Item 1.D	Klein Financial Corp. (the “Registrant”) is an investment adviser providing financial planning, business consulting, and investment management services to individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations and business entities. The Registrant, depending upon the engagement, offers its services on a fee basis which may include hourly and/or fixed fees as well as fees based upon assets under management. Alternatively, certain of the Registrant’s Advisory Affiliates may offer securities brokerage services and insurance products under a commission arrangement, which may be used to offset the Registrant’s fees (as discussed below). Prior to engaging the Registrant to provide any of the foregoing investment advisory services, the client will be required to enter into one or more written agreements with the Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions under which the Registrant shall render its services (collectively the “Agreement”). The Registrant may provide its clients with a broad range of comprehensive financial planning and consulting services (which may include non-investment related matters). The Registrant will charge a fixed fee and/or hourly fee for these services. The Registrant’s financial planning and consulting fees are negotiable, but generally range from $1,500 to $25,000 on a fixed fee basis and/or from $100 to $250 on an hourly rate basis, depending upon the level and scope of the services and the professional rendering the financial planning and/or the consulting services. If the client engages the Registrant for additional investment advisory services, the Registrant may offset all or a portion of its fees for those services based upon the amount paid for the financial planning and/or consulting services. Prior to engaging the Registrant to provide financial planning and/or consulting services, the client will generally be required to enter into a written agreement with the Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions of the engagement and describing the scope of the services to be provided and the portion of the fee that is due from the client prior to the Registrant commencing services. Generally, the Registrant requires one-half of the financial planning / consulting fee (estimated hourly or fixed) payable upon entering the written agreement. The balance is generally due upon delivery of the financial plan or completion of the agreed upon services. Either party may terminate the agreement by written notice to the other. In the event the client terminates the Registrant’s financial planning and/or consulting services, the balance of the Registrant’s unearned fees (if any) shall be refunded to the client. If termination occurs within five business days of entering into an agreement for such services the client shall be entitled to a full refund. In performing its services, the Registrant shall not be required to verify any information received from the client or from the client’s other professionals (e.g., attorney, accountant, etc.) and is expressly authorized to rely on such information. The Registrant may recommend the services of itself, its Advisory Affiliates in their individual capacities as registered representatives of a broker-dealer, and/or other professionals to implement its recommendations. Financial institutions shall include, but are not limited to, Pershing, any other broker-dealer recommended by the Registrant, broker-dealer directed by the client, trust companies, banks etc. (collectively referred to herein as the "Financial Institution(s)"). Clients may incur certain charges imposed by the Financial Institution(s) and other third parties such as fees charged by Independent Managers (as defined below), custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund or exchange traded fund in the account, which shall be disclosed in the fund's prospectus (e.g., fund management fees and other fund expenses), deferred sales charges, oddlot differentials, transfer taxes, wire transfer and electronic fund fees, and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. The client assets shall be maintained at either the specific insurance company that issued the variable life/annuity product which is owned by the client, or at the custodian designated by the sponsor of the client's retirement plan. The client may make additions to and withdrawals from the account at any time, subject to the Registrant's right to terminate an account. If assets are deposited into an account after the inception of a quarter that exceed $100,000, the fee payable with respect to such assets will be prorated based on the number of days remaining in the quarter. Clients may withdraw account assets on notice to the Registrant, subject to the usual and customary securities settlement procedures. For partial withdrawals in excess of $100,000 within a billing period, the Registrant shall credit its unearned fee towards the next quarter's fee. However, the Registrant designs its portfolios as long-term investments and assets withdrawals may impair the achievement of a client's investment objectives. For the initial quarter of investment management services, the first quarter's fees shall be calculated on a pro rata basis. The Registrant may consult with its clients about the options and ramifications of transferring securities. However, clients are advised that when transferred securities are liquidated, they are subject to transaction fees, fees assessed at the mutual fund level (i.e. contingent deferred sales charge) and/or tax ramifications. The Registrant's clients are advised to promptly notify the Registrant if there are ever any changes in their financial situation or investment objectives or if they wish to impose any reasonable restrictions upon the Registrant's management services. Neither the Registrant nor the client may assign the Agreement without the consent of the other party. Transactions that do not result in a change of actual control or management of the Registrant shall not be considered an assignment. A copy of the Registrant's privacy policy notice and a written disclosure statement that meets the requirements of Rule 204-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended ("Advisers Act"), shall be provided to each client prior to or contemporaneously with the execution of the Agreement. Any client who has not received a copy of the Registrant's written disclosure statement at least fortyeight (48) hours prior to executing the Agreement shall have five (5) business days

Item 3.L & 4.C(7)	As further discussed in the response to Item 1D (above), the Registrant may recommend that clients authorize the active discretionary management of a portion of their assets by and/or among certain Independent Manager(s) , based upon the stated investment objectives of the client. The Registrant shall continue to render services to the client relative to the discretionary selection of Independent Manager(s) as well as the monitoring and review of account performance and client investment objectives.

