Answer

Item 1D, 3L

Lewis Wealth Management, LLC (hereinafter known as "Adviser" or "LWM") is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the State of Colorado. Adviser offers investment advisory services to individuals and high net worth individuals, and pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates and charitable organizations, as well as corporations and other businesses. Adviser's services and fee arrangements are described in the following pages.

This Schedule F narrative provides clients with information regarding Adviser and the qualifications, business practices, and nature of advisory services that should be considered before becoming a client of Adviser.

Additional information about Adviser is available on the Internet at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. You can search this site by a unique identifying number, known as a CRD number. The CRD number for Adviser is 152800.

Portfolio Management

Adviser will emphasize continuous and regular account supervision. Adviser may create a portfolio, consisting of individual stocks or bonds; exchange traded funds ("ETFs"), mutual funds and other public and private securities or investments. The investment strategy will be tailored to the individual needs of the client. Each portfolio will be initially designed to meet a particular investment goal, which Adviser has determined to be suitable to the client's circumstances. Once the appropriate portfolio has been determined, Adviser will review all accounts on at least a quarterly basis. Reviews consist of an examination of account performance against the investment policy established by client. More frequent reviews may be performed due to the client's individual circumstances, economic conditions, general factors affecting the stock market, etc. and if necessary, rebalance the portfolio based upon the client's individual needs, stated goals and objectives.

Adviser's annual fee for investment management services provided under this Agreement shall be based on the market value of the assets under management and be calculated as follows:

Annual Advisory Fee

Assets Under Management	Annual Advisory Fee
$0 - $1,000,000	1.00 %
$1,000,001 - $2,000,000	0.90%
$2,000,001 - $3,000,000	0.80 %
$3,000,001 - $4,000,000	0.70 %
Over $4,000,000	Negotiable

These annual fees shall be negotiable in certain cases and be pro-rated and paid in advance on a quarterly basis. No increase in the annual fee shall be effective without

In the event that the client terminates Adviser's services before the end of a calendar quarter, client shall be assessed a pro-rata fee based on the number of days the client's account was managed by Adviser. Fees will be invoiced quarterly in advance based on account balance. Clients shall be allowed to choose two methods of payment: Option 1: Fees may be deducted from client's asset accounts by the third party custodian. Option 2: Fees paid directly to Adviser by client. Supervisory services will continue in effect until terminated by either party by written notice to the other. Termination shall be effectuated by receipt of written notice from other party. Termination of this Agreement will not affect (i) the validity of any action previously taken by Adviser under this Agreement; (ii) liabilities or obligations of the parties from transactions initiated before termination of this Agreement; or (iii) Client's obligation to pay advisory fees (pro-rated through the date of termination). Upon the termination of this Agreement, Adviser will have no obligation to recommend or take any action with regard to the securities, cash or other investments in the Account. Adviser or the Client may terminate the advisory agreement within five days of the date of acceptance without penalty to the client. After the five-day period, either party, upon written notice to the other, may terminate the agreement. Clients will be responsible for fees relating to services rendered by Adviser under this agreement. Such pro-rated fees will be based upon actual services and termination costs incurred up to and at the time of the termination of Adviser's services. Termination shall be effectuated upon Adviser's receipt of written notice of termination. Adviser's fee schedule does not include the following separately billed fees, which Adviser does not receive any part of: mutual fund and ETF expenses, trading and custodial costs or fees charged in connection with private investments. These fees will be separately charged by the relevant parties and borne by the client. No portion of Adviser's compensation shall be based on capital gains or capital appreciation of the Assets except as provided for under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 or similar state statutes or rules. Consulting Services Additionally, Adviser may provide clients with financial and investment consulting services. With respect to financial consulting, Adviser will generally charge an hourly fee of $250/hour or a fixed fee generally within the range of $2,500 to $5,000, either of which may be negotiable in certain circumstances, depending upon the level and scope of these services. The total number of hours will be estimated prior to the engagement and the total estimated fees will be specified in Adviser's Financial Consulting Agreement. Half of the total amount of estimated fees is due upon the execution of Adviser's Financial Consulting Agreement, and the remaining amount of fees will be due upon execution of the consultation.

Either party may terminate the agreement at anytime by providing written notice to the other party. Full refund shall be returned if within five (5) days of signing the Adviser's financial planning agreement written notice received by Adviser. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis. Termination shall be effectuated upon Adviser's receipt of written notice of termination.

The fee-paying arrangements for hourly charges and/or fixed fees will be determined on a case-by-case basis and will be detailed in the signed agreement for services. The client will be invoiced directly for the fixed or hourly fees.

Selection, Recommendation, Due Diligence, Performance Reporting of Third Party Advisory Service

In certain circumstances, Adviser may select or recommend a Third Party Advisory Service, such as a separate account manager. In order to assist the client in the selection of a Third Party Advisory Service, Adviser will typically gather information from the clients about the client's financial situation, investment objectives, and reasonable restrictions the client wants imposed on the management of the account. Adviser will not offer advice on any specific securities or other investments in connection with this service.

