decisions. Some of the Representatives are also registered as representatives of independent broker-dealers (each a Broker-Dealer). Adviser and the Broker-Dealers are not affiliated companies.

17.	Because a Representative may provide investment advisory services on behalf of Adviser and provide brokerage services on behalf of a Broker-Dealer, it is important for Clients to understand which products and services are being provided by each company. Investment advisory services provided for RUMA accounts are provided by Adviser or by the Representatives acting on behalf of Adviser, or by a Program Manager. Financial planning services provided pursuant to a financial planning Agreement are also provided by Adviser or by a Representative acting on behalf of Adviser. Clients who receive financial planning services may choose to implement their financial plans by purchasing securities or insurance products offered through a Representative who is a registered representative of a Broker-Dealer. When implementing recommendations in a financial plan, the Representative will be acting as the representative of a Broker-Dealer, and will not be acting on behalf of Adviser. The Broker-Dealers and the Representatives may be entitled to compensation based on insurance or securities transactions they effect for financial planning Clients, which will be in addition to the compensation payable under the Client's financial planning Agreement. The Representatives will endeavor to act in the best interests of the Client, but the presence of such compensation creates an economic incentive that may influence their decisions. Clients are under no obligation to purchase any products or follow any course of action recommended by a Representative. Redhawk Wealth Advisors investment advisor representatives, as an outside business activity, may offer to sell precious metals to advisory clients as agents for Royal Metals Group, LLC ("RMG"). RMG is a precious metals distributor that focuses on offering agent-based sales of precious metals based on their underlying commodity value. These services are separate and distinct from the advisory services of Redhawk Wealth Advisors and are provided for separate and distinct compensation. No Redhawk Wealth Advisors client is obligated to purchase precious metals through RMG. REFERRAL ARRANGEMENTS Adviser may enter into arrangements with one or more third parties (each a Rep Recruiter) whereby the Rep Recruiter will refer prospective Representatives to Adviser, and in return, if the prospective Representative registers as a Representative and has clients who participate in RUMA, Adviser will pay the Rep Recruiter an annual referral fee based on the value of RUMA accounts for Clients of the referred Representative. Adviser may also enter into arrangements with independent investment advisers, broker-dealers, or their representatives whereby Adviser will pay an annual referral fee for each Client referred by such adviser, broker-dealer, or representatives. Adviser is aware of the special considerations promulgated pursuant to Rule 206(4)-3 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and any comparable state regulations. Although the Rep Recruiter will not typically engage in solicitation activities with respect to any particular Client or prospective Client (and would, therefore, not be considered to be a solicitor under such rules), if the Rep Recruiter does engage in solicitation activities with a Client or prospective Client, the Rep Recruiter shall conform to the requirements applicable to Advisors other solicitors with respect to such solicitation activities.

18.	The amount (or range of amounts) of referral fees will be disclosed to the Client or prospective Client in the Solicitor Disclosure Document. The Fee paid by a Client who participates in RUMA and is referred by a Representative who was referred by a Rep Recruiter, or by an independent adviser, broker-dealer, or representative may be higher (by the amount Adviser pays in referral fees) than the Fee the Client would have been charged if the Representative or the Client had not been so referred. A Solicitor's Disclosure Document will be provided to each Client who is solicited, and the Firm will retain the clients signed acknowledgement of receiving this Brochure, the Managers Disclosure Documents, and the Solicitors Disclosure Document. OTHER MATTERS: Proxy Voting: Neither Adviser nor any Program Manager will vote or accept authority to vote proxies on behalf of its Clients. Clients retain the responsibility for receiving and voting proxies for any and all securities maintained in Client accounts. However, Adviser or a Program Manager may, in their discretion, provide advice to Clients regarding the voting of proxies. Class Actions, Bankruptcies and Other Legal Proceedings: Clients should note that neither Adviser nor any Program Manager will advise or act on behalf of the Client in legal proceedings involving companies whose securities are held or previously were held in the Client's account(s), including, but not limited to, the filing of "Proofs of Claim" in class action settlements. If desired, Clients may direct Adviser to transmit copies of class action notices to the Client or a third party. Upon such direction, Adviser will make commercially reasonable efforts to forward such notices in a timely manner. Suitability of Investments: A transactions suitability for the Client shall be determined as of the date the transaction was executed for the Clients account. All transactions effected for the Clients account will be deemed to be suitable in light of the Clients financial situation, investment objectives, risk tolerance, and investment time horizon, unless written notice to the contrary is received by the Adviser within 10 business days following the Clients receipt of the Custodians statement reflecting such transactions. Conflict Between Brochure and Agreement: In the event of any discrepancy or conflict between the information contained in this Brochure and the Agreement, the Agreement shall control. Use of Term "Registered Investment Adviser": Clients should be aware that the term Registered Investment Adviser does not imply any certain level of skill or training. Short-term Gains and Losses for Tax Purposes: Clients should note that if a Program Manager affects short-term transactions on behalf of Client accounts, such transactions may result in short-term gains or losses for federal and state tax purposes. Clients should review the treatment of such tax consequences with his or her accountant or tax counsel.
