| Item 1.D. | ADVISORY SERVICES AND FEES Marsh Asset Management, LLC (hereinafter "MAM" or the "Firm") offers investment advisory services to individuals, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations, and other business entities. The Firm's services and fee arrangements are described in the following pages. MAM is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the state of Florida. This Schedule F narrative provides Clients with information regarding MAM and the qualifications, business practices, and nature of advisory services that should be considered before becoming an advisory Client of MAM. Please contact Suzanne D. Marsh, Managing Member/Chief Compliance Officer, if you have any questions about this Schedule F narrative. Additional information about MAM is available on the Internet at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. You can search this site by a unique identifying number, known as a CRD number. The CRD number for MAM is 151206. Financial Planning Services The Firm offers broad-based, modular, and consultative financial planning services. Broad-based financial planning services will typically involve providing a variety of services, principally advisory in nature, to Clients regarding the management of their financial resources based upon an analysis of their individual needs. An Investment Adviser Representative (IAR) of the Firm will first conduct a complimentary initial consultation. After the initial consultation, if the Client decides to engage the Firm for financial planning services, an IAR will conduct a follow up meeting, or series of meetings and discussions, during which pertinent information about the Client's financial circumstances and objectives is collected. Once such information has been reviewed and analyzed, a written financial plan – designed to achieve the Clients' stated financial goals and objectives – will be produced and presented to the Client. The primary objective of this process is to allow the Firm to assist the Client in developing a strategy for the successful management of income, assets and liabilities in meeting the Client's financial goals and objectives. For Clients who only require advice on a single aspect of their finances, the Firm offers modular financial planning/general consulting services. The Firm charges an hourly fee of $400 per hour for Financial Planning Services. The total fee to the Client will be based on the estimated number of hours to complete the services and will take into consideration the complexity and scope of the plan. An estimate of the total time/cost will be determined at the start of the advisory relationship. In limited circumstances the cost/time could potentially exceed the initial estimate. In such cases, the Firm will notify the Client and may request that the Client approve the additional fee. The Firm requires that 50% of the fee be paid in advance, with the remaining portion due upon completion of the services rendered. Under no circumstances will the Firm require prepayment of a fee more than six months in advance and in excess of $500. Financial plans are based on the Client's financial situation at the time the plan is presented and on financial information provided by the Client to the Firm. Clients are advised that certain assumptions may be made with respect to interest and inflation rates and use of past trends and performance of the market and economy. Past performance is in no way an indication of future performance. The Firm cannot offer any guarantees or promises that the Client's financial goals and objectives will be met. As the Client's financial situation, goals, objectives, or needs change, the Client must notify the Firm promptly. |

After this five-day period, either party may terminate the agreement upon written notice to the other party. Any pre-paid unearned fees will be refunded to Client on a pro rata basis. The Client will incur a pro rata charge for financial planning and/or consulting services rendered prior to such termination. Portfolio Management Services The Firm provides discretionary and non-discretionary portfolio management services where the investment advice provided is tailored to meet the needs and investment objectives of the Client. Subject to any written guidelines, which the Client may provide, the Firm will be granted discretion and authority to manage the account. Accordingly, the Firm is authorized to perform various functions, at the Client's expense, without further approval from the Client. Such functions include the determination of securities and amount of securities to be purchased/sold, the broker/dealer to be used, and the commission rate to be paid. Once the portfolio is constructed, the Firm provides ongoing supervision and rebalancing of the portfolio as changes in market conditions and Client circumstances may require. Where the Firm enters into non-discretionary arrangements with Clients, the Firm will obtain Client approval prior to the execution of transactions. The Firm charges an annualized fee of 2% of the value of assets under management for Portfolio Management Services. Fees are billed and payable quarterly in advance based on the value of the Client's account on the last day of the previous quarter. Fees will be assessed pro rata in the event the portfolio management agreement is executed at any time other than the first day of a calendar quarter. The Firm requires a minimum account size of $100,000 to open and maintain a portfolio management account. In its sole discretion, the Firm may waive or lower such minimum. Also at its discretion, the Firm may allow accounts of members of the same household to be aggregated for purposes of meeting the account minimum. The Firm may allow such aggregation, for example, where the Firm services accounts on behalf of minor children of current Clients, individual and joint accounts for a spouse, and other types of related accounts. Payment of advisory fees will be made by the qualified custodian holding the Client's funds and securities provided that the following requirements are met: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Client provides written authorization permitting the fees to be paid directly from the Client's account held by the custodian. The Firm does not have access to Client funds for payment of fees without Client consent in writing.• The Firm sends the Client an invoice showing the amount of the fee, the value of the assets on which the fee is based, and the specific manner in which the fee was calculated.• The custodian agrees to send the client a statement, at least quarterly, indicating all amounts dispersed from the account including the amount of the advisory fee paid directly to the Firm. The Client is encouraged to review all account statements for accuracy. The Firm will have access to a duplicate copy of the statement delivered to the Client. |

Item 1.D.