Certain of the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates , in their individual capacities, are also licensed insurance agents with various insurance companies, and in such capacity, may recommend, on a fully disclosed commission basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. While the Registrant does not sell such insurance products to its investment advisory clients, the Registrant does permit its Advisory Affiliates , in their individual capacities as licensed insurance agents, to sell insurance products to its investment advisory clients. Item 7.A & 7.B (Continued)	where the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates receive insurance commissions or other additional compensation.
Item 7.B, 9.B & 13.A	In the event the client desires, the client can engage certain persons associated with the Registrant (but not the Registrant) to render securities brokerage services under a commission arrangement. Under this arrangement, the client may implement securities transactions through certain of the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates (as defined below), in their respective individual capacities as registered representatives of P.J. Robb Inc., an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of the FINRA. Brokerage commissions may be charged by P.J. Robb Inc. to effect these securities transactions and thereafter, a portion of these commissions may be paid by P.J. Robb Inc. to such Advisory Affiliates. Prior to effecting any transactions, the client will be required to enter into a new account agreement with P.J. Robb Inc. The brokerage commissions charged by P.J. Robb Inc. may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. In addition, certain of the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates (as applicable), may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 fees for mutual fund purchases from the mutual fund company during the period that the client maintains the mutual fund investment. While the Registrant does not sell such securities products to its investment advisory clients, the Registrant does permit its Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities as registered representatives of P.J. Robb Inc., to sell securities products to its investment advisory clients. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Registrant recommends the purchase of securities where the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates receive commissions or other additional compensation as a result of the Registrant's recommendations. For accounts covered by ERISA (and such others that the Registrant, in its sole discretion deems appropriate), the Registrant may modify the foregoing commission arrangement to allow for its investment advisory services to be rendered on a fee-offset basis. In this scenario, the Registrant may offset its fees by an amount equal to the aggregate commissions and 12b-1 fees earned by the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates in their individual capacities as registered representatives of P.J. Robb Inc.
Item 9.E	The Registrant and persons associated with the Registrant ("Associated Persons") are permitted to buy or sell securities that it also recommends to clients consistent with the Registrant's policies and procedures. The Registrant has adopted a code of ethics that sets forth the standards of conduct expected of its associated persons and requires compliance with applicable securities laws ("Code of Ethics"). Similarly, when the Registrant is selling or considering the sale of any security on behalf of a client, no Access Person may effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the sale or until a decision has been made not to sell such security. These requirements are not applicable to: (i) direct obligations of the Government of the United States; (ii) money market instruments, bankers' acceptances, bank certificates of deposit, commercial paper, repurchase agreements and other high quality short-term debt instruments, including repurchase agreements; (iii) shares issued by mutual funds or money market funds; and (iv) shares issued by unit investment trusts that are invested exclusively in one or more mutual funds.
Item 10.	The Registrant does not impose a minimum portfolio size or minimum annual fee. In such instances, the Registrant may alter its corresponding account requirements and/or billing practices to accommodate those of the Independent Manager(s) or wrap fee program sponsor.
Item 11.A	For those clients to whom the Registrant provides investment management services, the Registrant monitors those portfolios as part of an ongoing process while regular account reviews are conducted on at least a quarterly basis. For those clients to whom the Registrant provides financial planning and/or consulting services, reviews are conducted on an "as needed" basis. Such reviews are conducted by the Principal of the Registrant, Tibor Klein. All investment advisory clients are encouraged to discuss their needs, goals, and objectives with the Registrant and to keep the Registrant informed of any changes thereto. The Registrant shall contact ongoing investment advisory clients at least annually to review its previous services and/or recommendations and to discuss the impact resulting from any changes in the client's financial situation and/or investment objectives.
Item 11.B	Unless otherwise agreed upon, clients are provided with transaction confirmation notices and regular summary account statements directly from the broker-dealer or custodian for the client accounts. The commissions and/or transaction fees charged by Pershing may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. The commissions paid by the Registrant's clients shall comply with the Registrant's duty to obtain "best execution." However, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where the Registrant determines, in good faith, that the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including among others, the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Consistent with the foregoing, while the Registrant will seek competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client transactions. If the client requests the Registrant to arrange for the execution of securities brokerage transactions for the client's account, the Registrant shall direct such transactions through broker-dealers that the Registrant reasonably believes will provide best execution. Transactions may be cleared through other broker-dealers with whom the Registrant and the Financial Institution(s) have entered into agreements for prime brokerage clearing services. The Registrant shall periodically and systematically review its policies and procedures regarding recommending broker-dealers to its client in light of its duty to obtain best execution.