Adviser will periodically review reports provided to the clients, but no less often than on a quarterly basis. The Investment Advisory Representatives of Adviser will contact the client periodically, as agreed to with the clients, in order to review the client's financial situation and objectives; communicate information to the Third Party Advisory Service managing the account as warranted; and, assist the clients in understanding and evaluating the services provided by the Third Party Advisory Service. Clients will be expected to notify Adviser of any changes in their financial situation, investment objectives, or account restrictions. Clients may also contact directly the Third Party Adviser managing the account or sponsoring the program.

Adviser receives compensation pursuant to its agreements with these Third Party Advisory Programs for introducing clients to these Third Party Advisory Programs and for certain ongoing services provided to clients. This compensation, which is disclosed to the client in a separate disclosure document provided by the Third Party Advisory Program, is typically equal to a percentage of the investment advisory fee charged by that Third Party Advisory Program or a fixed fee.

Item 1D (continued)	LWM verifies that its Third Party Advisers are properly licensed or exempt from registration. Additional Information Concerning Fees In certain circumstances, advisory fees may be negotiable based upon prior relationships as well as related account holdings. The fees charged are calculated as described above and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds of an advisory Client. All fees paid to Adviser for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds and ETFs to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. Such fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses and a possible distribution fee. If the fund also imposes sales charges, a Client may pay an initial or deferred sales charge. Adviser does not share in any portion of the brokerage fees/transaction charges imposed by the custodian holding the Client funds or securities. A Client could invest in an ETF or mutual fund directly, without the services of Adviser. In that case, the Client would not receive the services provided by Adviser which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which ETF, mutual fund or funds are most appropriate to the Client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the Clients should review both the fees charged by the funds and the fees charged by Adviser to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the Clients and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided. Advisory recommendations are based on the Client's financial situation at the time the services are provided and are based on financial information disclosed by the Client to Adviser. Clients are advised that certain assumptions may be made with respect to interest and inflation rates and the use of past trends and performance of the market and economy. Past performance is in no way an indication of future performance. As the Client's financial situation, goals, objectives, or needs change, the Client must notify Adviser promptly. Adviser shall never have custody except for authorized fee withdrawal of any Client funds or securities, as the services of a qualified and independent custodian will be used for these asset management services. If fees are automatically deducted from the client's account, the client adheres and acknowledges the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>a) The custodian sends statements at least quarterly to the client showing all disbursements for the custodian account, including the amount of the advisory fees;</li><li>b) The client provides authorization permitting Adviser to be directly paid by these terms;</li><li>c) Adviser sends a copy of its invoice to the custodian at the same time it sends its invoice to the client;</li></ul>

This disclosure is provided to give all clients a summary of advisor's Code of Ethics. However, if a client or a potential client wishes to review Adviser's Code of Ethics in its entirety, a copy will be provided promptly upon request.
Item 10	Conditions for Managing Accounts  Adviser's Account minimum is $500,000. This requirement may be waived at the sole and exclusive discretion of Adviser.
Item 12 & 13A	Investment or Brokerage Discretion  Adviser may have the authority to determine, without obtaining specific client consent, the securities to be bought or sold, and the amount of the securities to be bought or sold. Adviser does not have discretionary authority over the broker or dealer to be used, and the commission rates to be paid to the broker or dealer. It should be noted that Adviser does not have custody of client funds or the authority to remove funds from clients' accounts except to instruct the custodian to return funds directly to clients, or to deduct advisory fees from the account on at least quarterly basis activities authorized by Client through Adviser's advisory agreement.  Suggestion of Brokers  Adviser may recommend that clients establish brokerage accounts with the Schwab Institutional division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab"), registered broker-dealers, Members SIPC, to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. Adviser is independently owned and operated and not affiliated with Schwab. Adviser may also recommend that clients establish accounts with firms other than Schwab.  Schwab may provide Adviser with access to its institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to Schwab retail investors. These services generally are available to independent investment advisors on an unsolicited basis, at no charge to them so long as a total of at least $10 million of the advisor's clients' assets are maintained in accounts at Schwab Institutional, and are not otherwise contingent upon Adviser committing to Schwab any specific amount of business (assets in custody or trading) . Schwab's services include brokerage, custody, research, and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or require a significantly higher minimum initial investment. For Adviser's client accounts maintained in its custody, Schwab generally does not charge separately for custody but is compensated by account holders through commissions, transaction-related or asset based fees for securities trades that are executed through Schwab or that settle into Schwab accounts.

