Before selecting other advisers, Advisor makes sure that the other advisers are properly licensed or registered as an investment adviser.

The third party money managers' annual investment advisory fee shall be pro-rated and paid quarterly, in advance or arrears. The percentage (%) portion of the fee shall be based upon the market value of the assets on the last day of the previous quarter. These third party money managers may, in their sole discretion, charge a lesser annual advisory fee based upon certain criteria (i.e. anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, type of services required, account composition, negotiations with client, etc).

Advisor shall generally recommend that investment management accounts be maintained at the third party money manager's place of business or another unaffiliated service provider. Factors which Advisor considers in recommending a third party money manager (or any other investment adviser or other broker-dealer/custodian) to clients include their respective financial strength, reputation, execution, pricing, reporting, research, and service. Prior to Advisor referring clients to third party money managers for investment management services, the client will be required to sign a Solicitation Disclosure Statement setting forth the percentage of the client's overall advisory fee to be paid to Advisor, that they understand Advisor is being paid a fee to refer the client to third party money managers and whether the client's fee will be increased as a result of the solicitation fee paid to Advisor.

Financial Planning and Financial Consulting Services

BHWM will typically provide a variety of financial planning services, pursuant to a written Agreement, to individuals, families and other clients regarding the management of their financial resources based upon an analysis of client's current situation, goals, and objectives. Generally, such financial planning services will involve preparing a financial plan or rendering a financial consultation for clients based on the client's financial goals and objectives. This planning or consulting may encompass one or more of the following areas: investment planning, retirement planning, estate planning, charitable planning, education planning, and business planning.

The plan developed for or financial consultation rendered to the client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the clients. For example, recommendations may be made that the clients begin or revise investment programs, create or revise wills or trusts, obtain or revise insurance coverage, commence or alter retirement savings, or establish education or charitable giving programs. BHWM may also refer clients to an accountant, attorney or other specialist. consultations are typically completed within six months of contract date, assuming all information and documents requested are provided promptly.

FEE SCHEDULE: Financial Planning/Financial Consulting Services

Advisor offers financial planning services on an hourly basis for $300 per hour, which may be negotiable depending on the nature and complexity of each client's circumstances. An estimate for total hours will be determined at the start of the advisory relationship.

The Advisor's fee is exclusive of, and in addition to brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses which shall be incurred by the client. However, the Advisor shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. The hourly fees are determined after considering many factors, such as the level and scope of the services.

The Advisor may also charge a negotiable fixed fee ranging from $1,000 to $19,000 for a financial plan, the total of which is dependent upon the level and scope of these services. One half of the total estimated fixed and hourly fees are due and payable at the time the client's agreement is executed, the remainder of the fees are due upon presentation of a plan or the rendering of consulting services. Financial plans will be presented to the clients within 6 months of the contract date, provided that all information needed to prepare the financial plan has been promptly provided by the clients.

As stated previously, the hourly rate is $300 per hour. In the event that a client should cancel the financial planning agreement under which any plan is being created, the client shall be billed for actual hours logged on the planning project times the agreed upon hourly rate. Any surplus in the Advisor's possession as the result of collecting a deposit at the time of signing the financial planning agreement will be returned to the client within 5 business days of cancellation.

Either party may terminate the agreement at anytime by providing written notice to the other party within five (5) days of signing the Advisor's financial planning agreement. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION CONCERNING FEES

In certain circumstances, advisory fees and account minimums may be negotiable based upon prior relationships as well as related account holdings. The fees charged are calculated as described above and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds of an advisory client.

3) Advisor recognizes it must act in accordance with all applicable Federal and State regulations governing registered investment advisory practices.

Footnotes

(1) This investment policy has been established recognizing that some securities being considered for purchase and sale on behalf of Advisor's clients trade in sufficiently broad markets to permit transactions by clients to be completed without an appreciable impact on the markets of the securities. Under certain circumstances, exceptions may be made to the policies stated above. Records of these trades, including the reasons for the exceptions, will be maintained with Advisor's records in the manner set forth above.