Item 12.A, 12.B & 13.A (Continued)	The client may direct the Registrant in writing to use a particular broker-dealer to execute some or all transactions for the client. In that case, the client will negotiate terms and arrangements for the account with that broker-dealer, and the Registrant will not seek better execution services or prices from other broker-dealers or be able to “batch” client transactions for execution through other brokerdealers with orders for other accounts managed by the Registrant (as described below). As a result, the client may pay higher commissions or other transaction costs or greater spreads, or receive less favorable net prices, on transactions for the account than would otherwise be the case. Subject to its duty of best execution, the Registrant may decline a client’s request to direct brokerage if, in the Registrant’s sole discretion, such directed brokerage arrangements would result in additional operational difficulties or violate restrictions imposed by other broker-dealers (as further discussed below). Transactions for each client generally will be effected independently, unless the Registrant decides to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. The Registrant may (but is not obligated to) combine or “batch” such orders to obtain best execution, to negotiate more favorable commission rates, or to allocate equitably among the Registrant’s clients differences in prices and commissions or other transaction costs that might have been obtained had such orders been placed independently. Under this procedure, transactions will generally be averaged as to price and allocated among the Registrant’s clients pro rata to the purchase and sale orders placed for each client on any given day. To the extent that the Registrant determines to aggregate client orders for the purchase or sale of securities, including securities in which the Registrant’s Advisory Affiliate(s) may invest, the Registrant shall generally do so in accordance with applicable rules promulgated under the Advisers Act and no-action guidance provided by the staff of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Registrant shall not receive any additional compensation or remuneration as a result of the aggregation. In the event that the Registrant determines that a prorated allocation is not appropriate under the particular circumstances, the allocation will be made based upon other relevant factors, which may include: (i) when only a small percentage of the order is executed, shares may be allocated to the account with the smallest order or the smallest position or to an account that is out of line with respect to security or sector weightings relative to other portfolios, with similar mandates; (ii) allocations may be given to one account when one account has limitations in its investment guidelines which prohibit it from purchasing other securities which are expected to produce similar investment results and can be purchased by other accounts; (iii) if an account reaches an investment guideline limit and cannot participate in an allocation, shares may be reallocated to other accounts (this may be due to unforeseen changes in an account’s assets after an order is placed); (iv) with respect to sale allocations, allocations may be given to accounts low in cash; (v) in cases when a pro rata allocation of a potential execution would result in a de minimis allocation in one or more accounts, the Registrant may exclude the account(s) from the allocation; the transactions may be executed on a pro rata basis among the remaining accounts; or

Item 12.A, 12.B & 13.A (Continued)	(vi) in cases where a small proportion of an order is executed in all accounts, shares may be allocated to one or more accounts on a random basis. Consistent with obtaining best execution, brokerage transactions may be directed to certain brokerdealers in return for investment research products and/or services which assist the Registrant in its investment decision-making process. Such research generally will be used to service all of the Registrant's clients, but brokerage commissions paid by one client may be used to pay for research that is not used in managing that client's portfolio. The receipt of investment research products and/or services as well as the allocation of the benefit of such investment research products and/or services poses a conflict of interest. As discussed above, certain Advisory Affiliates in their respective individual capacities, are registered representatives of P.J. Robb Inc. These Advisory Affiliates are subject to FINRA Rule 3040 which restricts registered representatives from conducting securities transactions away from their broker-dealer unless P.J. Robb Inc. provides written consent. Therefore, clients are advised that certain Advisory Affiliates may be restricted to conducting securities transactions through P.J. Robb Inc. unless they first secure written consent from P.J. Robb Inc. to execute securities transactions through a different broker-dealer. Absent such written consent or separation from P.J. Robb Inc., these Advisory Affiliates are prohibited from executing securities transactions through any broker-dealer other than P.J. Robb Inc. under P.J. The Registrant may receive the software and related support without cost because the Registrant renders investment management services to clients that maintain assets at Pershing. The software and related systems support may benefit the Registrant, but not its clients directly. In fulfilling its duties to its clients, the Registrant endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the Registrant's receipt of economic benefits from a broker-dealer creates a conflict of interest since these benefits may influence the Registrant's choice of broker-dealer over another broker-dealer that does not furnish similar software, systems support, or services. Additionally, the Registrant may receive the following benefits from Pershing through its Pershing Advisor Solutions division: receipt of duplicate client confirmations and bundled duplicate statements; access to a trading desk that exclusively services its Pershing Advisor Solutions participants; access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions and then allocate the appropriate shares to client accounts; and access to an electronic communication network for client order entry and account information.

