Item 1.D

Adviser will emphasize continuous and regular account supervision. Adviser may create a portfolio, consisting of individual stocks or bonds; exchange traded funds, mutual funds and other securities. Our investment strategy will be tailored to the individual needs of the Client. Each portfolio will be initially designed to meet a particular investment goal, which Adviser has determined to be suitable to the Client's circumstances. Once the appropriate portfolio has been determined, Adviser will review the portfolio at least quarterly and if necessary, rebalance the portfolio based upon the Client's individual needs, stated goals and objectives. However, each Client will have the opportunity to place reasonable restrictions on the types of investments to be held in the portfolio.

Adviser fees shall be based on the market value of the Assets under management and shall be calculated according to the schedule below:

Assets Under Management	Annual Advisory Fee
$0-$500,000	2.75
$500,00 - $999,999	2.50
$1,000,000 - $3,000,000	2.00
$3,000,000 & up	1.75

These annual fees shall be negotiable in certain cases and be pro-rated and paid in arrears on a quarterly or monthly basis as best suits the client's needs. No increase in the annual fee shall be effective without prior written notification to the Client. Clients are responsible for custodial fees and transaction costs. In the event that the Client terminates Adviser's services before the end of a calendar quarter, Client shall

Additionally, Adviser may provide clients with financial and investment consulting services. With respect to financial consulting, Adviser will generally charge a flat rate ranging from $500 to $5000 or an hourly fee of $350/hour, which may be negotiable in certain circumstances, depending upon the level and scope of these services. The total number of hours will be estimated prior to the engagement and the total estimated fees will be specified in Adviser's Financial Consulting Agreement.

The client will be invoiced directly. 25% of the estimated hourly fees or flat rate fees will be due upon execution of the Financial Consulting Agreement. The remainder will be collected in 25% increments in arrears on a quarterly basis. The initial fee may be waived for existing clients. All prepaid services will be completed within 6 months.

Either party may terminate the agreement at anytime by providing written notice to the other party within five (5) days of signing the Adviser's financial planning agreement. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis.

Selection, Recommendation, Due Diligence, Performance Reporting Of Third Party Advisory Services

In order to assist the Client in the selection of a Third Party Advisory Service, Adviser will typically gather information from the Clients about the Client's financial situation, investment objectives, and reasonable restrictions the Client wants imposed on the management of the account. Adviser will not offer advice on any specific securities or other investments in connection with this service.

Adviser will periodically review reports provided to the Clients, but no less often than on a quarterly basis. The Investment Advisory Representatives of Adviser will contact the Client periodically, as agreed to with the Clients, in order to review the Client's financial situation and objectives; communicate information to the Third Party Advisory Service managing the account as warranted; and, assist the Clients in understanding and evaluating the services provided by the Third Party Advisory Service. Clients will be expected to notify Adviser of any changes in their financial situation, investment objectives, or account restrictions. Clients may also contact directly the Third Party Adviser managing the account or sponsoring the program.

Adviser receives compensation pursuant to its agreements with these Third Party Advisory Programs for introducing Clients to these Third Party Advisory Programs and for certain ongoing services provided to Clients. This compensation, which is disclosed to the Client in a separate disclosure document provided by the Third Party Advisory Program, is typically equal to a percentage of the investment advisory fee charged by that Third Party Advisory Program or a fixed fee. The advisory fee paid to Adviser from the Third Party Adviser shall be negotiable in certain circumstances, but shall never exceed the amount in Adviser's published fee statement.

Additional Information Concerning Fees

In certain circumstances, advisory fees and account minimums may be negotiable based upon prior relationships as well as related account holdings. The fees charged are calculated as described above and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds of an advisory Client.

All fees paid to Adviser for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. Such fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses and a possible distribution fee. If the fund also imposes sales charges, a Client may pay an initial or deferred sales charge.