(2) Open-end mutual funds and/or the investment sub-accounts which may comprise a variable insurance product are purchased or redeemed at a fixed net asset value price per share specific to the date of purchase of redemption. As such, transactions in mutual funds and/or variable insurance products by Advisor are not likely to have an impact on the prices of the fund shares in which clients invest, and are therefore not prohibited by Advisor's Investment policies and procedures.

This disclosure is provided to give all Clients a summary of Advisor's Code of Ethics. However, if a Client or a potential Client wishes to review BHWB's Code of Ethics in its entirety, a copy will be provided promptly upon request.

Item 10	Conditions for Managing Accounts. Advisor's minimum account size is generally $500,000. This amount may in certain circumstances be negotiable by Advisor.
Items 12.A.(1), (2)	Investment or Brokerage Discretion. Advisor may have discretionary authority to determine the securities to be bought or sold and the amount of securities to be bought or sold, for a Client's account/securities transactions.
Item 12.B	Recommended Broker-Dealers. BHWM may execute or recommend that clients execute their securities transactions through the Schwab Institutional division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab") or Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services ("FIWS") through Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC, registered broker-dealers with FINRA/SIPC. FIWS or Schwab may charge commissions (ticket charges) for executing BHWM's transactions. BHWM does not receive any part of these separate charges which are assessed directly to BHWM. FIWS or Schwab do not have a role with respect to BHWM's investment advisory accounts, however they may serve as the broker-dealer in cases where clients wish to execute recommendation as part of the implementation of a financial plan. It is important to note that FIWS or Schwab do not maintain supervisory relationships with respect to BHWM or its representatives nor are they in any way affiliated with it. BHWM is independently owned and operated. BHWM may recommend/require that clients establish accounts with FIWS or Schwab to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. FIWS or Schwab may provide BHWM with access to their institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to /or FIWS or Schwab retail investors. FIWS or Schwab's services include brokerage custody, research and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment. For BHWM's Clients' accounts maintained in their custody, FIWS or Schwab do not charge separately for custody but are compensated by account holders through commissions or other transaction-related fees or securities trades that are executed through FIWS or Schwab or that settle into FIWS or Schwab. FIWS or Schwab also make available to BHWM other products and services that may benefit BHWM but which may not benefit its clients. Many of these services may be used to service all or a substantial number of BHWM's accounts. Advisor places trades for its Clients' accounts subject to its duty to seek best execution and its other fiduciary duties. Advisor may use broker-dealers other than FIWS or Schwab to execute trades for client accounts maintained at FIWS or Schwab, but this practice may result in additional costs to clients so that Advisor is more likely to place trades through FIWS or Schwab rather than other broker-dealers. FIWS or Schwab's execution quality may be different than other broker-dealers.
Item 13.A	Additional Compensation. BHWM may receive research and execution related services from the parties mentioned in Item 12B of Schedule F to assist BHWM in managing its accounts. These services and products would include financial publications, pricing information and other products or services. Such research and execution related services are offered to all investment advisors who utilize these firms. However, the commissions charged by these parties may be higher than those charged by a broker who does not provide the aforementioned research and execution related services. As a result of receiving such services for no additional cost, BHWM may have an incentive to continue to use or expand the use of Fidelity's services. BHWM examined this potential conflict of interest when it chose to enter into the relationship with Fidelity and has determined that the relationship is in the best interests of BHWM's clients and satisfies its client obligations, including its duty to seek best execution. A client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where the BHWM determines in good faith that the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broke-dealer's services, including the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Accordingly, although BHWM will seek competitive rates, to the benefit of all clients, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for specific client account transactions. Although the investment research products and services that may be obtained by BHWM will generally be used to service all of BHWM's clients, a brokerage commission paid by a specific client may be used to pay for research that is not used in managing that specific client's account. BHWM and Fidelity are not affiliates, and no broker-dealer affiliated with BHWM is involved in the relationship between BHWM and Fidelity.