(for sponsors of wrap fee programs)

Name of wrap fee program or programs described in attached brochure:

Klein Financial Wrap Program

- 1. Applicability of Schedule. This Schedule must be completed by applicants that are compensated under a wrap fee program for sponsoring, organizing, or administering the program, or for selecting, or providing advice to clients regarding the selection of, other investment advisers in the program ("sponsors"). A wrap fee program is any program under which a specified fee or fees not based directly upon transactions in a client's account is charged for investment advisory services (which may include portfolio management or advice concerning the selection of other investment advisers) and execution of client transactions.
- 2. Use of Schedule. This Schedule sets forth the information the sponsor must include in the wrap fee brochure it is required to deliver or offer to deliver to clients and prospective clients of its wrap fee programs under Rule 204-3 under the federal Advisers Act and similar rules of the jurisdictions. The wrap fee brochure prepared in response to this Schedule must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions as part of Form ADV by completing the identifying information on this Schedule and attaching the brochure. Brochures should be prepared separately, not on copies of this Schedule. Any wrap fee brochure filed with the Commission as part of an amendment to Form ADV shall contain in the upper right hand corner of the cover page the sponsor's registration number (801-).
- 3. General Contents of Brochure. Unlike Parts I and II of this form, this Schedule is not organized in "check-the-box" format. These instructions, including the requests for information in Item 7 below, should not be repeated in the brochure. Rather, this Schedule describes minimum disclosures that must be made in the brochure to satisfy the sponsor's duty to disclose all material facts about the sponsor and its wrap fee programs. Nothing in this Schedule relieves the sponsor from any obligation under any provision of the federal Advisers Act or rules thereunder, or other federal or state law to disclose information to its advisory clients or prospective advisory clients not specifically required by this Schedule.
- 4. Multiple Sponsors. If two or more persons fall within the definition of "sponsor" in Item 1 above for a single wrap fee program, only one such sponsor need complete the Schedule. The sponsors may choose among themselves the sponsor that will complete the Schedule.
- 5. Omission of Inapplicable Information. Any information not specifically required by this Schedule that is included in the brochure should be applicable to clients and prospective clients of the sponsor's wrap fee programs. If the sponsor is required to complete this Schedule with respect to more than one wrap fee program, the sponsor may omit from the brochure furnished to clients and prospective clients of any wrap fee program or programs information required by this Schedule that is not applicable to clients or prospective clients of that wrap fee program or programs. If a sponsor of more than one wrap fee program prepares separate wrap fee brochures for clients of different programs, each brochure prepared must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions attached to a separate copy of this Schedule. Each such brochure must state that the sponsor sponsors other wrap fee programs and state how brochures for those programs may be obtained.
- 6. Updating. Sponsors are required to file an amendment to the brochure promptly after any information in the brochure becomes materially inaccurate. Amendments may be made by use of a "sticker," i.e., a supplement affixed to the brochure that indicates what information is being added or updated and states the new or revised information, as long as the resulting brochure is readable. Stickers should be dated and should be incorporated into the text of the brochure when the brochure itself is revised.
- 7. Contents of Brochure. Include in the brochure prepared in response to this Schedule:

 - (a) on the cover page, the sponsor's name, address, telephone number, and the following legend in bold type or some other prominent fashion:
This brochure provides clients with information about Klein Financial Corp. and the Klein Financial Wrap Program that should be considered before becoming a client of the Klein Financial Wrap Program. This information has not been approved or verified by any governmental authority.
 - (b) a table of contents reflecting the subject headings in the sponsor's brochure;
 - (c) the amount of the wrap fee charged for each program or, if fees vary according to a schedule established by the sponsor, a table setting forth the fee schedule, whether such fees are negotiable, the portion of the total fee (or the range of such amounts) paid to persons providing advice to clients regarding the purchase or sale of specific securities under the program ("portfolio managers"), and the services provided under each program (including the types of portfolio management services);