A Client could invest in a mutual fund directly, without the services of Adviser. In that case, the Client would not receive the services provided by Adviser which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which mutual fund or funds are most appropriate to the Client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the Clients should review both the fees charged by the funds and the fees charged by Adviser to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the Clients and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided.

Advisory recommendations are based on the Client's financial situation at the time the services are provided and are based on financial information disclosed by the Client to Adviser. Clients are advised that certain assumptions may be made with respect to interest and inflation rates and the use of past trends and performance of the market and economy. Past performance is in no way an indication of future performance. As the Client's financial situation, goals, objectives, or needs change, the Client must notify Adviser promptly. Adviser shall never have custody of any Client funds or securities, as the services of a qualified and independent custodian will be used for these asset management services.

In performing its services, Adviser shall not be required to verify any information received from the Client or from the Client's other professionals, and is expressly authorized to rely thereon. The Client is free to accept or reject any recommendation made by Adviser. Moreover, each Client is advised that it remains his/her/its responsibility to promptly notify Adviser if there is ever any change in his/her/its financial situation or investment objectives for the purpose of reviewing/evaluating/revising Adviser's previous recommendations and/or services. The trading authority will allow Adviser to take advantage of time-sensitive market conditions in securities, which are consistent with the client's prior stated investment objectives. However, Adviser's investment authority may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, and/or conditions imposed by the client. For example, a client may specify that the investment in any particular stock or industry should not exceed specified percentages of the value of the portfolio and/or restrictions or prohibitions of transactions in the securities of a specific industry.
Item 13.A	Additional Compensation While Adviser, and its associated persons, endeavor at all times to put the interest of the clients first as part of their fiduciary duty, clients should be aware that receipt of additional compensation in itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence Adviser's choice of TD AMERITRADE for custody and brokerage services. As disclosed under Item 12.B. above, Adviser participates in TD AMERITRADE's institutional customer program and Adviser may require clients to maintain accounts with TD AMERITRADE. There is no direct link between Adviser's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although Adviser receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD AMERITRADE retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving Adviser participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts); the ability to have Advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to Adviser by third party vendors. TD AMERITRADE may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by Adviser's related persons and may also pay or reimburse expenses (including travel, lodging, meals [and entertainment] expenses) for Adviser's personnel to attend conferences or meetings relating to the program or to TD AMERITRADE's Adviser custody and brokerage services generally. Some of the products and services made available by TD AMERITRADE through the program may benefit Adviser but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist Adviser in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD AMERITRADE. Other services made available by TD AMERITRADE are intended to help Adviser manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by Adviser or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD AMERITRADE.

Proxy Voting Policy

Adviser does not vote Client proxies. However, money managers selected by Adviser may vote proxies for Clients. Therefore, except in the event a money manager votes proxies, Clients maintain exclusive responsibility for: (1) directing the manner in which proxies solicited by issuers of securities beneficially owned by the Client shall be voted, and (2) making all elections relative to any mergers, acquisitions, tender offers, bankruptcy proceedings or other type events pertaining to the Client's investment assets. Therefore (except for proxies that may be voted by a money manager), Adviser and/or the Client shall instruct the Client's qualified custodian to forward to the Client copies of all proxies and shareholder communications relating to the Client's investment assets.

Privacy Policy

Adviser views protecting its customers' private information as a top priority and, pursuant to the requirements of the Gramm-Leach Bliley Act, Adviser has instituted policies and procedures to ensure that customer information is kept private and secure.

Adviser does not share or disclose customer information to nonaffiliated third parties except as permitted or required by law. Adviser is committed to safeguarding the confidential information of its Clients. Adviser holds all personal information provided by Clients in the strictest confidence and it is the objective of Adviser to protect the privacy of all Clients. Except as permitted or required by law, Adviser does not share confidential information about Clients with nonaffiliated parties. In the event that there were to be a change in this policy, Adviser will provide Clients with written notice and Clients will be provided an opportunity to direct Adviser as to whether such disclosure is permissible. Adviser delivers a copy of its privacy policy to all Clients on an annual basis.