(for sponsors of wrap fee programs)

Name of wrap fee program or programs described in attached brochure:

Beverly Hills Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program

1. Applicability of Schedule. This Schedule must be completed by applicants that are compensated under a wrap fee program for sponsoring, organizing, or administering the program, or for selecting, or providing advice to clients regarding the selection of, other investment advisers in the program ("sponsors"). A wrap fee program is any program under which a specified fee or fees not based directly upon transactions in a client's account is charged for investment advisory services (which may include portfolio management or advice concerning the selection of other investment advisers) and execution of client transactions.
2. Use of Schedule. This Schedule sets forth the information the sponsor must include in the wrap fee brochure it is required to deliver or offer to deliver to clients and prospective clients of its wrap fee programs under Rule 204-3 under the federal Advisers Act and similar rules of the jurisdictions. The wrap fee brochure prepared in response to this Schedule must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions as part of Form ADV by completing the identifying information on this Schedule and attaching the brochure. Brochures should be prepared separately, not on copies of this Schedule. Any wrap fee brochure filed with the Commission as part of an amendment to Form ADV shall contain in the upper right hand corner of the cover page the sponsor's registration number (801-).
3. General Contents of Brochure. Unlike Parts I and II of this form, this Schedule is not organized in "check-the-box" format. These instructions, including the requests for information in Item 7 below, should not be repeated in the brochure. Rather, this Schedule describes minimum disclosures that must be made in the brochure to satisfy the sponsor's duty to disclose all material facts about the sponsor and its wrap fee programs. Nothing in this Schedule relieves the sponsor from any obligation under any provision of the federal Advisers Act or rules thereunder, or other federal or state law to disclose information to its advisory clients or prospective advisory clients not specifically required by this Schedule.
4. Multiple Sponsors. If two or more persons fall within the definition of "sponsor" in Item 1 above for a single wrap fee program, only one such sponsor need complete the Schedule. The sponsors may choose among themselves the sponsor that will complete the Schedule.
5. Omission of Inapplicable Information. Any information not specifically required by this Schedule that is included in the brochure should be applicable to clients and prospective clients of the sponsor's wrap fee programs. If the sponsor is required to complete this Schedule with respect to more than one wrap fee program, the sponsor may omit from the brochure furnished to clients and prospective clients of any wrap fee program or programs information required by this Schedule that is not applicable to clients or prospective clients of that wrap fee program or programs. If a sponsor of more than one wrap fee program prepares separate wrap fee brochures for clients of different programs, each brochure prepared must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions attached to a separate copy of this Schedule. Each such brochure must state that the sponsor sponsors other wrap fee programs and state how brochures for those programs may be obtained.
6. Updating. Sponsors are required to file an amendment to the brochure promptly after any information in the brochure becomes materially inaccurate. Amendments may be made by use of a "sticker," i.e., a supplement affixed to the brochure that indicates what information is being added or updated and states the new or revised information, as long as the resulting brochure is readable. Stickers should be dated and should be incorporated into the text of the brochure when the brochure itself is revised.
7. Contents of Brochure. Include in the brochure prepared in response to this Schedule:
 - (a) on the cover page, the sponsor's name, address, telephone number, and the following legend in bold type or some other prominent fashion:

This brochure provides clients with information about Beverly Hills Wealth Management, LLC and the Beverly Hills Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program that should be considered before becoming a client of the Beverly Hills Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program. This information has not been approved or verified by any governmental authority.
 - (b) a table of contents reflecting the subject headings in the sponsor's brochure;
 - (c) the amount of the wrap fee charged for each program or, if fees vary according to a schedule established by the sponsor, a table setting forth the fee schedule, whether such fees are negotiable, the portion of the total fee (or the range of such amounts) paid to persons providing advice to clients regarding the purchase or sale of specific securities under the program ("portfolio managers"), and the services provided under each program (including the types of portfolio management services);