The Client may terminate the agreement within five business days of the date of acceptance without penalty. After this five-day period, either party may terminate the agreement upon 30-day written notice to the other party. Any pre-paid unearned fees will be refunded to Client on a pro rata basis. The Client will incur a pro rata charge for services rendered prior to such termination.

Selection of Other Advisers

The Firm may recommend that Clients utilize the services of a third party investment adviser ("TPA") to manage a portion of, or their entire portfolio. After gathering information about the Client's financial situation and objectives, an IAR of the Firm will make recommendations regarding the suitability of a TPA or investment program based on, but not limited to, performance, methods of analysis and fees of the TPA, the Client's financial needs, investment goals, tolerance for risk, and investment objectives. The Firm will periodically monitor the performance of the TPA(s) to ensure their performance and investment style remains aligned with the investment goals and objectives of the Client.

The Firm may share in the advisory fees charged by the TPA. Fees paid by the Client to the TPA are established and payable in accordance with the Form ADV Part II or other equivalent disclosure document provided by each TPA to whom the Client is referred and these fees may or may not be negotiable. Such compensation may differ depending upon the individual agreement the Firm has with each TPA. As such, the Firm or its IARs may have an incentive to recommend one TPA over another TPA with whom it has less favorable compensation arrangements or other advisory programs offered by TPAs with which it has no compensation arrangements. In addition, if the investment program recommended to a Client is a wrap fee program, the Client will also receive the Schedule H or equivalent wrap fee brochure provided by the sponsor of the program.

Clients may be required to sign an agreement directly with the TPA(s) selected. The Client, the Firm or the TPA, in accordance with the provisions of those agreements, may terminate the advisory relationship. If the TPA is compensated in advance, the Client will typically receive a pro rata refund of any prepaid advisory fees upon termination of an advisory agreement.

General Information on Advisory Services and Fees

MAM does not represent, warrant, or imply that the services or methods of analysis employed by the Firm can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate Clients from losses due to market corrections or declines.

Advice offered by MAM may involve investments in mutual funds, exchange traded funds, and other investment products that charge additional fees. Clients are hereby advised that all fees paid to MAM for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds (described in each fund's prospectus) to their shareholders. These fees will generally include a management fee and other fund expenses. MAM's fees are also separate and distinct from fees charged by exchange traded funds and other investment products. Further, there may be transaction charges involved with purchasing or selling of securities. MAM does not share in any portion of the custodial fees/brokerage fees/transaction charges imposed by the custodian holding the Client funds or securities. The Client should review all fees charged by mutual funds, MAM, and others to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the Client.

| Item 10. | CONDITIONS FOR MANAGING ACCOUNTS The Firm requires a minimum account size of $100,000 to open and maintain a portfolio management account. In its sole discretion, the Firm may waive or lower such minimum. | |
| Item 11.A. | REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS Suzanne D. Marsh, Managing Member of MAM, will monitor portfolio management accounts on an ongoing basis. Formal reviews will be conducted on a semi-annual or annual basis. Triggering factors that may stimulate additional reviews include, but are not limited to, life changing events, change in employment status, changes in a Client's investment objectives, income and cash flows, family status, disposition of assets, gifts or inheritances and health status. Clients are responsible for informing MAM of such triggering factors. | |
| Item 11.B. | REPORTS TO CLIENTS Clients will receive reports from their account custodian(s) at least quarterly. | |
| Item 13.A. | ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION Suzanne D. Marsh is a licensed insurance agent and can effect transactions in insurance products and earn commissions for these activities. MAM expects that Clients to whom it offers advisory services may also be Clients for whom Ms. Marsh acts as an insurance agent. Clients are instructed that the fees paid to the firm for advisory services are separate and distinct from the commissions earned by Ms. Marsh for placing the Client in insurance products. Clients to whom the firm offers advisory services are informed that they are under no obligation to use Ms. Marsh for insurance services and may use the insurance brokerage firm and agent of their choosing. | |