Item 12 & 13A (continued)	Schwab also makes available to Adviser other products and services that benefit Adviser but may not benefit its clients' accounts. Some of these other products and services assist Adviser in managing and administering clients' accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to client account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements), facilitate trade execution (and allocation of aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts), provide research, pricing information and other market data, facilitate payment of Adviser's fees from its clients' accounts, and assist with back-office functions, recordkeeping and client reporting. Many of these services generally may be used to service all or a substantial number of Adviser's accounts, including accounts not maintained at Schwab Institutional. In addition, Schwab Institutional also makes available to Adviser other services intended to help Adviser manage and further develop its business enterprise. These services may include consulting, publications and conferences on practice management, information technology, business succession, regulatory compliance, and marketing. In addition, Schwab may make available, arrange and/or pay for these types of services rendered to Adviser by independent third parties. Schwab Institutional may discount or waive fees it would otherwise charge for some of these services or pay all or a part of the fees of a third-party providing these services to Adviser. While as a fiduciary, Adviser endeavors to act in its clients' best interests, Adviser's recommendation that clients maintain their assets in accounts at Schwab may be based in part on the benefit to Adviser of the availability of some of the foregoing products and services and not solely on the nature, cost or quality of custody and brokerage services provided by Schwab, which may create a potential conflict of interest. From time-to-time Adviser may make an error in submitting a trade order on a client's behalf. When this occurs, Adviser may place a correcting trade with the broker-dealer which has custody of the client's account. If an investment gain results from the correcting trade, the gain will remain in the client's account unless the same error involved other client account(s) that should have received the gain, it is not permissible for the client to retain the gain, or Adviser confers with the client and the client decides to forego the gain (e.g., due to tax reasons). If the gain does not remain in the client's account and Schwab is the custodian, Schwab will donate the amount of any gain $100 and over to charity. If a loss occurs greater than $100, Adviser will pay for the loss. Schwab will maintain the loss or gain (if such gain is not retained in the client's account) if it is under $100 to minimize and offset its administrative time and expense. Generally, if related trade errors result in both gains and losses in the client's account, they may be netted.
Miscellaneous	Additional Compensation Adviser may receive research and execution related services from the parties mentioned in Item 12B of Schedule F to assist Adviser in managing its accounts. These services and products would include financial publications, pricing information and other products or services. Such research and execution related services are offered to all investment advisers who utilize these firms. However, the commissions charged by these parties may be higher than those charged by a broker who does not provide the aforementioned research and execution related services. Please refer to Item 1D of Schedule F in reference the aforementioned commissions.

Proxy Voting Policy

Adviser does not vote client proxies. However, money managers selected by Adviser may vote proxies for clients. Therefore, except in the event a money manager votes proxies, clients maintain exclusive responsibility for: (1) directing the manner in which proxies solicited by issuers of securities beneficially owned by the client shall be voted, and (2) making all elections relative to any mergers, acquisitions, tender offers, bankruptcy proceedings or other type events pertaining to the client's investment assets. Therefore (except for proxies that may be voted by a money manager), Adviser and/or the client shall instruct the client's qualified custodian to forward to the client copies of all proxies and shareholder communications relating to the client's investment assets.

Insider Trading

In accordance with Section 204A of the Investment Advisors Act of 1940 or similar state statutes or rules, Adviser also maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of material non-public information by Adviser.

Privacy Policy

Adviser does not share or disclose customer information to nonaffiliated third parties except as permitted or required by law. Adviser is committed to safeguarding the confidential information of its clients. Adviser holds all personal information provided by clients in the strictest confidence and it is the objective of Adviser to protect the privacy of all clients. Except as permitted or required by law, Adviser does not share confidential information about clients with nonaffiliated parties. In the event that there were to be a change in this policy, Adviser will provide clients with written notice and clients will be provided an opportunity to direct Adviser as to whether such disclosure is permissible. Adviser delivers a copy of its privacy policy to all clients on an annual basis.

To conduct regular business, Adviser may collect personal information from sources such as:

- Information reported by the client on applications or other forms the client provides to Adviser;
- Information about the client's transactions implemented by others and viewable by Adviser;
- Information developed as part of analyses or investment advisory services.

Miscellaneous

To administer, manage, service, and provide related services for client accounts, it is necessary for Adviser to provide access to customer information within the firm and to nonaffiliated companies with whom Adviser has entered into agreements with. To provide the utmost service, Adviser may disclose the information below regarding customers and former customers, as necessary, to companies to perform certain services on Adviser's behalf.

- Information Adviser receives from the client on applications (name, social security number, address, assets, etc.);
- Information about the client's transactions with Adviser or others (account information, payment history, parties to transactions, etc.);
- Information concerning investment advisory account transactions;
- Information about a client's financial products and services with Adviser.

How We Protect Information.

Adviser maintains the confidentiality of the information that its clients provide. Adviser protects client's information by meeting all laws setting forth procedures for providing physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information. All people who work for the Adviser are trained to handle client's information properly in order to maintain its security. Adviser also restricts access to personal information about clients to only those employees who need such information to provide service(s) to the client. Adviser maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with industry standards to guard clients' personal information. Adviser does not sell or market clients' or prospective clients' personal information to third parties. Adviser does not disclose any information about its clients or former clients to anyone, except as needed by our service providers (e.g., broker, accountants, attorneys and auditors) or as required by law.

Changes in Privacy Policy.

Adviser may modify the policy at any time. Adviser will notify its current clients of any modifications.