- (e) if applicable, a statement that the person recommending the program to the client receives compensation as a result of the client's participation in the program, that the amount of this compensation may be more than what the person would receive if the client participated in other programs of the sponsor or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage, and other services, and that the person may therefore have a financial incentive to recommend the wrap fee program over other programs or services;
- (f) a description of the nature of any fees that the client may pay in addition to the wrap fee and the circumstances under which these fees may be paid (including, if applicable, mutual fund expenses and mark-ups, mark-downs or spreads paid to market makers from whom securities were obtained by the wrap fee broker);

- (l) if any practice or relationship disclosed in response to Item 7, 8, 9A, 9C and 13 of Part II presents a conflict between the interests of the sponsor and those of its clients, explain the nature of any such conflict of interest; and
- (m) if the sponsor or its divisions or employees covered under the same investment adviser registration as the sponsor act as portfolio managers for a wrap fee program described in the brochure, a brief, general description of the investments and investment strategies utilized by those portfolio managers.

8. Organization and Cross References. Except for the cover page requirements in Item 7(a) above, information contained in the brochure need not follow the order of the items listed in Item 7. However, the brochure should not be organized in such a manner that important information called for by the form is obscured.

Program Description

BHWM's Wrap Fee Program has been designed to help meet BHWM's client's financial circumstances and investment objectives.

BHWM Services

BHWM's Wrap Fee Program Accounts. BHWM's Wrap Assets will be managed by BHWM on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. BHWM will review the Wrap Assets on a regular and continuous basis and make recommendations as BHWM deems appropriate. BHWM typically recommends equities, ETF's, fixed income securities, and some mutual funds that are appropriate given the client's financial circumstances and investment goals for the Wrap Program Accounts, but may also recommend other securities or money management programs from time to time. BHWM selects mutual funds for inclusion in its recommended list of funds based on style, past performance, experience and track records of fund managers, and risk ratings as established by independent rating services. BHWM's recommendations of other securities will be based on the client's particular needs and BHWM's independent review of the appropriateness of the securities to assist the client to meet those needs.

Wrap Program Accounts that are managed on a discretionary basis do allow BHWM to implement recommendations without the client's prior approval. BHWM will act as the Client's agent to implement such recommendation without Client's instructions. The client agrees to review trade confirmations received from the client's custodian and notify BHWM immediately of any errors.

BHWM is authorized to delegate the active discretionary management of all or part of the assets to one or more independent investment managers and/or investment management programs (collectively referred to as "Independent Managers") based upon Client's stated investment objectives. The terms and conditions under which Client may engage the Independent Managers, which may include separate fees in addition to BHWM's Management Fee, may be set forth in a separate written agreement between Client and the designated Independent Managers. Client agrees to execute in a timely manner any such separate written agreements with the Independent Managers that BHWM may deliver to Client. The Independent Managers shall have limited power-of-attorney and trading authority over those Assets BHWM directs to them for management and they shall be authorized to buy, sell, and trade in Securities in accordance with Client's investment objectives as communicated by BHWM and to give instructions in furtherance of such trading authority to the Broker-Dealer and the Custodian. BHWM is authorized to terminate or change Independent Managers when, in BHWM's sole discretion, BHWM believes such termination or change is in Client's best interest. BHWM will continue to render services to Client relative to the supervision of the Independent Managers and ongoing monitoring and review of Account performance, Asset allocation, and investment objectives, for which services BHWM shall be paid the Advisor's Fee.

Brokerage and Custody of Program Accounts

BHWM will direct transactions for Wrap Program Accounts to such broker-dealers as they may select, unless the client gives specific directions otherwise. In directing or recommending brokerage, BHWM seeks "best execution" for client accounts, which is a combination of a number of judgmental factors including price, execution quality and client needs. Recognizing the value of these judgmental factors, brokers selected or recommended may charge commissions that are higher than the lowest commissions that might otherwise be available.