To conduct regular business, Adviser may collect personal information from sources such as:

- Information reported by the Client on applications or other forms the Client provides to Adviser;
- Information about the Client's transactions implemented by others and viewable by Adviser;
- Information developed as part of analyses or investment advisory services.

To administer, manage, service, and provide related services for Client accounts, it is necessary for Adviser to provide access to customer information within the firm and to nonaffiliated companies with whom Adviser has entered into agreements with. To provide the utmost service, Adviser may disclose the information below regarding customers and former customers, as necessary, to companies to perform certain services on Adviser's behalf.

(for sponsors of wrap fee programs)

Name of wrap fee program or programs described in attached brochure:

Leap Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program

1. Applicability of Schedule. This Schedule must be completed by applicants that are compensated under a wrap fee program for sponsoring, organizing, or administering the program, or for selecting, or providing advice to clients regarding the selection of, other investment advisers in the program ("sponsors"). A wrap fee program is any program under which a specified fee or fees not based directly upon transactions in a client's account is charged for investment advisory services (which may include portfolio management or advice concerning the selection of other investment advisers) and execution of client transactions.
2. Use of Schedule. This Schedule sets forth the information the sponsor must include in the wrap fee brochure it is required to deliver or offer to deliver to clients and prospective clients of its wrap fee programs under Rule 204-3 under the federal Advisers Act and similar rules of the jurisdictions. The wrap fee brochure prepared in response to this Schedule must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions as part of Form ADV by completing the identifying information on this Schedule and attaching the brochure. Brochures should be prepared separately, not on copies of this Schedule. Any wrap fee brochure filed with the Commission as part of an amendment to Form ADV shall contain in the upper right hand corner of the cover page the sponsor's registration number (801- ...).
3. General Contents of Brochure. Unlike Parts I and II of this form, this Schedule is not organized in "check-the-box" format. These instructions, including the requests for information in Item 7 below, should not be repeated in the brochure. Rather, this Schedule describes minimum disclosures that must be made in the brochure to satisfy the sponsor's duty to disclose all material facts about the sponsor and its wrap fee programs. Nothing in this Schedule relieves the sponsor from any obligation under any provision of the federal Advisers Act or rules thereunder, or other federal or state law to disclose information to its advisory clients or prospective advisory clients not specifically required by this Schedule.
4. Multiple Sponsors. If two or more persons fall within the definition of "sponsor" in Item 1 above for a single wrap fee program, only one such sponsor need complete the Schedule. The sponsors may choose among themselves the sponsor that will complete the Schedule.
5. Omission of Inapplicable Information. Any information not specifically required by this Schedule that is included in the brochure should be applicable to clients and prospective clients of the sponsor's wrap fee programs. If the sponsor is required to complete this Schedule with respect to more than one wrap fee program, the sponsor may omit from the brochure furnished to clients and prospective clients of any wrap fee program or programs information required by this Schedule that is not applicable to clients or prospective clients of that wrap fee program or programs. If a sponsor of more than one wrap fee program prepares separate wrap fee brochures for clients of different programs, each brochure prepared must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions attached to a separate copy of this Schedule. Each such brochure must state that the sponsor sponsors other wrap fee programs and state how brochures for those programs may be obtained.
6. Updating. Sponsors are required to file an amendment to the brochure promptly after any information in the brochure becomes materially inaccurate. Amendments may be made by use of a "sticker," i.e., a supplement affixed to the brochure that indicates what information is being added or updated and states the new or revised information, as long as the resulting brochure is readable. Stickers should be dated and should be incorporated into the text of the brochure when the brochure itself is revised.
7. Contents of Brochure. Include in the brochure prepared in response to this Schedule:
 - (a) on the cover page, the sponsor's name, address, telephone number, and the following legend in bold type or some other prominent fashion:

This brochure provides clients with information about Leap Wealth Management, and the Leap Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program that should be considered before becoming a client of the Leap Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program. This information has not been approved or verified by any governmental authority.
 - (b) a table of contents reflecting the subject headings in the sponsor's brochure;
 - (c) the amount of the wrap fee charged for each program or, if fees vary according to a schedule established by the sponsor, a table setting forth the fee schedule, whether such fees are negotiable, the portion of the total fee (or the range of such amounts) paid to persons providing advice to clients regarding the purchase or sale of specific securities under the program ("portfolio managers"), and the services provided under each program (including the types of portfolio management services);

- (d) a statement that the program may cost the client more or less than purchasing such services separately and a statement of the factors that bear upon the relative cost of the program (e.g., the cost of the services if provided separately and the trading activity in the client's account);
- (e) if applicable, a statement that the person recommending the program to the client receives compensation as a result of the client's participation in the program, that the amount of this compensation may be more than what the person would receive if the client participated in other programs of the sponsor or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage, and other services, and that the person may therefore have a financial incentive to recommend the wrap fee program over other programs or services;
- (f) a description of the nature of any fees that the client may pay in addition to the wrap fee and the circumstances under which these fees may be paid (including, if applicable, mutual fund expenses and mark-ups, mark-downs or spreads paid to market makers from whom securities were obtained by the wrap fee broker);
- (g) how the program's portfolio managers are selected and reviewed, the basis upon which portfolio managers are recommended or chosen for particular clients, and the circumstances under which the sponsor will replace or recommend the replacement of the portfolio manager;
- (h)
 - (1) if applicable, a statement to the effect that portfolio manager performance information is not reviewed by the sponsor or a third party and/or that performance information is not calculated on a uniform and consistent basis,
 - (2) if performance information is reviewed to determine its accuracy, the name of the party who review the information and a brief description of the nature of the review,
 - (3) a reference to any standards (i.e., industry standards or standards used solely by the sponsor) under which performance information may be calculated;
- (i) a description of the information about the client that is communicated by the sponsor to the client's portfolio manager, and how often or under what circumstances the sponsor provides updated information about the client to the portfolio manager.
- (j) any restrictions on the ability of clients to contact and consult with portfolio managers;
- (k) in narrative text, the information required by Items 7 and 8 of Part II of this form, and as applicable to clients of the wrap fee program, the information required by Items 2, 5, 6, 9A and C, 10, 11, 13 and 14 of Part II;
- (l) if any practice or relationship disclosed in response to Item 7, 8, 9A, 9C and 13 of Part II presents a conflict between the interests of the sponsor and those of its clients, explain the nature of any such conflict of interest; and
- (m) if the sponsor or its divisions or employees covered under the same investment adviser registration as the sponsor act as portfolio managers for a wrap fee program described in the brochure, a brief, general description of the investments and investment strategies utilized by those portfolio managers.

8. Organization and Cross References. Except for the cover page requirements in Item 7(a) above, information contained in the brochure need not follow the order of the items listed in Item 7. However, the brochure should not be organized in such a manner that important information called for by the form is obscured.

Set forth below the pages(s) of the brochure on which the various disclosures required by Item 7 are provided.

This brochure provides clients with information about Leap Wealth Management, and the Leap Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program that should be considered before becoming a client of the Leap Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program. This information has not been approved or verified by any governmental authority.

Program Description

Leap Wealth Management Wrap Program (“Wrap Program”) has been designed to connect Leap Wealth Management’s clients with professional in-house money managers and investment vehicles suitable for their financial circumstances and investment objectives. Leap Wealth Management (“Adviser”) is the sponsor of the Wrap Program. Christopher Leap and Trey Taylor are currently the investment advisory representatives of the Adviser. Mr. Leap is the Wrap Program's portfolio manager while Mr. Taylor will exercise supervision over some wrap program accounts.

Leap Wealth Management Plan

Adviser is a registered investment adviser which offers investment management services to individuals, high net worth individuals, corporations and business entities. Adviser, depending upon the engagement, offers its services on a fee basis which primarily include percentage of assets based fees. Prior to engaging Adviser to provide any of the foregoing investment advisory services, the client will be required to enter into one or more written agreements with Adviser setting forth the terms and conditions under which Adviser shall render its services (collectively the “Agreement”).