- (d) a statement that the program may cost the client more or less than purchasing such services separately and a statement of the factors that bear upon the relative cost of the program (e.g., the cost of the services if provided separately and the trading activity in the client's account);
- (e) if applicable, a statement that the person recommending the program to the client receives compensation as a result of the client's participation in the program, that the amount of this compensation may be more than what the person would receive if the client participated in other programs of the sponsor or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage, and other services, and that the person may therefore have a financial incentive to recommend the wrap fee program over other programs or services;
- (f) a description of the nature of any fees that the client may pay in addition to the wrap fee and the circumstances under which these fees may be paid (including, if applicable, mutual fund expenses and mark-ups, mark-downs or spreads paid to market makers from whom securities were obtained by the wrap fee broker);
- (g) how the program's portfolio managers are selected and reviewed, the basis upon which portfolio managers are recommended or chosen for particular clients, and the circumstances under which the sponsor will replace or recommend the replacement of the portfolio manager;
- (h)
 - (1) if applicable, a statement to the effect that portfolio manager performance information is not reviewed by the sponsor or a third party and/or that performance information is not calculated on a uniform and consistent basis,
 - (2) if performance information is reviewed to determine its accuracy, the name of the party who review the information and a brief description of the nature of the review,
 - (3) a reference to any standards (i.e., industry standards or standards used solely by the sponsor) under which performance information may be calculated;
- (i) a description of the information about the client that is communicated by the sponsor to the client's portfolio manager, and how often or under what circumstances the sponsor provides updated information about the client to the portfolio manager.
- (j) any restrictions on the ability of clients to contact and consult with portfolio managers;
- (k) in narrative text, the information required by Items 7 and 8 of Part II of this form and, as applicable to clients of the wrap fee program, the information required by Items 2, 5, 6, 9A and C, 10, 11, 13 and 14 of Part II;
- (l) if any practice or relationship disclosed in response to Item 7, 8, 9A, 9C and 13 of Part II presents a conflict between the interests of the sponsor and those of its clients, explain the nature of any such conflict of interest; and
- (m) if the sponsor or its divisions or employees covered under the same investment adviser registration as the sponsor act as portfolio managers for a wrap fee program described in the brochure, a brief, general description of the investments and investment strategies utilized by those portfolio managers.

8. Organization and Cross References. Except for the cover page requirements in Item 7(a) above, information contained in the brochure need not follow the order of the items listed in Item 7. However, the brochure should not be organized in such a manner that important information called for by the form is obscured.

Program Description

KFC's Wrap Program has been designed to help meet KFC's client's financial circumstances and investment objectives.

KFC Services

KFC's Wrap Program Accounts. KFC's Wrap Assets will be managed by KFC on a discretionary basis. KFC will review the Wrap Assets on a regular and continuous basis and make recommendations as KFC deems appropriate. KFC typically recommends equities, ETF's, ETN's, fixed income securities, options, and some open and closed end mutual funds that are appropriate given the client's financial circumstances and investment goals for the Wrap Program Accounts, but may also recommend other securities or money management programs from time to time. KFC selects mutual funds for inclusion in its recommended list of funds based on style, past performance, experience and track records of fund managers, and risk ratings as established by independent rating services. KFC's recommendations of other securities will be based on the client's particular needs and KFC's independent review of the appropriateness of the securities to assist the client to meet those needs.

Wrap Program Accounts that are managed on a discretionary basis do allow KFC to implement recommendations without the client's prior approval. KFC will act as the Client's agent to implement such recommendation without Client's instructions. The client agrees to review trade confirmations received from the client's custodian and notify KFC immediately of any errors.

Brokerage and Custody of Program Accounts

KFC will direct transactions for Wrap Program Accounts to such broker-dealers as they may select, unless the client gives specific directions otherwise. In directing or recommending brokerage, KFC seeks "best execution" for client accounts, which is a combination of a number of judgmental factors including price, execution quality and client needs. Recognizing the value of these judgmental factors, brokers selected or recommended may charge commissions that are higher than the lowest commissions that might otherwise be available.

KFC has a relationship with Pershing, LLC through Pershing Investment Manager Services ("Pershing"), registered broker-dealers with FINRA/SIPC. Pershing is an unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer and FINRA member. This firm will provide custody and execution services in accordance with the terms set forth in your agreement. KFC reasonably believes that in the case of managed accounts, Pershing's commission and transaction costs, as well as professionalism, allow KFC to seek best execution and competitive prices.