BHWM has a relationship with the Schwab Institutional division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab"), registered broker-dealers with FINRA/SIPC. Schwab is an unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer and FINRA member. This firm will provide custody and execution services in accordance with the terms set forth in your agreement. BHWM reasonably believes that in the case of managed accounts, Schwab's commission and transaction costs, as well as professionalism, allow BHWM to seek best execution and competitive prices.

Program Fees

The annual Program Fees payable to BHWM is as follows:

FEE SCHEDULE: Beverly Hills Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program Portfolio Management

Assets under Management	Annual Advisory Fee
Any Assets	2.00%

What costs are covered by the Program Fees? The Program Fees pay for BHWM's Advisory services to clients under the Program and transaction fees of the Program.

What costs are not covered by the Program Fees? The Program Fees do not cover brokerage fees to the extent trades are conducted through brokers or dealers other than Schwab and custody charges. Finally, the Program Fees do not include expenses of mutual funds that may be included in the client's portfolio.

How are fees charged? The fee for investment management will be based on the time weighted value of the account for the previous quarter and is payable quarterly in advance. The first advisory fee is based on the value of the account on the first day of management by BHWM and is payable upon execution of the agreement. The first advisory fee will be assessed on pro-rata basis taking into account the time for which the account was not managed by BHWM and the time left in the quarter.

Fees may be negotiable. The Client's fees will take into account the aggregate number of portfolios under management with Advisor. Fees will be automatically deducted from the account. Clients will be provided with a quarterly statement reflecting deduction of the advisory fee. BHWM sends a copy of Client invoice to the custodian or trustee at the same time that BHWM sends a copy to the client. The custodian sends quarterly statements to BHWM's clients showing all disbursements for the custodian account, including the amount of the advisory fees. Clients provide written authorization permitting BHWM to be paid directly for their accounts held by the custodian or trustee. Client acknowledges and agrees that if there is not enough liquid cash in Client's accounts, BHWM or any third party Independent Manager will instruct the relevant custodian to liquidate the necessary positions in such accounts to cover the amount of the fees under the Agreement.

Is there a minimum fee and are fees negotiable? BHWM's minimum account size is generally $500,000. This amount may in certain circumstances be negotiable by BHWM.

Additional Information about Program Fees. BHWM generally does not offer the services provided under the Program separately. However, clients may be able to purchase services similar to those offered under the Program from other service providers either separately or as part of a similar wrap fee program. These services or programs may cost more or less than the Program, depending on the fees charged by such other service providers. Pursuant to CCR Section 260.238(j), BHWM hereby discloses that Clients may receive the same or comparable services from other Financial Advisors at a lower fee.

Pursuant to California Code of Regulations, 10 CCR Section 260.235.2, BHWM discloses that it may utilize various firms for the execution of securities transactions and to custody assets. In certain cases, BHWM may recommend that clients execute transactions through unaffiliated broker-dealers further described in Item 12(B) of Schedule F. In any event, Client is under no obligation to act upon BHWM's recommendations and if the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations, the Client is under no obligation to effect the transaction through BHWM, or any of the unaffiliated broker-dealers listed in Item 12(B) of Schedule F.

This account is a wrap account, the Client will not incur transaction charges imposed by unaffiliated third parties. The Client may pay custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund, index fund, or exchange traded fund which shall be disclosed in the funds prospectus (i.e., fund management fees and other fund expenses), wire transfer fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. BHWM pays transaction/execution costs associated with securities trading which may present a disincentive for BHWM to trade securities in the Client's account. BHWM hereby declares a conflict of interest may exist due to this disincentive.