Leap Wealth Management Services

Leap Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program Accounts. The Adviser’s Wrap Fee Program Accounts will be managed by the Adviser on a non-discretionary or discretionary basis. The Adviser will review the Wrap Assets on a regular and continuous basis and make recommendations as the Adviser deems appropriate. Adviser will work with its clients to identify their investment goals and objectives as well as risk tolerance in order to create an initial portfolio allocation designed to complement their clients’ educational, home ownership and retirement funding goals and objectives, etc. Adviser may create a portfolio, consisting of individual stocks, bonds or other securities.

In cases where the Client’s account is managed on a non-discretionary basis, the Adviser will not implement any recommendation without the client’s prior approval. The Adviser will act as the Client’s agent to implement such recommendation in accordance with Client’s instructions. The client agrees to review trade confirmations received from the client’s custodian and notify the Adviser immediately of any errors.

There will be no restrictions on the ability of clients to contact and consult with portfolio managers.

Christopher Leap, the program manager along with Trey Taylor will review all accounts at least on a quarterly basis. More frequent reviews may be necessary due to the client’s individual circumstances, economic conditions, general factors affecting the stock market, etc. Adviser will put Trey Taylor in place of Christopher Leap as manager should the Mr. Leap’s ability to serve as such is impaired. Portfolio manager performance information is not reviewed by the sponsor or a third party and performance information is not calculated on a uniform and consistent basis.

Clients will receive transaction confirmations and quarterly statements from their account custodians. Collectively, these reports will list client’s account holdings, transactions and fees paid to the Adviser.

Investment and Investment Strategies

Adviser may create a portfolio, consisting of individual stocks or bonds; exchange traded funds, mutual funds and other securities. The investment strategy will be tailored to the individual needs of the Client and may include long term purchases, short term purchases, trading and short sales as well as possible margin transactions, option writing, including covered options, uncovered options and spreading strategies.

Brokerage and Custody of Program Accounts

Leap Wealth Management, will direct transactions for Wrap Fee Accounts to such broker-dealers as they may select, unless the client gives specific directions otherwise. In directing or recommending brokerage, the Adviser seeks “best execution” for client accounts, which is a combination of a number of judgmental factors including price, execution quality and client needs. Recognizing the value of these judgmental factors, brokers selected or recommended may charge commissions that are higher than the lowest commissions that might otherwise be available.

As stated earlier, Adviser may execute or recommend that clients execute their securities transactions through various firms. The choice of which firm to execute trades through will be determined on the financial strength of the broker or dealer, its reputation, pricing and ability to execute trades in a timely manner. Securities transactions will be executed through various brokerage firms and their costs are exclusive of and in addition to the Registrant’s fee.

Brokerage firms may be paid certain advisory fees, product management fees (on annuities and securities such as mutual funds), administrative fees and/or transaction charges for its role with respect to Adviser’s accounts. Clients will not charged these fees, instead Adviser will be assessed any costs for executing transactions. It is important to note that the aforementioned brokerage firms do not maintain a supervisory relationship with respect to Adviser or its representatives.

Adviser does not maintain custody of client assets. In all managed account cases, the custodian sends quarterly statements to Adviser’s clients showing all disbursements for the custodian account including the amount of the advisory fees. Clients provide written authorization permitting Adviser to be paid directly for their accounts held by the custodian or trustee.

Program Fees

The Annual Fee payable to Leap Wealth Management for its Leap Wealth Management Wrap Fee Program shall be based on the market value of the Assets under management and shall be calculated according to the schedule below:

Assets Under Management	Annual Advisory Fee
$0-$500,000	2.75
$500,00 - $999,999	2.50
$1,000,000 - $3,000,000	2.00
$3,000,000 & up	1.75

What services are covered by the Program Fees? The Client will not incur transaction charges. The Client may pay custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund, index fund, or exchange traded fund which shall be disclosed in the fund's prospectus (i.e., fund management fees and other fund expenses), wire transfer fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions.