Program Fees

The annual Program Fees payable to KFC is as follows:

FEE SCHEDULE: Wrap Portfolio Management

The annual fee shall vary (between 0.25% and 2.00%) depending upon the market value of the assets under management and the type of investment management services to be rendered.

What costs are covered by the Program Fees? The Program Fees pay for KFC's Advisory services to clients under the Program and transaction fees of the Program.

What costs are not covered by the Program Fees? The Program Fees do not cover brokerage fees to the extent trades are conducted through brokers or dealers other than Pershing and custody charges. Finally, the Program Fees do not include expenses of mutual funds that may be included in the client's portfolio.

How are fees charged? The Registrant's annual fee shall be prorated and charged quarterly, in advance, based upon the market value of the average daily balance for the previous billing period. The first Advisory fee is based on the value of the account on the first day of management by KFC and is payable upon execution of the agreement. The first Advisory fee will be assessed on pro-rata basis taking into account the time for which the account was not managed by KFC and the time left in the quarter.

Fees may be negotiable. The Client's fees will take into account the aggregate number of portfolios under management with KFC. Fees will be automatically deducted from the account. Clients will be provided with at least a quarterly statement from account custodian reflecting deduction of the Advisory fee.

Is there a minimum fee and are fees negotiable? KFC does not impose a minimum portfolio size or minimum annual fee.

Additional Information about Program Fees. KFC generally does not offer the services provided under the Program separately. However, clients may be able to purchase services similar to those offered under the Program from other service providers either separately or as part of a similar wrap fee program. These services or programs may cost more or less than the Program, depending on the fees charged by such other service providers. KFC discloses that it may utilize various firms for the execution of securities transactions and to custody assets. In certain cases, KFC may recommend that clients execute transactions through unaffiliated broker-dealers further described in Item 12(B) of Schedule F. In any event, Client is under no obligation to act upon KFC's recommendations and if the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations, the Client is under no obligation to effect the transaction through KFC, or any of the unaffiliated broker-dealers listed in Item 12(B) of Schedule F.

This account is a wrap account, the Client will not incur transaction charges imposed by unaffiliated third parties. The Client may pay custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund, index fund, or exchange traded fund which shall be disclosed in the funds prospectus (i.e., fund management fees and other fund expenses), wire transfer fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions.

The Agreement between KFC and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. The KFC's annual fee shall be prorated through the date of termination and any remaining balance shall be charged or refunded to the client, as appropriate, in a timely manner.

As further discussed above in response to Item 1D (above), the Registrant may provide its clients with a broad range of comprehensive financial planning and/or consulting services (which may include non-investment related matters). The Registrant may charge a separate fee for these services which shall be agreed upon prior to rendering the services. Certain of the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities, are also licensed insurance agents with various insurance companies, and in such capacity, may recommend, on a fully disclosed commission basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. While the Registrant does not sell such insurance products to its investment advisory clients, the Registrant does permit its Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities as licensed insurance agents, to sell insurance products to its investment advisory clients. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Registrant recommends the purchase of insurance products where the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates receive insurance commissions or other additional compensation.

In the event the client desires, the client can engage certain persons associated with the Registrant (but not the Registrant) to render securities brokerage services under a commission arrangement. Under this arrangement, the client may implement securities transactions through certain of the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates (as defined below), in their respective individual capacities as registered representatives of P.J. Robb Inc., an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of the FINRA. Brokerage commissions may be charged by P.J. Robb Inc. to effect these securities transactions and thereafter, a portion of these commissions may be paid by P.J. Robb Inc. to such Advisory Affiliates.

Prior to effecting any transactions, the client will be required to enter into a new account agreement with P.J. Robb Inc. The brokerage commissions charged by P.J. Robb Inc. may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. In addition, certain of the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates (as applicable), may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 fees for mutual fund purchases from the mutual fund company during the period that the client maintains the mutual fund investment. While the Registrant does not sell such securities products to its investment advisory clients, the Registrant does permit its Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities as registered representatives of P.J. Robb Inc., to sell securities products to its investment advisory clients. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Registrant recommends the purchase of securities where the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates receive commissions or other additional compensation as a result of the Registrant's recommendations. For accounts covered by ERISA (and such others that the Registrant, in its sole discretion deems appropriate), the Registrant may modify the foregoing commission arrangement to allow for its investment advisory services to be rendered on a fee-offset basis. In this scenario, the Registrant may offset its fees by an amount equal to the aggregate commissions and 12b-1 fees earned by the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates in their individual capacities as registered representatives of P.J. Robb Inc.