Either party may terminate the agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. Full refunds will only be made in cases where cancellation occurs within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's investment advisory agreement. After five (5) business days, clients will receive pro-rata refunds, which take into account work completed by the Advisor on behalf of the client. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis.

Other Business Activities.

Ms. Black-Scott is a registered representative with Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments, Inc. ("PKS"), a registered broker-dealer and Member FINRA/SIPC. BHWB is not affiliated with PKS. In order to comply with FINRA Conduct Rule 3040, PKS as an unaffiliated broker-dealer may periodically review the investment advisory transactions of BHWB. This information will be viewed by PKS' compliance department personnel for supervisory purposes only. No information viewed will be utilized for purposes of solicitation or shared with any affiliation outside the scope of regulatory compliance.

Recommended Broker-Dealers.

BHWB may execute or recommend that clients execute their securities transactions through the Schwab Institutional division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab") or Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services ("FIWS") through Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC, registered broker-dealers with FINRA/SIPC.

FIWS or Schwab may charge commissions (ticket charges) for executing BHWB's transactions. BHWB does not receive any part of these separate charges which are assessed directly to BHWB. FIWS or Schwab do not have a role with respect to BHWB's investment advisory accounts, however they may serve as the broker-dealer in cases where clients wish to execute recommendation as part of the implementation of a financial plan. It is important to note that FIWS or Schwab do not maintain supervisory relationships with respect to BHWB or its representatives nor are they in any way affiliated with it. BHWB is independently owned and operated.

BHWM may recommend/require that clients establish accounts with FIWS or Schwab to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. FIWS or Schwab may provide BHWM with access to their institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to /or FIWS or Schwab retail investors. FIWS or Schwab's services include brokerage custody, research and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.

For BHWM's Clients' accounts maintained in their custody, FIWS or Schwab do not charge separately for custody but are compensated by account holders through commissions or other transaction-related fees or securities trades that are executed through FIWS or Schwab or that settle into FIWS or Schwab.

FIWS or Schwab also make available to BHWM other products and services that may benefit BHWM but which may not benefit its clients. These types of services will help BHWM in managing and administering client accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to client account data (i.e. trade confirmations and account statements); facilitate trade executions; provide research, pricing information, and other market data; facilitate in the payment of BHWM's fees from its clients' accounts; and assist with back-office functions, record-keeping, and client reporting. Many of these services may be used to service all or a substantial number of BHWM's accounts.

Advisor places trades for its Clients' accounts subject to its duty to seek best execution and its other fiduciary duties. Advisor may use broker-dealers other than FIWS or Schwab to execute trades for client accounts maintained at FIWS or Schwab, but this practice may result in additional costs to clients so that Advisor is more likely to place trades through FIWS or Schwab rather than other broker-dealers. FIWS or Schwab's execution quality may be different than other broker-dealers.

Additional Compensation.

BHWM may receive research and execution related services from the parties mentioned in Item 12B of Schedule F to assist BHWM in managing its accounts. These services and products would include financial publications, pricing information and other products or services. Such research and execution related services are offered to all investment advisors who utilize these firms. However, the commissions charged by these parties may be higher than those charged by a broker who does not provide the aforementioned research and execution related services.

As a result of receiving such services for no additional cost, BHWM may have an incentive to continue to use or expand the use of Fidelity's services. BHWM examined this potential conflict of interest when it chose to enter into the relationship with Fidelity and has determined that the relationship is in the best interests of BHWM's clients and satisfies its client obligations, including its duty to seek best execution. A client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where the BHWM determines in good faith that the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Accordingly, although BHWM will seek competitive rates, to the benefit of all clients, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for specific client account transactions. Although the investment research products and services that may be obtained by BHWM will generally be used to service all of BHWM's clients, a brokerage commission paid by a specific client may be used to pay for research that is not used in managing that specific client's account. BHWM and Fidelity are not affiliates, and no broker-dealer affiliated with BHWM is involved in the relationship between BHWM and Fidelity.