What services are not covered by the Program Fees? The Program Fees do not cover brokerage charges to the extent that trades are conducted through brokers or dealers other than what Adviser chooses for its client. The Program Fees do not cover custody charges if clients are custodied anywhere other than the custodian in charge of the client's account. Lastly, the Program Fees do not include expenses of mutual funds that may be included in the client's portfolio.

How are fees charged? These annual fees shall be negotiable in certain cases and be pro-rated and paid in advance on a quarterly basis. No increase in the annual fee shall be effective without prior written notification to the Client. In the event that the Client terminates Adviser's services before the end of a calendar quarter, Client shall be assessed a pro-rata fee based on the number of days the Client's account was managed by Adviser.

Unless the Client requests direct billing, fees will be automatically deducted from the account. Clients will be provided with a quarterly statement reflecting deduction of the advisory fee.

Is there a minimum fee and are fees negotiable? There is no minimum fee and fees are negotiable in some cases.

Additional Information about Program Fees.

Adviser will not be compensated from the sale or purchase of specific securities and will receive only the standard compensation as with its other advisory services.

Either party may terminate the agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. Full refunds will only be made in cases where cancellation occurs within five (5) business days of signing the Adviser's investment advisory agreement. After five (5) business days, clients will receive pro-rata refunds, which take into account work completed by the Adviser on behalf of the client. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis.

No portion of Adviser's compensation shall be based on capital gains or capital appreciation of the Assets except as provided for under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

Adviser will adhere to the SEC Staff No-Action Letter, SMC Capital, Inc. in the event that orders are aggregated.

The wrap program may cost the client more or less than purchasing such services separately and will depend on the trading activity in the client's account. The cost of non-wrapped investment advisory services is generally 10% lower than investment advisory services provided under the wrap program.

Education and Business Standards

All individuals that render investment advisory services on behalf of Adviser are generally required to have a college degree and/or five (5) years of equivalent industry experience. In addition, all investment advisory representatives must have obtained all required licenses or a professional designation such as the CFP®.

Other Financial Industry Activities or Affiliations

Mr. Leap, in his individual capacity, is licensed in insurance. Hence, he will be able to receive separate, yet customary commission compensation resulting from implementing product transactions on behalf of advisory clients.

Review of Accounts

Mr. Leap, Managing Member and Chief Compliance Officer, and Trey Taylor review all accounts on at least quarterly basis. More frequent reviews may be necessary due to the client's individual circumstances, economic conditions, general factors affecting the stock market, etc.

Mr. Leap's performance information is not reviewed by the sponsor or a third party.

Clients will receive transaction confirmations and quarterly statements from their account custodians. Collectively, these reports will list client's account holdings, transactions and fees paid to the Adviser.

Additional Compensation

While Adviser, and its associated persons, endeavor at all times to put the interest of the clients first as part of their fiduciary duty, clients should be aware that receipt of additional compensation in itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence Adviser's choice of TD AMERITRADE for custody and brokerage services. Adviser participates in TD AMERITRADE's institutional customer program and Adviser may require clients to maintain accounts with TD AMERITRADE. There is no direct link between Adviser's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although Adviser receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD AMERITRADE retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving Adviser participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts); the ability to have Advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to Adviser by third party vendors.

TD AMERITRADE may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by Adviser's related persons and may also pay or reimburse expenses (including travel, lodging, meals [and entertainment] expenses) for Adviser's personnel to attend conferences or meetings relating to the program or to TD AMERITRADE's Adviser custody and brokerage services generally. Some of the products and services made available by TD AMERITRADE through the program may benefit Adviser but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist Adviser in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD AMERITRADE. Other services made available by TD AMERITRADE are intended to help Adviser manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by Adviser or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD AMERITRADE.
